3. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

3.1

Lori English, Member of the Public said I would like to direct everybody's attention to what is on the monitors right now. I have a problem with what happened two weeks ago concerning Chief Story's situation. It has all been said up there and there is also additional information concerning behavior at city council meetings for public input and I have noticed over the years more and more of that has become very relaxed. Personally, I was very offended at some of the comments that were made directed at Chief Story two weeks ago basically blaming him for everything that happened. Now in my opinion his comments were made under duress, they were made in a very emotional and tragic situation and his comments being made in public at that time under pressure shouldn't be held against him. He is an honorable man, he does a lot for this community, and I think that you all will agree we respect him with the most profound respect but comments made by anybody, any councilor made taken out of context to be used against him later on it should not be allowed. With all due respect Mr. Mayor and honor to you I think that should have been ceased and desisted at the time. There should have been a little more control over the input being made against Chief Story. He has done a wonderful job, and I am not against freedom of speech at all. I am a constitutional conservative, so I am a very big supporter of the First Amendment but I do think that when something starts to looks like it is going to be getting out of control it needs to be taken into consideration and last week it even got brought to the attention that the behavior was inappropriate of the people that were making the comments. I would just like to call it again to the council's attention that this is something that is in the rules for the city council meetings. It is available to everybody out there and maybe everybody should be handed maybe a copy of this when they come in the door for the next couple of months until things get sorted out. This is what is expected of you, we have to respect you as much as you have to respect us and getting in an altercation first of all you are in a very tenuous situation where you just can't respond. You are not allowed to get into an argument so thank you for your service to the community believe it or not. I do appreciate each and every one of you and what you do for us.

Lucas Herndon, Member of the Public said I am a resident of District 2. Certainly glad to know that there are people here who support freedom of speech as long as it agrees with them and also I would like to address speaking of the council's behavior there were comments made after some of us spoke last time about that you wished that some of us would stick around after we spoke. Well, we wish you would hold these meetings when we weren't at work and having to take time off so that we could be here. Most of us have lives and jobs and we have to take time off to be here to participate so please forgive us that we can't stay and listen to you dribble on. Today just after 10 o'clock unmarked masked thugs kidnapped human beings off the street in Las Cruces at the corner of Montana and Solano. Under the auspices of a federal administration of which there were some marked vehicles and some marked officers amongst them were also unmarked officers in unmarked cars with civilian New Mexico plates. I have pictures and videos. We should all be terrified. This is the behavior of fascists. It is the behavior of secret police. They would not answer our questions about what was happening to the people that they were detaining. They would not address us. They wouldn't even look us in the eyes. I don't know what else to say to that. It is happening all over the country. You think it is just happening when you see it on the news, you see it on social media, I have video, I was there because there are people in this community who care and they called and they showed up when they saw their neighbors being harassed by masked unmarked men putting them in handcuffs and putting them in the back of cars that didn't have any definable markings. It happened in District 3. We may have political differences here, some of the people that come and speak but if you think that is acceptable behavior you really need to question what you think of when you think of representative democracy because to me I can't think of anybody who would vote for that kind of behavior from any armed "representative" of the state if that is what they were.

Lynn Moorer, Member of the Public said EPAs new Lead and Cooper Rule requires water authorities to manage and carry out replacement within ten years of all lead piping. Property owners are required to bear the cost of replacement of this piping on their property, the city is required to bear the cost for city owned piping. Funding from the federal government is available to help. It has been three months since we alerted you to significant deficiencies and the technique Las Cruces Utilities is using to determine the nature of pipes. This deficient technique is also one the city is recommending that property owners use. It has been two months since we alerted you to huge gaps in the city's inventory map of piping and an enormous number of properties. Currently 65% show no service lines at all. EPA requires that this map be complete and accurate and for cities of 50,000 or greater be posted online for citizens to be able to search, review, and rely upon regarding their own pipes. Citizens have recommended that an independent engineer be brought in to examine these issues to help Las Cruces Utilities get on track. Despite these serious deficiencies and these recommendations, it appears that nothing has been done to address these problems. When analyzing why the city has done nothing to address these issues a disturbing thought has emerged. What appears to be incompetence may also be intentional efforts to falsely minimize the true number of lead pipes. Perhaps this is upon instruction from upper management so that the city's cost for repairs for replacing lead pipes can be reduced, public health be damned. Possibly by design the overriding message of the November 18, 2024, Las Cruces Utilities briefing for the city council was no lead pipes had been found. A news report conveyed this message. A city councilor emphasized this message both at the meeting and on a subsequent radio show. I commented soon thereafter that the city seemed to be trying to declare victory on lead pipe removal ridiculously early. The fact is EPA required a complete inventory of all piping to be filed by October 16th, 2024. EPA guidance recognized the nature of some piping might be unknown, the water authorities should indicate when that was the case and work expeditiously to replace all the unknowns with the facts as soon as possible through competent investigation and verification. In contrast EPA did not indicate it was permissible to omit all together half the city's neighborhoods from the inventory. This is what Las Cruces Utilities' current inventory map appears to reflect. More than half of the city's elementary schools and middle schools have been omitted for example. It is a lot easier to boast no lead pipes when the city is ignoring half the city's pipes. It is also easier to claim no lead pipes when you use a deficient technique to determine whether a pipe is lead or not. Please engage at least one independent engineer to comprehensively evaluate Las Cruces Utilities' work on implementing the rule and publicize all recommendations.

Liz Rodriguez-Johnson, Member of the Public said over the past four months citizens have brought numerous problems to the city's attention with respect to compliance with EPAs new Lead and Copper Rule. Unfortunately, there is no evidence that a single one of the problems has been adequately rectified. Here is a brief list of some of the issues that have been brought to your attention additional to those just mentioned. Do property owners need to have their water tested to determine whether we have lead in our water? The city's notification letter is not clear on that point. Where is the map showing all the city owned piping? In the map that is available piping is frequently mischaracterized based on date. Pipes that were installed prior to the 1986 lead ban are characterized as non-lead based on installation after the lead ban. The designation of piping as known or non-lead on an inventory map are not necessarily true. The map misleadingly characterizes an entire line as non-lead with a green dot when in reality at least one portion, either the system owned, or customer owned is unknown. A property owner who believes the green dot thinks their line is non-lead and checks no further could have a very nasty surprise. The inventory indicates that some but very little verification of its characterization of piping has occurred. Some callers have been falsely told that no financial help is available for lead pipe replacement. This is despite the fact that financial help is available from the federal government. The fact is that the rule requires that financial help be available and the city's notification letter says financial help is available and the city's notification letter says financial help is available. Now even if the current administration gets rid of the EPA this issue is not going to go away. Dealing with a potential health hazard to the city of Las Cruces goes beyond government regulation. Protecting the people in this community is a responsibility you signed up for when you ran for this job. The concerns I just reiterated are clearly documented not just in this public participation but in numerous previous others. So, it is very clear all of you are aware of this issue. All of you are tied to this issue morally and politically. You need to have an experienced engineer with management experience to deal with these potentially life-threatening issues systematically and comprehensively.

Brittany Gillingham, Member of the Public said I come to you as a community member and a concerned parent. In October we were promised that there would be Park Rangers put over at Young Park. I haven't heard of any update on that. I know that there is funding available. That was October, it is now April. That is six months. I don't think that there is enough for the kids to do here in Las Cruces. I noticed that the skate park is still closed, it's been nearly a year since that construction has started on the skate park. While I haven't seen any progress on the skate park, I did see a brand new fence that was put up at Meerscheidt Rec Center for the volleyball courts just actually last week. So, I am kind of confused as to why there is no progression on the skate park but there is progression other things. I know there is a Rec Center and Aquatic Centers and the city has tried to keep the cost low for parents like myself but I know there is a lot of parents out there that can't even afford the $3 or the $4 for themselves and $3 per child. For me and my children to go to the Aquatic Center it comes to $10 and that might not seem like a lot to a lot of people but to me as a single parent on one income that is a lot of money. I think that possibly trying to work in like a SNAP discount or a discounted membership to these things would be absolutely helpful. There is also the community boxing center off Solano. I don't know if there are a lot of people that know about this space but it is a great place for kids that have no outlet and have very hard lives at home. I think it is a great place for them to go and be able to get out certain aggressions and things. I would love to see another skating rink or do skate meet ups like they do in El Paso or a free community center. I know that money has to come from somewhere, but I know that there is grants, scholarships, and even fundraisers available that we could do to provide these things for children in our community because our children are our future and if we are not looking into them now we need to look and see that there is going to be hope. I want to see change in our community just as much as you do but it starts with us the people and what can we do to move forward? What can we do to make a change? How can we make Las Cruces as a whole better to be a happier community? I reside on Young Park. My apartment sits on Young Park and to be in that neighborhood it is very hard, and it is very tragic what happened but as a community member and someone that sits right there I can't even fathom taking my children over to that park anymore. So, it is not anything against the Police Department or anybody else I think it is as a community we all need to work together to make Las Cruces better not only for people but parents, especially for the children here. The children, the children, the children.

Steven Jaramillo, Member of the Public said I am a lifelong resident here in Las Cruces for the past 63 years. I am a retired Air Force Veteran. We live in the inner city, and I love Las Cruces. I can never imagine living anywhere else even though I have been all over the country, many of the different cities and the last five years me and my wife have started bicycling around the city and using a lot of the city bicycle trails and they are very helpful and keep us out of the inner city and the street but one thing that I am concerned about is the e-bikers that use the same bicycle trails because we use our pedals, we use our normal bicycles. We do 25 miles every other day around the city and we leave from our home on Kansas and Solano and we ride up through Young Park and go up through the Triviz Trail down Nevada and I told Parks & Recreation maybe three or four years ago and city streets about the problem trying to cross there at Nevada there across Triviz into the bicycle trail because the city has the bicycle trail that dead ends at Triviz but yet there is not flashing signals. I have video taped people, younger kids riding their bicycles nearly getting hit there at Triviz and Nevada. Also, there is an area off Solano where they don't put any crosswalks off Colorado and Solano and a lady got killed there last year because there are not enough crosswalks on Solano for the inner-city people that live there. Again I have informed streets but they told me they were going to do some more work at Llorona Park and the Llorona Park Trail was completely falling apart from like Norte Bridge all the way to Mayfield and I guess maybe their solution was to spray paint the bumps on the entire trail but I was told three or four years ago there was funding to repave it and maybe stripe it and that is another issue. I have been on bike trails all over the country and normally they are striped and people know to ride their bicycles on the left or right side, and if e-bikers are passing at least they know to warn the people in front, anyway and then there on Spruce there is a crosswalk on Spruce that they did stripe a year or so ago but it's completely blacked out and the same on Missouri and Triviz. You can't see the crosswalks so my concern was if they could maybe look into those areas a little more. One dangerous area is by Mayfield where we cross our bikes across Valley Drive there is no flashing lights or anything and we witnessed people actually get hit there on Valley Drive. So, my concerns are for the bicycle trails and crosswalk.

Juan Garcia, Member of the Public said the Regional Aquatic Center staff deserve recognition for their exceptional service. As a senior with diabetes, I found exactly what I needed here. The facility offers great exercise equipment, different exercise options and the staff members maintain it well. They are always friendly and provide flexible payment options including a senior rate of just $1 per visit with no contract required. Thank you Mr. Bingham and Mr. Ikani for making fitness accessible and welcoming and perhaps something can be done to help the kids for the speaker that just came before me. The facade of political hypocrisy is crumbled once again before my eyes during four years as a community advocate revealing a disturbing pattern of selective outreach and calculated silence. Nothing illustrates this more than the most tragic case, a Rachel Moran, a mother of five whose life was brutally stolen on a summer trail in Maryland, her death at the hands of an illegal immigrant was met with deafening silence from the very leaders sworn to protect your constituents. Senator Van Hollen's office buzzed with activity championing the return of the "Maryland father" when Moran's name never crossed his lips inany official capacity. The same haunting silence echoes in New Mexico where Representative Vasquez frontiers for the "Maryland father" while their own community safety deteriorates under his watch and crime rates climb. How telling that our local and state progressive leaders turn a blind eye to law abiding citizens yet rush to coddle those who loot and burn their dreams to ash. Hard working citizens, many of them woman of color living in poverty ask only for protection and basic dignity. Instead, they watch their life's work crumble when the very people claiming to champion social justice cheer on their destruction. The recent aggravated assault on a peace officer with a deadly weapon was just dismissed by Judge Driggers with no explanation. The shameful attempt of one of our councilors to rationalize the Young Park massacre through excuses about poverty, race, and age only serves to dishonor the victims and enable future violence. Such misguided apoligism has no place in our discourse about this atrocious act yet it continues. So, Mr. Mayor, Mayor Pro Tem, council when will you finally demand real action. The time for empty words is over, demand strong deterrents. Deterrents be reflected in the message to the Governor and state legislators and we will continue to support Chief Story and the LCPD officers.

Eddie Thomas, Member of the Public said I would like to start by addressing Chief Story and the way he was impugned. His reputation was impugned the last time we had a city council meeting by somebody that got up to speak. I for one support Chief Story and my money is on him. As far as his authority to carry a pistol in these chambers makes me feel safer rather than the person that got up and made those comments against him. Next thing I would like to speak about is myself and fellow petition seekers that were seeking signatures on a petition, I am sure you are all aware of have been impugned also. We have been labeled as people that are against low-income housing. Let me reassure you all nothing could be further from the truth. We are not against low-income people. We are not against low-income housing. What we are seeking is a redress of the way the city code treats the established residential areas moving in commercial entities that is just not fair to the people that purchased homes there. Furthermore, I just don't think that the city council has been effective with their delegation that gets sent to Santa Fe to advocate on our behalf. This legislative session the very few things that were produced was a law that addresses the Red Flag Law that takes away arms from citizens. I would like to see that law used to take away the arms from the juvenile gangs that seemed to be predominant here in Las Cruces hopefully avoiding another situation like what happened in Young Park. So, at the very least this delegation was ineffective and at the very worst it was a total failure. I would ask that you all would address this and do something about the competency law that seems to have not changed one bit during this legislative session. Please do something about the safety factor here in our public parks.

Julia Ruiz, Member of the Public said in New Mexico it is not known exactly how many babies are abandoned each year. The Safe Haven for Infants Law shields parents from criminal prosecution when they choose to leave infants in safe havens instead of a dumpster or an unknown area to be found later and many times too late. I would like to bring to your attention the fact that we are missing in this city an invaluable means of safely assisting a parent in crisis and saving a child, the Safe Haven Baby Box. The Safe Haven Baby Box is a safe legal and compassionate option for parents in crisis who are unable to care for their infant. The Safe Haven Baby Box is used as a means for the parent to surrender their baby anonymously. The Safe Haven Baby Box is fully compliant with state laws. These boxes are equipped with advanced safety features to protect the baby and allow medical personnel to retrieve them quickly. The boxes provide a safe and legal way to surrender an infant and ensuring the well being of the parent and safety of the child. As of today, Espanola, Hobbs, Belen, and Carlsbad have installed baby boxes and this weekend Hobbs, which has a fourth of the population of Las Cruces will have its third Safe Haven Baby Box. There have been three babies surrendered safely in Hobbs now. I have been working with Espanola's Assistant Fire Chief John Wickersham and Monica Calsey, the founder of the Safe Haven Baby Box, to bring one here. Today I bring information to the city council to inform the City of Las Cruces how important it is to have a baby box available for parents in crisis. Ultimately, I would love to have three within Las Cruces and in Dona Ana County. I have spoken with several of you on the dais and have received very positive feedback and have agreed that having a baby box is a critical tool for helping parents in crisis. I ask that you consider installing a baby box as it is better to have one and not need it than to need it and not have one. I have brought a pamphlet with all the information about the baby box and I ask if I may leave it with the City Clerk. As a point of contact again I am working with the Assistant Fire Chief Wickersham and Ms. Kelsey the founder of the baby box. I am asking that you work with me to continue towards the next step in making the Safe Haven Baby Box a reality in the city of Las Cruces for parents in crisis. New Mexico legislators have allocated $330,000 in support of the installation of the Safe Haven Baby Boxes throughout the state. I will be leaving my contact information along with an information packet and please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

Elizabeth Winterroad, Member of the Public said I came today hoping to be supportive of a proclamation for the National Day of Prayer. Apparently it is not being honored today but I want to thank all of you in advance for your support on the National Day of Prayer, which is May 1st, there will be different events going on around the city and I pray that all of you who are believers will be a light to this community and those who are not believers will see the light. I thank you in advance for any support that you can give the people going out that day.

Sarah Smith, Member of the Public said I extend my condolences to the victims of the Young Park shooting. Several of you have said you want to find solutions to the youth crime and violence problem. For thousands of years one of the most basic tenants of society has been do not harm others or encroach on their property. One of the fundamental purposes of government is to uphold this law so that the society can function well. Here in Las Cruces and across New Mexico we are seeing what happens when we do not uphold this principle. Parents should be teaching their kids from a young age that they cannot harm others, take other kids toys or damage the property of others. Once the kids go to school this principle should be reinforced over and over again so that by the time the kids are adults it has been engrained. Once people are old enough to be held legally accountable, must be consistent and short enforcement of this flaw no matter if they are rich or poor, Hispanic or White, housed or homeless. This is literally the overarching principle that allows society to continue to survive. There have always been some parents who don't raise their kids well but now schools are perpetuating the same cycle. I advocate for teachers and parents across the state, and they have shared that kids in schools are allowed to harm others with no real consequences. Kids are throwing chairs in the classroom, hitting other kids and throwing temper tantrums and the teachers are not allowed to really stop it. For example, a Las Cruces mother related that in her daughter's class one of the kids has violent temper tantrums. Instead of imposing consequences to help this child learn proper behavior the teacher takes the rest of the kids out of the class and allows the child to trash the classroom. Year after year all of these kids are learning that there are no consequences to hurting others and that no one will stop a kid who chooses to hurt others, steal, or destroy. By the time kids reach their teen years the behaviors have escalated to fighting, doing drugs, shop lifting, stealing cars and guns and shooting others. With New Mexico's lax juvenile crime laws and catch and release policies these kids are ripe for getting involved with organized gangs and cartels who know that youths can break the law with very little consequences in New Mexico. We now have many kids growing up with no respect for the most basic laws of society and thus we have high rates of juvenile crime with tragic consequences like what happened at Young Park. City Councilors, I appreciate that you want to find solutions. Recreational activities for kids are important and I hope the schools will own their responsibility to teach kids self-control and respect for rules. For you as council I hope you see that your paramount role is to ensure we have good laws, that the laws are applied equally to everyone, that we have enough police officers to keep our community safe and that there are sure consequences for those who break the law. Our state legislature refused to tighten up our juvenile crime laws so I hope you will take action here in Las Cruces instead such as imposing a curfew for teens and holding both the teens and the parents accountable. You can also greatly increase the salaries of our police officers in the upcoming union negotiations so that Chief Story will be better able to attract and retain officers. As a body if you decide that you will no longer tolerate people harming others, breaking into and destroying our homes and businesses you can make a big difference.

Steve Colleti, Member of the Public said 2024, wow what a year. The year the Amish saved the Republic. I am not sure of the state of your fantastical democracy but the Republic is alive and well. I bring this up for a reason, but I will get to that in a minute. Peter Goodman recently conducted an interview on his radio show with your Chris Faivre regarding Realize Las Cruces. I found it interesting Mr. Faivre's main argument for Realize was to improve the "quality of life" image Las Cruces has. I am curious how much this ordinance does to improve that image for the amount of effort the city council is fighting for it but let's assume you are right that it does improve that image. Let's assign it a 5 out of a scale of 100. Now we are turning to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania where my mother lives among the Amish. I received a call from her on that dark Saturday morning in a panic where she awoke to reports of the cartel shooting at Young Park. She called to verify that my family and I were well. While I was still on the phone my mother-in-law called from Eastern Kansas with the same question. Now before you go off on me about cartel reference, remember we are talking about image and that is how this is being perceived if not reported outside of New Mexico. I can assure you that neither my mother-in-law nor my mother have ever heard of Realize Las Cruces but they are now more scared than ever for the safety of their grandchildren. Back to the 100-point scale of image. If Realize Las Cruces is worth 5 points, how much of a hit did this tragedy leave, maybe a negative 500 points. Yet you, our city council, fighting so hard for Realize have done little to nothing to address public safety in Las Cruces except point your fingers at Santa Fe and say it is their fault and there is nothing you can do. When given the opportunity to address our state delegation with our concerns you choose animal welfare as our number one priority, and I don't recall any dogs being shot at Young Park. Is the Young Park massacre enough for you to start taking your oaths of office seriously? Or do we need to wait till one of your loved ones is hurt for you act? Mr. Mayor, your honeymoon period is over. You own this one. It is time for you to stop collecting data and lead this council into action. No one cares about your tireless work unless it produces positive results and this council, just like many before have little in the way of positive results especially when it comes to public safety. We want action. It is time to leave you activist roles and start being the leaders that you are elected to be for the entire Las Cruces community.

Jim Hoerst, Member of the Public said I want to inform you of an event, National Day of Reason at Las Cruces City Hall, Thursday, May 1st, 12 noon. Join us to celebrate reason demonstrate to our local government that there are many citizens who care about the principles of separation of church and state as defined by Thomas Jefferson. Logic and rational thinking are the center of the modern western democracies. Unfortunately, not all Americans understand our constitution as our founders intended. So, we observe this day to reaffirm American desire to leave the dark ages and absolute disgovernments behind in the old world. We founded our government independent of religion and based on common sense. The uniqueness of the United States of America is in its inclusion of every kind of person, race, culture, religion, and non-religous disbeliefs in this very diverse country. Reason and our history testify that El pluribus unum is not only possible but desirable. Please join us and consider with us the blessings of reason, science, and equality in this great land and how it can be preserved. This event is not sponsored by the city and all are welcome and I want to say on other comments, the safest people in this country are illegal aliens. They are the least likely to commit crimes because they want to stay here and that is pretty simple, and it is very easy to vilify a few. To highlight the actions of a few to vilify many, certainly there are illegal aliens that have committed horrible crimes in America, but they are far less likely than an ordinary American to commit a crime.

Lisa Parrott, Member of the Public said I am a resident of District 6. I wanted to thank the organ donation people for their work because of the cooperation between people in New Mexico and Colorado, my son is still alive today. He received two major organs in one week in February of 2022, and is doing well. I also want to thank the emergency workers, all of them in our city, our Police Department, our Fire Departments, our emergency call takers. Every time I hear a siren when I am at the house or out in public, I immediately say a prayer and hope that the people that have a siren on will arrive where they need to be safely and the people that they are going to be helped will be helped. I also wanted to highlight the fact that Saturday from 4 to 8:30 at Young Park will be the first event of the National Day of Prayer other than the proclamations and I can't think of a better it would be a better use of that park than for people of this city to come together and pray there for this city. Anybody that would like to know the information the website is nationaldayofprayer.org and I also have one Bible verse that I would like to take the liberty of reading while I still can because I will always do that. Luke 19:39-41, some of the pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, teacher rebuke your disciples. I tell you he replied if they keep quiet the stones will cry out, as he approached Jerusalem and saw the city he wept over it.

Bill McCamley, Member of the Public said I live on the corner of Calle de Suenos and Locust in District 3. I have had that house for over 20 years. I was away from Las Cruces for about 5 years but recently have moved back to town and one of the first things that I got in the mail was this public notice saying that someone two blocks away from me wanted to put a house in a single family yard, in the back there and then I heard that you all just made recent changes to land use policy allowing for more density, more mother-in-law houses, situations like these apartments and I want to tell you exactly how I feel about that. I feel great. This is an amazing thing that you all did to move this community forward and there is three main reasons for this. The first is young people can't get housing in the United States. This is not a Las Cruces problem, a New Mexico problem, it is an America problem, and the more opportunity young folks have to be able to get a decent place to live, to buy a house the better we are all are off because of it. So, thank you for making this town more affordable with your actions. Secondly you all know because you do this all the time how much more efficient it is to put internet, water, roads, everything to houses when they are closer together. More density in responsible ways is better for all of us because it creates again of more affordability with better services. Third thing, climate change is real. When I was a student at Mayfield back when Coach Maya was just starting off in the mid 90's I rode my bike to school from my folks house up on North Valley and I remember maybe three or four days out of the year when really strong windstorms when I didn't feel safe on the bike coming across from the west. We had three days last week where you couldn't see more than 30 to 40 feet in front of your face because of the wind and the dirt. This is real and one of the best ways that we can as communities can contribute to less greenhouse gases is with more efficient denser homes closer together. So, I say to you yes in my backyard, please keep up the great work for those of you that voted for this and I want close by just saying one thing. Back when I was a county commissioner when Council Member Mattiace was mayor the first time the only time I lost it is I was chairing a joint city/county zoning commission and a guy wanted to put in a bunch of condos on South Main and all the neighbors showed up and you heard the stories about we are worried about roads, worried about schools, they were worried about those sorts of things but one person said the quiet part out load. She said I don't want those people living next to me and I got pretty angry because that was my income demographic. I am those people. So, as a representative of those people, the teachers, the firefighters, the janitors, the workers at the grocery store who want to live affordably near their jobs, thank you. We appreciate you and keep up the good work.

Tim Jenkins, Member of the Public said I would like to address the elephant in the room from the comments in the last city council meeting concerning our Chief of Police being on his phone during time here in council chambers. For the record I would like to make it crystal clear to everyone that while our Chief of Police sits here helping support us he also is single handily managing and running our entire Police Department force as well and comments and rhetoric from members on city council and public as well about our Police Department needing more oversight are highly offensive and unless you are willing to pick up a badge and protect and serve and take a chance at never coming home to your family I suggest you stop criticizing those who do and be thankful for their service and look for ways to encourage and support them in every way possible. As for me and my family, we back the blue every day, all day.

Donna Stryker, Member of the Public said I wanted to congratulate Christine. Unfortunately, she works with me a lot. Christine, thank you, you are amazing, and your staff is amazing, and I really appreciate you and Annette. I had to call her on a Sunday from Mayor's Top Teens and her and Ikani really came through and it was amazing so thank you so much. I would like to thank you Chief Story for your continued professionalism and your leadership during the last 16 months, which I think has been very difficult for I think everybody on the dais and the city's citizens and the county citizens. It has been a very difficult time. I watched the ugliness of April 7th meeting, and I was so sad. It is another commentary on some of our citizenry and I do believe in the First Amendment, but I don't think you have to be ugly. I really appreciate the public participation statement, thank you so much for doing that. I don't think people understand that cities are not required to do public comment. I did a lot of research on it when I started speaking and cities are not required to and there are cities that in this state that have done away with public comment so I think we need to appreciate it and say thank you city council I appreciate you letting us speak even though we don't always say what you would like us to say but I for one really appreciate you continue to allow us to have it. My son-in-law is an LCPD police officer, and he had Easter dinner with us yesterday. Ben can't always be with us but he would be so mad at me for here but he is just the microcosm of the macrocosm.

There isn't very many people who can take the application, do the psychological, do the fingerprint background check, go through everything it takes to be a police officer but there is a lot of people who can poke fun and poke fingers but I think it is really just criminal that they are allowed to do that because until you walk a mile in another person's shoes you cannot criticize and say what goes through their mind and the immediacy of the decisions that they have to make in a bad situation. So, I want to thank you Chief and also welcome our new Chief of the Fire Department, thank you so much for selfless service because everybody that serves our Fire Department and our Police Department are selfless. I can't thank you guys enough and Tim said it, not everybody gets to home and we saw that last year.

7.2 RESOLUTION NO. 25-121: A RESOLUTION TO AWARD CONTRACTS FOR LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN SERVICES ON AN AS-NEEDED BASIS TO MOLZEN CORBIN & ASSOCIATES, INC., SITES SOUTHWEST, LLC., AND STANTEC CONSULTING SERVICES, INC. IN AN AMOUNT NOT TO EXCEED $2,000,000 PER VENDOR ANNUALLY, FOR A TERM OF FIVE (5) YEARS THROUGH MARCH 31, 2029, SUBJECT TO APPROVED BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS (PROCUREMENT NO. 24-25-003).

Lisa Pardon, Purchasing Specialist gave the overhead presentation.

Councilor Flores asked it is a five year contract and it is for different vendors or just Molzen Corbin?

Lisa Pardon said three, Molzen Corbin, Sites Southwest, and Stantec Consulting.

Councilor Flores asked how do they go about assessing what they are going to do and how much is the $5 million?

Lisa Pardon said $2 million per vendor annually.

Councilor Flores asked how many vendors?

Lisa Pardon said three.

Councilor Flores said my concern is that it is five years and then they are going to do projects. Do they come back to you, to your department, to the city to say we are going to do this, that, or the other? I am just wondering about how that money is going to be spent, when it is going to be spent and where? And who makes the ultimate decision?

Steve Bingham, Parks & Rec Director said I asked that our team put together an RFP to get architectural services so that we could speed up the process of being able to plan Parks & Recreation projects and put it on call like we do with engineers and the RFP allows for up to $2 million in any given year. There are I believe three different architectural firms that were selected, and it is based on budget and so if there is not funding for this approval by city council in the budget then you wouldn't spend it. This is simply an on call.

Councilor Flores asked the part that I am dazed and confused for lack of a better word is how exactly is a decision made as to where, when, how, how much is going to be allocated to that particular? Where is the oversight and where is the plan in terms as to how you are going to approach this?

Steve Bingham said the oversight went through the purchasing process that is identified in the city's purchasing ordinances, and we will select the architectural company that best fits the project.

Councilor Flores asked how are you going to be reporting to the city, to the City Manager, to the City Council, to the people of the city how things are going? How are these things going to be approached? Have you already assessed what areas are going to be targeted first? Is it going to be reporting to the City Manager about that or to us and the public?

Steve Bingham said all of these projects that will be used for these architects are ones that have already been approved in the Capital Improvement Program. There has been budget authorized through the budgeting process and the funding has been made available and so these projects are ones that have already been identified, authorized, and approved.

Councilor Flores said what I would do and what I would ask is and I don't want to over step anybody's role here in terms of the Mayor and City Manager and the department heads including you Steve, it would be good to have progressive communication with the public in terms of just letting the public know because we heard from several people today about the parks and we all know that parks are instrumental. There has to be more transparency in terms of letting the people know, letting the residents know this is happening, and then reach those goals and then enumerate them and let people know that we are just not verbalizing things and doing nothing.

Steve Bingham said we will continually update the public through our website, social media, through city council meetings and that we do have projects that are moving forward. We have significantly increased the amount of money for projects in which the speed of what projects are getting done in the last year.

7.3 RESOLUTION NO. 25-122: A RESOLUTION APPROVING ROADRUNNER TRANSIT'S TRIENNIAL TITLE VI PROGRAM UPDATE.

Richard Hanway, City Transit Director gave the overhead presentation.

Councilor Corran said this is one of the most powerful and interesting analysis that I feel that I have ever learned about on city council, and I really appreciate you coming and talking about it in this context. I do want to point out that I serve on the Transit Advisory Board and the folks that are there are really committed and caring about transit and it is parallel to many of our city boards where white folks out number folks of color and I do think that is notable when we talk about having any kind of community board, what are the inputs that we have and you are one of the few, this is one of the few required reports where we consider that as a very serious consideration and so I appreciate you talking about that which I know is probably not easy for anyone to talk about and I know this is your first presentation to us as a bunch of meanies as we are. Don't be nervous, you did a really good job, we got you. Thank you for being here and thank you for this presentation.

Councilor Flores asked this is an ADA requirement, so the funding comes from the federal government?

Richard Hanway said this is a FTA requirement. Federal Transit Administration requires us to have civil rights. Since we receive federal funds, we have to follow the compliance rules under civil rights.

Councilor Flores said I think there is things happening in Washington DC that are horrific, and a lot of actions have been right and left, slashing programs and all of that and so I am concerned about all of that, but the funding is federal. Anyway, that is something to keep in mind, there is kind of a storm coming.

7.4 RESOLUTION NO. 25-123: A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE CITY OF LAS CRUCES (CITY) TO ACCEPT THIRD QUARTER BUDGET ADJUSTMENTS FOR VARIOUS CITY DEPARTMENTS THROUGH AN AMENDMENT TO THE CITY'S ADOPTED FISCAL YEAR (FY) 2024-25 BUDGET.

Vanessa Perez, Budget Analyst gave the overhead presentation.

Councilor Bencomo asked if you could just say a little bit more about this pilot program and then also given the cost of this expenditure what that means for the budget for traffic calming measures at this point?

David Sedillo, Public Works Director said this is a pilot program that we are looking to do on traffic studies that are real close but don't actually meet the thresholds for having a permanent installation. We get these complaints as you all are well aware. We get them throughout the year, different neighborhoods, different locations so as part of this pilot program what we are trying to do is to do a temporary installation, temporary signage with some rubber or hard rubber items that get drilled into the asphalt and placed temporarily. That will give us an opportunity to study those anywhere between six months to a year. With that data if we see a great improvement then we will remove those and put in a permanent installation even though the initial study didn't show that. We want to see that grate change if you will in behaviors. If those aren't done at least we have said we have done something here right now it doesn't meet but the good thing about the temporary installations is not we can utilize those in other locations throughout the city. So, we are not tied to having something and then leaving it there for months and months or even years. We have the ability to study it, place it somewhere else, see the effects of those things. If it does help us, great we will do a permanent installation if not we will remove those and move on to other locations. What it will do to our budget is we will still have the studies to do but again this is to help look at a proactive way to help our citizens in a residential neighborhoods and look at those issues that they are seeing on a day to day basis.

Councilor Bencomo said I wanted to highlight this specifically because I think a lot of do get questions about, I think we all have long lists of neighborhoods that wish they had some sort of traffic calming measures and studies and I just think about as we go into conversations regarding GRT and how to think about how we invest that in our community. I really think this is one of the biggest places where we need to look.

Councilor McClure asked how is that street selected?

David Sedillo said the way we go about choosing is recently we have looked at how many complaints we get in the area, how many times have we studied a roadway in the past. Typically, when we study those, we give it a gap in time until we study it again because traffic patterns do change. So, we have seen over a period of time then that study isn't valid anymore. So based on some of those areas that have come up repeatedly our staff is taking note of those and that is how we will go down through the list.

7.5 RESOLUTION NO. 25-124: A RESOLUTION AMENDING THE FY2025-2030 CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PROGRAM.

Cynthia Alamillo, CIP Manager gave the overhead presentation.

Vanessa King, Facilities Management Administrator continued the overhead presentation.

Councilor Corran asked the slide where you are saying how much this is as you may know I am also lobbying for this to happen at Roadrunner which I think is something that residents have really been begging for because people are really terrible at four way or three way stops but this cost, can you give me just a rough, I saw it on there and I never really realized exactly what the total for this is and I would love to be able to tell people this is how much this cost? This is an extraordinary effort, and it requires significant engineering, design, and work on your part. Can you just give me a rough estimate?

David Sedillo said the overall project cost is $1.5 million.

7.6 RESOLUTION NO. 25-125: A RESOLUTION ADOPTING THE 2024 LAS CRUCES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT MASTER PLAN AND THE LAS CRUCES AIRPORT LAYOUT PLAN.

Andy Hume, Airport Director gave the overhead presentation.

Councilor Flores asked when is the interstate travel going to be established and where is the interstate that we are going to?

Andy Hume said the latest round of the RASE Funding, the Rural Air Service Enhancement Funding has just been released. The applications have just been released by New Mexico DOT. Our hope is that we can go to Phoenix. That is our plan. There was $12 million set aside by the legislature for funding and we are going to pursue it aggressively as I mentioned in the presentation and so that is our plan is the next stop, Phoenix.

Councilor Flores said I just really want to thank you Andy for the work that you have done. I know that Main Street, you were in the Economic Development Department at the time when Main Street really took off and became what it is today, and you have had the vision in so far as how the airport is crucial to economic development and we just can’t minimize that. It is hopefully going to bring a lot of industry especially with our park there, Industrial Park. So, I just want to thank you for your vision, your hard work and putting up with the advisory board.

10. CITY COUNCIL MEMBER BOARD REPORTS AND COMMENT

10.1 COUNCILOR MCCLURE

I would like to give a shoutout to the Historic Preservation Commission. I hope that I am not stealing Ikani's glory by saying we might be getting a Historic Preservation Specialist. So, I am pretty excited about that. The commission is doing a really good job, it created a watch list of different areas in town to kind of make sure that we keep and recognize the history of and some of these are if you were going to college here at a certain time going to the club you will recognize that but also things like the mall and what that means for our history. Of course, the roller rink but also Municipal Court which we are fixing up now. So, things like that, those are 6 p.m. meetings so there is flexibility if you want to get involved in the city.

10.2 COUNCILOR MATTIACE

None.

10.3 COUNCILOR GRAHAM

Speaking of the ASCMV Board, I just want to share that we are making good progress in our search for a new Executive Director and to give an ongoing shout out to Elizabeth Seely who is doing an incredible job as Interim Director, so I just wanted to acknowledge that.

The only other thing I will bring up since we had a lot of public comment about public comment, I will renew my what now feels like annual call to take a good look at how we structure and format public comment. I spoke with our City Clerk who I might mention again, the top City Clerk in the State of New Mexico let's not forget and Mayor I believe you had requested that New Mexico Municipal League do an analysis of some of our meetings. That analysis has been completed and I think that the most productive and effective way to structure public comment is covered in that report. So,

I will just again bring up my hope that we can explore that.

10.4 COUNCILOR CORRAN

Thank you, Councilor Graham, I second that desire to revisit that. Not that we are proposing any limits on public comment just a restructuring of. Sometimes we are here and we don't have an opportunity to say anything until now which is sometimes, three or four or five or six hours later definitely not always ideal in that context but other than supporting Councilor Graham's ask I don't have any other comments.

10.5 COUNCILOR FLORES

I first want to, and I hope we get more publicity on this to encourage people to become a donor and go to the Motor Vehicles Department to show that on your driver's license just in case you are in an accident.

I want to also comment on the Pope's passing, and I happen to be watching him when he was blessing the people there in Vatican City and when he was just sitting and waving at people and he passed away this morning. I was raised Catholic and then the family found out that we were actually Jewish. The beauty of the Pope was that he was so humane. He was the first non-European Pope from Argentina. I just want to acknowledge that he actually either spoke to the President or the Vice President about some of the inhumanity that they are imposing on our country and the world and so he was a person who had a global view of the world, and I will miss him.

I also want to give a shoutout. I had a terrifying experience this past weekend where I was coming home from El Paso and a rock hit my car and another car. It shredded one of my tires and I was stranded there and AAA never showed up. The other driver changed his tire, and he said I will change yours. I had called AAA already and this was a little after 7. In my Hyundai I didn't have a spare. So, then the young man who offered was very, very tired but he was wonderful, he said I will stay here until someone comes and then all of a sudden, I thought, I am going to call Ikani. I was like scared, it was the middle of the desert, and I had just crossed into Anthony, New Mexico. So Ikani called Chief Story and then Chief Story called the State Police, the New Mexico State Police and they stayed there with me and then finally it was almost 11 o'clock and AAA kept calling saying where exactly are you? I said you are the third or fourth person I have spoken to. I just want to give a shoutout to Sgt. Arellano and Officer Barron. At any rate I just want to share that with you and I know that we get a lot of rotten tomatoes thrown at us but it is just an example of how a community comes together and I am just so grateful because it was scary out there and the young man that wanted to stay there was like falling asleep because he was coming from back east and was on his way home. Thank you Ikani Taumoepeau and Chief Story and the State Police Arellano and Barron.

In so far as our community we had several people commenting on how we need more recreation for our children and I just hope that it happens sooner than later. I think we really have to focus on our youth. I started last week or last meeting commenting on the little girls who and how la Sra. Maria Flores was on the school board and visited all the schools and asked one little girl why she goes to school, she didn't say and finally she said, "I come to eat". The other little girl that had a paper bag she always carried she finally let her see that and she didn't have any food in there and all she said is I have my lunch, and it turns out she only had a rock and she just made it look like it was her food. And what I was trying to get at and I digress so much because I have got so much on my mind but a lot of people say we can't blame poverty but we can look at it analytically and if we live in a society where we are sending our children to school on an empty stomach, what do we expect. Think about how you feel when you are hungry you get irritable. It is a horrible thing to be hungry and then not know where your next meal is coming from and the other thing is that even though New Mexico is largely Latino, Spanish, or Mexican American or whatever, the same trauma that affects every minority group is prevalent here in spite of that. So, people become marginalized. People feel that they just don't belong then they start forming their own groups and this is something that we studied a lot back in the sixties and seventies in terms of demonstrations and all that sort of stuff. I hope that our community, I know our City does, but I just hope that we invest more in our children and everything and anything we can do and of course the Safe Streets is very important and I want to say that when I was a delegate, I was a representative to the World Green Conference or something but there was a huge exposition, it was in Germany. It was a huge, huge exposition and all the countries in the world has their little thing and there was one country Bhutan boasted that it was the happiest place on earth. So, I asked the lady who was sitting in her booth, and I said so people are happy, people talk to each other, and they are happy? She said no, it's not that kind of happy, it's not like hello, how are you? No people have their bad days, people can get mean sometimes, but happy in so far people who live there get everything they need to be a human being and that was the year that I was asked to run for city council and I had just gotten back from that or was it about a year later so and I decided I would run for city council to make it better. I won't be running again so if there is anybody in District 6 who wants to have tomatoes thrown at you please think about it. I recommend to the readership to the public that is listening I recommend two books. One of them is called the Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck and the other is titled Wretched of the Earth by Franz Fanon.

10.6 COUNCILOR BENCOMO

Yes, I wanted to ditto Councilor Graham's idea. I think additionally I just want to speak to the criticism that I hear often about the time of our meetings and that they are inaccessible. I do want to say that this governing body of all the governing bodies in Dona Ana County I think is the most accessible. I think we have the most meetings out of everyone including Dona Ana County Commission, School Board, and us that we meet nearly every Monday with a few exceptions. I will also say that the school board does have their meetings in the evenings and folks don't stay for that either and so sometimes staff and school board members are having meetings till 10:30 p.m. We are public servants, but I think there is limits to certainly what we should require of people. I am not sure I could get any business done that late anyways. It is difficult because I think no one has really figured out what the best time is but I do just want to note that I always appreciate that folks are able to come here. There was a couple who came here today and when I think about public comment, I think gosh that is really, it's not the disinformation and not the tomato throwing, it is the residents coming up to speak about problems in their neighborhoods or in their city and bringing solutions or wanting to have answers. So, I appreciate both Steven and David for running out and catching folks that had questions specific to their departments and thank you for answering those. Though I would love a better way to sort of answer people's questions as they are happening because those individuals want the answer, but I think many more in our community want the answer to those questions without us ever having to engage and debate. That is absolutely the last thing that we need.

I will say that I am looking forward to our Work Session for the recap of the Legislative Session which to many folks' opinions it was nothing effective happened. I wholeheartedly disagree. I think even if you just look at SB 1 and 3, the largest investment in our behavioral health system in decades happened and that is pretty incredible and powerful. I also want to note that we had a very effective year in capital outlay appropriations, a little bit over $13 million and we would have had $23 million with the $10 million appropriation that a couple of us lobbied for and got in the budget that was unfortunately line item vetoed that would have gone for housing with that being said I am happy to report that today myself, Mayor, our City Manager and a couple of other folks from housing did meet with the Secretary of Work Force Solutions and Secretary Sarita Nair who is now overseeing Housing. We met with her today here in Las Cruces. She toured some of our current projects, housing projects and we are still advocating for those $10 million to come to a community for the projects that are that are literally currently being built as we speak they can start housing people in as short as a year and a half or two years and those are incredible investments for us to continue lobbying for and we will continue doing so alongside Chairman Nathan Small.

I also just wanted to speak a little bit on Pope Francis passing. I was a young community organizer doing faith-based work when he came up and he had made a tremendous impact on my journey as a community organizer and I don't know if any of you have gotten a chance to read his encyclical, Laudato si', which focused on climate change and inequity. It was the first time a Catholic Pope had ever talked about climate change and what it means to care for mother earth and the people on it. In this encyclical he also talked about that we must reject the culture, the throw away culture that often exist so much in our economies and he is quoted once by saying\that "in the end it is not simply a matter of having more but being more, a fundamental renewal of hearts and minds so that the human person may always be placed at the center of social, cultural, and economic life". I just wanted to speak to that a little bit because it was definitely sad news this morning.

10.7 MAYOR ENRIQUEZ

We can definitely revisit the public comments and look at that. The whole objective, the whole goal of city council is to run a government meeting so we will definitely look at how we can do that. Ms. Stryker mentioned it herself, public comments/public participation is not really a requirement in city council meetings but we will definitely look at it. I think it is twofold, it is not only individuals coming here but it is also us going out there. Last Saturday I met with the neighborhood watch captains to go over a lot of the issues and concerns, Councilor McClure was there with me and we met to hear their concerns, their issues about public safety, public works. Things that are going on in their neighborhood, code enforcement. So, we get that list to the City Manager and see how we can make a difference in the community so we are out there also listening more than just three minutes that are allowed. The other one is the Safer Business. I was there as their guest speaker last Monday and answering questions and I appreciate these neighborhoods, watch teams, captains, Safer Business that want to get involved and make Las Cruces better. So, we support that, and we go out there and we work with them as well. Looking to the future our youth in this community is precious to me. We have the Mayor's Top Teen, they just had their annual banquet and just the ambition, the drive, the goals that they want and make their lives better to improve. So, it is a great thing to see and also, I mentioned before I walk with the kids from Hermosa Heights Elementary every Thursday morning. It is not just a matter of showing that leadership cares for them, but they also feed me and it is a good feeling. Chief Story is not here right now but I already shared with him there was this second grader, and I will just call him Jay and I asked Jay, what do you want to be when you grow up? He said I want to be an Officer. I said what kind of Officer? He said I want to be a Police Officer. So, it gives me hope. It is great that there is still kids in our community that want to be in public safety and it is a good feeling. And with that I am glad Mayor Pro Tem mentioned the housing. We did meet with the Cabinet Secretary from Work Force and thank Natalie Green and her staff for having projects ready available, permit ready, shovel ready so that we can move forward and take advantage of some of that funding. With that also this coming weekend we have the Third Annual Mira Las Cruces. So, kudos to Visit Las Cruces for putting this on. It will Saturday, April 26th at 2 p.m., 9:30 p.m. on the Downtown Plaza. Free friendly family event, performances throughout the day. Our City Manager's favorite the luchador matches, there will be mariaches, ballet folklorico, just a lot of entertainment for the community and that is what I have said from the get go. I would rather that we gather then scatter. So, this is a way that we bring our community together so please come out and join us at the plaza and celebrate.

11. CITY MANAGER REPORT

11.1 IKANI TAUMOEPEAU

Talking about gathering and scattering, right before this meeting the reason why I was a few minutes late was because staff from the City Manager's Office and LCPS, DAC, we were huddling together because Summer Internship Programs are coming up and some of you may already be tracking but the Governor has allocated $10 million throughout the state for Summer Internship Program and last year she allocated half of that to DAC, so $5 million. This has typically been on Dona Ana County to do and so this year we have come together to see what we can do to help out and so I just want to give thanks to LCPS, Ignacio Superintendent, Rachel, Chief HR Director, Dr. Wendy, HR Director, and Cindy, Career Specialist from LCPS, from DAC we have Scott, CEO, From County, Deb Weir, Meg, HR Director and Deputy Director of DAC. Assisting as well as on our staff, Jose, Deputy Director of HR, Melanie, HRIS Manager, and Valerie, Career Development Coordinator, and Jo our HR Director and CMO Staff along with other staff, supporting staff. This year we are working together with organizations to see what we can do to get this off the ground successfully and so I just wanted to share that. We had a successful meeting before this meeting and staff will continue to do everything, we can to get this going. The internship program will be posting within the upcoming days. So, there is a race to get this posted and as you know there is just so much operations and logistics to be done within that time before kids are out for summer and so there is just so much to do before that but I just want to appreciate all the staff and Lesley as well, our Finance Director.

I appreciate Councilor McClure sharing information about our Historic Preservation Specialist, he starts May 4th, so we are excited for that. Quality of Life in collaboration with Dona Ana County for Library Services, Quality of Life Director Carol Brey and Deputy Director of Library Sarah Booth attended a meeting with Dona Ana County officials on Monday to discuss progress on opening the library in Chaparral as well as the MOU between the city and county for library services. In addition, we are excited because the book mobile has been awarded by state legislators as well. So, this is a book mobile that Quality of Life has CMO staff, Sonya. They all discussed about coming up with a book mobile that could be run by the city but that can serve the region and county so we are excited about that. Additionally, Senior Programs is planning the Abuse in Later Life Awareness Health Fair. We plan to have between 20 to 30 vendors this year and are looking at hosting this health fair at the Munson Center on either June 13th or June 20th.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program, VITA a success story. Monday was the last day of tax season and our VITA tax assistant at the Branigan Library. During the ten-week program there prepared over 500 state and federal tax returns for the community so kudos to those who supported that and the volunteers making that happen. Las Cruces Museums first annual STEM Festival was held on Saturday, April 12th at the Railroad Museum and nearly 200 attendees, a great crowd for the first attempt. This annual event provides opportunities for all ages to learn about science, technology, engineering, math, STEM activities in a fun environment.

Parks & Rec, our annual Mother's Day Concert will be held at the Downtown Las Cruces Plaza on May 11th from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Come hear Darren Cordova y Calor and celebrate all the mothers in our community. Last but not least join us in keeping our community beautiful by participating in this year's Great American Cleanup this Saturday, April 26th from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m., volunteers can select a location or have one assigned by KLCB coordinator. Trash collection supplies can be picked up from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. at Walmart on Walton Drive, also Walmart will be providing a free breakfast to all volunteers.

Ikani introduced the following newly appointed employees and their titles.
Chris Faivre, Community Development Director
Jenny Hernandez, Sustainability Officer
Richard Hanway, City Transportation Director
Michael Daniels, Fire Department Chief

3. AGENDA ITEM

3.1 FISCAL YEAR 2025-2026 BUDGET REVIEW & PUBLIC HEARING.

Jacqueline Rubalcava, Budget and Grant Administrator gave the overhead presentation.

Mercedes Tomayko, Management Analyst I continued the overhead presentation.

Jacqueline Rubalcava continued the overhead presentation.

Councilor Flores said so, on page 25, there is a homeless outreach allocation and what exactly, for what purpose is that allocated? I mean it isn't handed out to the homeless, is it?

Natalie Green, Housing and Neighborhood Revitalization Administrator said our homeless outreach program staffs two teams of two employees that do street outreach to people experiencing homelessness in our community so when we get calls out for our neighbors who are in different parts of the city, we get a call someone is living in this area, please send outreach. Our outreach team goes out there, engages with those individuals, makes sure they have updated case notes, they've done their housing intakes, and they work with them to bring them closer to the Mesilla Valley Community of Hope campuses to receive services and hopefully transition into Camp Hope or housing programs to address their unhoused status.

Councilor Flores asked so is it the personnel at Community of Hope that does the actual outreach?

Natalie Green said that's correct, we contract out with the Mesilla Valley Community of Hope, they hire the teams, so there's two teams of two employees each, so four employees total and they manage that program on behalf of the city.

Councilor Flores said that's great, you know I think it would be a good, it's not about the budget, but to be informed about that, because I know that all of us on the City Council are very much concerned with the unhoused and it would you know get some stats on that. So, the allocation made for the Rio Grande painting of $52,000, is that coming out of the TIDD? And then, do you really think it's going to, what's going to be painted, one wall? I mean seriously, painting is an art and that theater is probably going to require some gold paint to restore it.

Chris Faivre, Director of Community Development said so there was money already budgeted to do some painting work interior and exterior for RGT. This is extra money to make sure that they have enough to do all of that. It's just touching up the paint on the inside of the building.

Councilor Flores said on page 20, the allocation of money for our different departments, are these new automobiles slated to replace or to add the existing amount of cars?

Mercedes Tomayko said these are replacements, the only vehicle that will be new and added to the fleet is for the Animal Control Officer for that new position. Everything else is a replacement to the fleet.

Councilor Flores asked oh ok, so there is going to be an additional vehicle for the Animal Control personnel?

Mercedes Tomayko said correct, so one added Animal Control Officer vehicle all the other 16 vehicles are replacement vehicles.

Councilor Flores asked on page 23 you have gap funding, and what is that? You prefaced it by saying it was gap funding, what exactly is gap funding? I mean, for example, we have homeless outreach for $75,000 carry over $0, where's the gap or what is it?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said when we put gap funding, we refer to funding needed to complete the project, so those $2 million has been set aside to meet all of the construction needs for Fire Station 9.

Councilor Flores asked on page 8, there's reference to longevity, so what exactly does that mean?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said so HR does a calculation based off of the different positions, and so for any represented bargain contracts, any employees who qualify for longevity, that has been incorporated into the budget and that is a calculation completed through the salary and benefit projections that HR provides and then we incorporate those into the budget.

Councilor Flores said ok, so it is a projection.

Jacqueline Rubalcava said yes.

Councilor Flores asked and then on page 11, there is a balance on the general fund and what does that cover?

Jacqueline Rubalcava asked is it on slide 6? The unreserved balance?

Councilor Flores said well, you can explain that also.

Jacqueline Rubalcava said so for the general fund summary, this is a breakdown of the years, so the beginning balance is what we have here, for the FY26 Proposed, we have a beginning balance of approximately $76.5 million. That includes any projections or carryovers that we are bringing in from the prior fiscal year and then we subtract out or add in the expenditures and transfers which gives us an ending balance and then because the general fund is required to have a 2/12 reserve, then we take out the 2/12 reserve which in this case for FY26 is approximately $28.9 million to give us an unreserved balance of $5.7 million. So, this just shows us the trajectory of the year and this is the information that is budgeted. So, this isn't based off of actuals, it is just based off of budgeted information at the beginning of the year, for the proposed.

Councilor Flores said and these numbers can change.

Jacqueline Rubalcava said yes, so we normally at this time we are relying strongly on projections so that's the departments are projecting how much they are going to spend at the end of the fiscal year. During FY26, audit will be completed for FY25, once the audit numbers are out, we come to council and update any beginning balances to reflect actuals. At that time, then we'll update the beginning balances to reflect what was actually spent and so there that will be updated throughout the year and that's where we see that difference between the 2025 adopted and the 2026 revised.

Councilor Flores asked ok and when will that be presented to council?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said so for FY26, approximately around February.

Councilor Flores asked of next year?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said yes.

Councilor Flores said page 17, Fire Department allocation for LIGHT, the LIGHT project. Where are we?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said no worries, it's right here on 18.

Councilor Flores asked I was just wondering if, I know Fire overtime licensed master social workers so that $38,922, is that going to be enough to add for the overtime?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said that is the estimated-

Councilor Flores asked because how many LMSWs do we have?

Fire Chief Michael Daniels said we currently have three social workers; part of this overtime plan is to increase their availability. Currently they are exempt so we're reclassifying them as part of this to a non-exempt status so that they can be used for backfill to keep the LIGHT team in service more often versus hiring new FTEs when one is out or on leave this allows us to bring them in off duty so we can keep the LIGHT team in service more days out of the year.

Councilor Flores asked and my question is really based on my humble opinion that you probably need more FTEs than the LMSWs.

Chief Daniels said so based on the current down time it doesn't appear that we would need them unless we want more LIGHT teams in service, but to maintain the current single LIGHT team in service, we believe we can accomplish a decent amount of coverage, we'll get quite a bit more coverage by being able to utilize off-duty and bringing them in.

Councilor Flores said it would be great if we could have a presentation on that, I don't want to overstep City Manager or Mayor, but I think it would be great if we could have, because I know that our former Mayor Pro Tem, Kasandra Gandara, worked really hard on this and I remember just being, watching and listening, so I'm just following up on all of that.

Councilor Corran said I'm going from page 50, I think, is approximately where a lot of this stuff is. I really appreciate having the document, this is really skinny though, so I'm looking forward to the giant thick one that I collect in my office and actually read. Thank you for the concise version for today, I had a couple of quick questions and follow ups. I really appreciate you all including staff wage increases I think 5%, I just feel like we're behind, everyone is behind because of the rate of inflation and I really appreciate and always want to advocate for us making an investment and paying our folks the best ways we possibly can always all staff throughout the institution and I think we have the best employees I really appreciate that initiative which is more than the state gave recognizing a lot of state employees are at 3 or 4% so that's outstripping them and I again am proud that we are a great employer and I want us to keep that up. So, I wanted to express my gratitude for that the inclusion of 5% increase, which again I don't think is enough given the inflationary rates, but I also understand that we are also in a really difficult budgetary moment with a lot of ambiguity in the future. So, I think our humans are the best thing that we have, so I appreciate us and our investment in that. The other part that I wanted to really point out, I think the neighborhood traffic calming program, we had a very brief conversation about this last week, $140,000 I feel like this, there are probably three things that I've mentioned that my residents are really worried about it and I recently got the summary from the Neighborhood Watches which reiterates this idea that one of the big things that folks really want is for traffic to be slowed down on their streets and I know that this is a representation towards what we asked for, but it doesn't come close to what we really need to do to invest in neighborhood traffic calming, so I actually would love to have a specific work session related to neighborhood traffic calming sometime and what kind of things we might need to fund in the future if we really want to invest in this. This isn't really a question it is more of a comment as you are ever accustomed to from us. But I just want to say this investment I appreciate it as a gesture toward this, but that's like 1/20th of a traffic circle and my neighborhoods want like 15 new traffic circles last month, except for the ones that hate traffic circles, so thank you for that. The last thing that I wanted to go to was on slide 25, this is another thing that folks in my area and across the city have really said they appreciate is Mano y Mano, I think that this had a higher budget allocation in the past and one of the things folks reported is this service that we offer is really powerful and I think they're visible in my neighborhood, so I've heard from residents that Mano y Mano is making an impact. I'm just curious why the reduction because I don't get the sense that there is less of a need, and I think that they are really delivering on what they need to be, so I think that is one of the places that I was curious what's going on there.

Jacqueline Rubalcava said the $676,000 for Mano y Mano is based off of the amended service agreement, so the service agreement was for $676,000, so that is what is being budgeted here, there is a carryover from that amount last year I think it was $903,000 that was budgeted, including vehicles, so those vehicles have been ordered and there is also a carryover of that amount.

Councilor Corran said I just don't want that service to be reduced, that's one of the things that I'm really hoping we can maintain, so whatever that looks like.

Natalie Green said I will add that while the service agreement for $676,000 that's what we subcontracted Mano y Mano, the city still has expenses that we have to provide as part of our contract that are not in that number so it is underfunded, the City is required to provide all the supplies, all the vehicles and the long term maintenance. In addition, one of our vehicles is, it died, so and the other one has 600,000 miles and so part of that funding was the replacement of the Mano y Mano vehicle, so we are hoping to see that restored to what was requested and budgeted. So, last year council raised that to the 814 and added that additional truck so if it stays at the 676, we will be reducing our level of service to parks in particular because it is the van that is impacted.

Councilor Corran said I would like to see us maintain the level of service that we have for Mano y Mano because it is something that my residents I know really speak very highly of, it's a visible impact in their communities for what they are experiencing. Traffic calming is the second thing that I just really want us to think about ways that we can invest and have forward that conversation and so I appreciate seeing both of those things in here, as well as many other things that we've talked about, but those are two things that I continue to hear from my residents so thank you again for the work on this. I know that you all really faced the daunting task this year of doing it a little bit differently and I really appreciate the way that all of the departments have put in to think about this in a different way and really look constructively at the ways we make an impact in our community, so thank you again for your presentation and listening to my comments, not questions.

Jacqueline Rubalcava said and I just want to add that the neighborhood traffic calming program, the amount budgeted is for a pilot program.

Councilor McClure said I had a question for page 18, the Public Health Coordinator that came up during our presentations and I'm just curious on the thought processes of having it grant funded, especially with grants around the country as they are and sort of just the idea that that's kind of unstable. Where's the priority of that and in terms of finding that grant for it.

Jacqueline Rubalcava said so there is already a grant that has been identified and is in the process of being applied for, and so with that grant, a portion of that will go to fund the Public Health Coordinator.

Councilor McClure asked do we know when that might come through? Is there kind of a tentative award date if we did get it?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said not at this time I don't believe I don't have the answer here, we can look into that.

Councilor McClure said I'd be curious to see whether or not we can actually, maybe even just a part-time position, before it actually the grant does come through to see whether or not we do that.

Natalie Green said we did receive notice from the governor's office that has been awarded, it's $350,000 the bulk of that will be for staff and it is a two-year grant, and we're just finalizing that scope of work, and we will bring it into the budget.

Councilor McClure said awesome, thank you. I also wanted to second the idea of having a traffic calming work session, I think that would be valuable. I also get a lot of those and yeah Mano y Mano is also a super valuable program that I would like to see and make sure that we sustain that level of service as well.

Councilor Bencomo asked this is our last hearing, right before our official vote?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said yes, that's correct.

Councilor Bencomo said I'm just going to go kind of down the list on page numbers and since you are here, this is perfect. I'll start here, this isn't really a question, I honestly just wanted to say that this is my fifth budget cycle, and it has felt the most different in a good way. I will say that I feel like you having the highlights here, the council priorities and then the little ones next to some of those requests. You know I've said this before, I feel like in the past, it just has felt like a little auto pilot, the budget cycle and this time it felt really regenerative and you know most of us come very well prepared to budget sessions because we've been in the community we've been talking to people and we know exactly what we are going to be asking for and ensuring that that gets uplifted and funded so I just wanted to appreciate that first and foremost. A question on number 19, you have the storefront repair initiative carryover, I'm sort of just very curious around the process here, right, like I knew at the end of last year we were nervous regarding ARPA dollars, are these additional allocations we've been given to this store front program? Or are these still ARPA dollars that have been sort of secured and not going to get pulled back?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said this is that continuation of the ARPA funding, so this carryover amount is from ARPA.

Councilor Bencomo asked ok but is it safe? No one is trying to claw these back?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said we have not heard that anything will be clawed back from ARPA.

Councilor Bencomo said it's a good program, so I'm glad it is still going. Page 20, on vehicles I apologize, I don't remember if last year when we initially sort of allocated for park rangers if we also allocated for vehicles. Did we do that last year is that already in the budget?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said I'd have to look into that, I feel like they have been, but I'm not sure of the amount of vehicles.

Chief Jeremy Story said yes, we have all three of those vehicles sitting at the police department right now waiting for the rangers to fill them.

Councilor Bencomo said oh great! Ok, thank you. I could not remember, so thanks for that! And then honestly, I had a similar question as Councilor Corran around page 25, Mano y Mano. I think probably every single one of us up here makes requests to Natalie to send the Mano y Mano program if not on a weekly basis, on a pretty regular basis. I think that those vehicles take a significant beating, like they are doing very hard work I think that they are doing very important work. Not only is it the vans, you know I've heard that there's a van that's been totally broken, they are literally using one on loan, I think they have equipment that needs to be used, right like the little pick up things, vests, bags, all of this kind of equipment. Community of Hope covers the insurance for the vans not even the entirety of Mano y Mano isn't even being fully funded by the city, I think Community of Hope puts in additional funds as well, insurance for the vans, the food for the employees gets provided by El Caldito and Casa De Peregrinos, of course they have to maintain wages, like the rest of the city and so I also want to make sure that we are funding programs that work, like these programs in our community work because we not only I see them out there all of the time, but I hear back from community members how grateful they are that something like this exists and so I would really hate for us to roll back something that exists, given something that works, given the conversation we continue to have around our unhoused neighbors. So, I did just want to give that last plug because I also want to make sure we provide them the funding they need to continue doing the level of service they have been so far.

Councilor Mattiace asked my question is if you go to page 22, and then you see these initiatives, the question is really for the City Manager, all of this is from the Telshor Fund, correct? Page 22, 23, 24, and of course that's not a recurring fund. I mean we have another $14 million we could take out of it, and we might last through 27, 28, and maybe 29, but all these great initiatives, how are they going to be funded in say, fiscal year 2029, Mr. Ikani?

Ikani Taumoepeau, City Manager asked you are asking for a project that has not been identified?

Councilor Mattiace asked in other words, well, I assume you're going to continue these initiatives, correct? Mano y Mano, I mean it's a great program, but right now it is being funded by the Telshor Fund.

Ikani Taumoepeau said great question, Mano y Mano is approved by this budget that you see in front of you, is approved by you as Council, as you know. To answer your 2029 hypothetical-

Councilor Mattiace said I know it's hypothetical, it's just that once that money is used, it's gone, right? But you want these programs and these great initiatives, all of them, to continue. I mean not just for two years, three years, you want them perpetual, correct?

Ikani Taumoepeau said yes, what I'll share with you to answer your question at its simplest form, is Telshor Fund, once it is used, the funds are reduced, we receive interest on these funds currently right now, so if we do nothing with them, we continue to receive revenues based on this interest, but Natalie can answer some of the questions as well.

Natalie Green said this year the State of New Mexico put out some significant resources, both for affordable housing and for our homeless encampment response, so our goal is to utilize those fundings and reimburse the Telshor Funds for much of these projects. In terms of the affordable housing projects, those are onetime projects, and they are loans, so all the revenue will come back to the city of course that is over a 20-year period, but our intent is to make the Telshor Fund whole for any of the funds that it has allocated to us for loans. In terms of the gap funding for Amador Crossing, again we've been very successful at acquiring, I haven't announced it yet, I was going to do it in my next presentation, but we just got another $2 million to help recoup some of the expenses that the city's paying. So, our goal is to fund these programs with other revenues as much as possible. So, we'll be working on that over the next year.

Councilor Bencomo said I'd like to sort of tackle a little bit of that question as well, I think that the longer and the more intentional we are about investing in long term solutions, like housing, the more we invest in housing people who are currently experiencing homelessness, and the more we invest in building our housing stock though things like Realize and those kinds of long term solutions the less there will be a need for things like Mano y Mano. So, ultimately the goal is while Mano y Mano is incredible, and I want to see it fully funded, the goal is for us to not need it eventually and I'm not saying 2029 is that timeline, but the more we invest in the long term solutions, the less we will need for the shorter-term solutions that are currently working right now.

Councilor Mattiace said I guess had we done this 15, 20 years ago, and had good investments, and good revenue, we would probably never needed the Telshor Fund. So, it's a good project and a good way to go.

Mayor Enriquez said just getting back to the page 20 with the vehicles. Just want to make sure on the staffing, we've got one new codes officer come in and one new animal control officer, I think you said there's one vehicle for animal control, are we going to make sure that we get the vehicle for the new code officer as well?

Jacqueline Rubalcava said so yes, the animal control officer is the one budgeted, and I'm going to defer to Police on that question.

Chief Story said there is not a vehicle that's dedicated for it, but we have some other solutions. We're working with Fire to repurpose a vehicle that was potentially going to be sent to auction, and we have a couple other backup plans, so I think we have it covered. It's actually a decent vehicle for the codes officer.

Mayor Enriquez said just want to make sure that if you get a new position, that we get all the resources that they need to be able to fulfil their duties. One of the other things that's been brought to my attention is, I think it would be page 22, I think it would fall under maybe the CM office for public services if not under the Telshor Fund, maybe Quality of Life maybe there is another funding source for the Las Cruces Public Schools has reached out for some of their case managers or social workers that they have after school programs that only fulfills two days out of the week and they're requesting $150,000 that would do five days out of the week and I think that's a great intervention program a great public service health wise for our community that if we could partner up and help out Las Cruces Public Schools with their social workers and making sure that for the youth in our community we're giving them five days out of the week instead of just two. I guess I'll look to the City Manager to see where exactly that would fall under the budget but that is a request also, working with our community schools and the public schools. And the other one I know I agreed to with traffic calming those are always concerns that come out from the residents but the other thing is training and safety and I know I'm just springing this on now, because I just saw it last week, there is a company here in town Mansco Company that is doing a school instruction for heavy equipment operators and they had some simulators there that they can do up to 36 vehicles included there are police units, fire apparatus, heavy equipment that our public works and street use all the time, there are simulators that cost about $70,000 and I'm just throwing it out there because I promised Lucio I would, and say that it would be great for training, for testing, preventing accidents and just helping our staff to get better trained in traffic, so that's another item that I present and throw out there.

Councilor Mattiace said I'd just like to support you on your request for the social workers of Las Cruces Public Schools.

Linda St. Clair, Member of the Public said I am the President of Friends of Thomas Branigan Memorial Library. I wanted to start just by thanking you for the support you've already shown for the design process for the renovation that I'm sure that was helpful for us when we went to the State Legislature and were able to get some funding from them and we will continue harassing them for more capital campaigns, but you have in this budget a Librarian II Collection Development position and I do want to encourage you. That is an incredibly important position for the library. Our Library staff is so incredible, they wear so many hats and do so many things outside of their regular responsibilities because we don't have someone in that position and haven't in quite some time as I understand it. So, I just would like to encourage you to support that Library Collection position. Operation of the library is so vital to so many people, the friends actually have more friends here in the audience, but they are out running the book sale that we have going on right now to try to bring in some more money to help with some of the other operating expenses that come up that they don't have the money for in the budget the staff does such a great job of putting on. I want to thank you for your support in the past and encourage you to keep supporting the library.

Nicole Martinez, Member of the Public said I also wanted to express my gratitude for including Community of Hope in the budget and supporting some of our programs. I know that our homeless outreach program, the Mano y Mano program, certainly coveted programs in several other communities. I think it is a very strong partnership that we have with the City of Las Cruces and shows that we care about our unhoused neighbors. I'm also really grateful to see that it's been budgeted to have onsite maintenance for Community of Hope. Not sure if you know how it works right now, but currently if Jardin's toilet breaks the work order comes to me, I send it to the city. Casa de Peregrinos lights goes out, it comes to me, goes to the city and then sometimes I don't know if things are getting updated on what might be happening, so this really will streamline and really prevent a lot of the things I think that we see happen at Community of Hope, so I'm really excited to have that there. It will save the city some money in the future and while I'm here, I just wanted to comment on a couple of other programs that our city funded. They are not necessarily in this budget.

One of them is the GRD Funding that we've gotten from Legislature and that's to help people with one time assistance, people that are exiting homelessness, and transitioning into their own apartments, might be security deposits, but a lot of the funding that has been used has been to prevent homelessness, so I know sometimes it gets lost that we are doing a lot of those things too, so we have a lot of different types of housing programs but we are really flexible and we think that housing is the way to go with that so people that I know that there was a woman that had come about information of her losing her housing had come forward those are the types of people that we are helping constantly. Since July we have served 163 clients with that funding, so prevented at least 103 of those people from becoming homeless by assisting with that funding, 19 was security deposits several with Utilities and quite a few that were utilizing it as first month's rent, we also have been operating ARPA funding, Landlord Risk Mitigation Program that can also be used, would have worked for that same woman as well and we have worked with 33 unique landlords in the City of Las Cruces with the landlord mitigation, it's for damages but it's also for recruiting landlords, it's also for helping bring units into compliance with inspections so they are safe when we are moving people into those units, and then we also have other funding sources that come from the state that will assist people with homeless prevention funding with more than just one month of rent, so more ongoing assistance for people who might be facing eviction. So, just wanted to let you know that those are things that the city has also been supporting I don't think that landlord risk made it into this particular budget, but it remains a really useful program keeping people in their own home or quickly moving them to another unit, so they don't join the ranks of our unhoused population. So, again just wanted to say thank you so much.

Tim Jenkins, Member of the Public said a question, I don't now how many times in the last year I've actually called on Mano y Mano, and they have done excellent work but I remember prior to Covid that we had a program with the inmates picking up trash which I know the governor shut down during Covid, but would that maybe be an option of something we could maybe implement or bring back to help cut costs? Just an idea. Just thought I'd bring it up.

3.2 CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PROGRAM FY26 REVIEW AND PUBLIC HEARING.

Cynthia Alamillo, CIP Manager gave the overhead presentation.

3.3 CITY OF LAS CRUCES PARKS AND RECREATION IMPACT FEE STUDY

Katherine Harrison-Rogers, Parks Plan & Construction Administrator gave the overhead presentation.

Katherine Harrison-Rogers continued the overhead presentation.

Councilor Corran said thank you for orienting us on this. This is something that from my perspective is we've been considering as a city for a really long time. It's really overdue, like I think we've been neglecting our duties to address park impact fees for a long time and I think we now kind of have the experience of having to catch up which is not a great situation to be in. But I was hoping that you could bring up, so you had the CIAC recommendations but the one prior to that is the or on this it's just one page up. I guess for me the most important variables that I think about and again, I think that my district probably has the fastest growth of anyone, so these impact fees will be paid primarily by people moving into District 5 and that's part of what I consider in this, but I also see that lots of parks are actually exist in our district and people are always calling me to ask that the city come out to maintain their tiny one acre neighborhood park and so all of those variables for me really make me think, sorry it's like maybe one more up? This one I think, I just wanted to say, for me I think this is I think we should include neighborhood parks although I understand that the variable Realize is somewhat complicating of that. So for me, in part because of that very reason, that many people in my district benefit from neighborhood parks but I don't know how that will be moving forward in terms of development and reimbursement and all of those things so I sort of defer on that, but I know that all of these get passed on to residents, that is how buying a home goes and one of the biggest things that people always say is don't put up barriers to housing and what I very much appreciate about this model is that it takes into account entry level housing for people who have small families versus sort of middle of the road and thinks about housing units, how many people there are, using the services based on that. I would like to say that I support the way that this is approached in terms of square footage making it parallel to the public safety impact fees and I also want to really encourage us in my district, I think in the last year, housing prices have increased enormously, and people continue to buy houses, so I say this homes stay on the market for three days, four days, five days, they cost probably 35% more than when I moved into the district at least or perhaps up to 50% more than when I moved into my district so I just want to put the caveat in here that while housing prices this is a factor in housing prices, they are going to go up I anticipate whether we do a lot of things or not. This isn't one of the biggest variables driving housing prices from my observations and experience in the district. So, I would also urge us to do the maximum allowable fee per unit because folks are enjoying these services, they're expecting a level of service from us, we owe it to people to give them green space in the outside and I would similarly argue that this accounts for steep impacts on the housing sort of supply by changing to a residential square foot model instead of something else and so that accounts for that. So, I just want to say thank you for presenting this, of those options that we're given, I don't remember if this is actually the one, I think I'm thinking of the one with neighborhood parks. Oh yeah, that one's really a lot. I am here for this, this is the one that I would say I am in for, the maximum allowable for each, in part because thinking about what benefits folks' experience. It's disproportional from this, and also I think for a while people were paying like $3,000 to be members of a golf club in my district, I say that for context like, that's one golf course and again I'm not saying that that isn't a legitimate expense, it's great, but this is all of the facilities that the city provides and so many neighborhood parks this is what I would ask for moving forward, but I realize I'm a singular sort of voice in that conversation, but I have been watching this issue since I got on council and I'm really happy to have the opportunity and I urge us to do it as soon as we possibly can so that we can start addressing the revenue shortage and building more new park facilities too.

Councilor Bencomo said like Councilor Corran said we've been talking about this for a really long time and I remember early days of the Ifo Pili administration I spoke to him often about honestly the need for us to improve our parks impact fees system as a whole. I think we have incredible staff that has gotten us to this point, not only with this conversation, but with the improvements with Realize that of course while that's still sort of out there, I am very confident that we will have Realize as city wide policy, so, I just really do want to personally thank all of you for this work, this is tremendously exciting. I don't think I would take this job there's way too many numbers for me, but I do love this conversation as a whole. Just for because there are so many numbers, and because so many of us have different filter than that I just wanted to say a couple things to summarize so that I make sure I understand and to make sure the public understands, not that you all aren't number's people, but I imagine there's a lot of non-numbers people. Ok, early on you spoke about the cost per person and all of that and you said that if we stay on track, if we change nothing, that the need for our park system would be around $37 million, am I interpreting that correctly?

Julie Herlands said yes, and no. More yes than no, let me go to with neighborhood parks.

Councilor Bencomo asked can you go back to if you do nothing today?

Julie Herlands said so you are exactly right, I apologize, this is $37 million dollars, you are exactly right, of growth related needs based on the projections that we have that are from multiple sources, trends, we look back, we look forward, other external projections sources that we would look at put given a projection over ten years of about 14,000 and change of people at that level of service, yes, there's $37 million worth of growth related needs of which the majority of that is in the park improvements so I was mistaken in the indoor aquatic because what we show here is just that, the growth related share in this chart, so the $2.6 million.

Councilor Bencomo said so then my second question to this is I want to talk about the equity in the park system, and so even earlier in one of your slides earlier you had them neighborhood parks, all of them listed, I would have loved if you added a column on which district they were in because I think it would a shown the serious inequity that we have in the City of Las Cruces in terms of the person and the park and who has access to neighborhood parks and who doesn't because of frankly in my opinion the years of disinvestment in the park system through the park impact fee system and all of that. I think maybe perhaps for the next for our voting session I would love to see something like that because I think from someone like, I'm in District 4, and from someone like me, where there is very little growth happening, there is some growth, but very little growth, and the growth that has happened like I always point to Legends West neighborhood, I don't know if you know or not, but this growing sort of neighborhood had this tiny little pocket park and they said yeah, we will build some trails and it's just not adequate for that neighborhood. And so when I think about this conversation I always think about Legends West and that neighborhood as a whole and District 4 as a whole and 3 and 1 just deserved better in terms of neighborhood parks. That's how I'm sort of approaching this, I'm also wondering if you have like national best practices for this like dollar per person should be the land cost per person. Do you have that top of your head and I'm curious sort of how that matters in this conversation?

Julie Herlands said we've lots of discussions both here and elsewhere, my firm does work nationally due to impact fees, we've done one thousand impact fees. I don't know what our number is these days, but cross the country, 40 years, I've been there for half of that time, speaking of numbers, so we are really hesitant to talk about comparisons in comparable communities because every community's level of service is different, everyone has a different range of things and types of parks, types of service, types of facilities that they provide underneath the umbrella of Parks and Rec. So, we are very hesitant to do that we do. We have had questions and we can follow up on some of what we've learned sort of regionally and in the state, but it is kind of a real checker board in terms of who does impact fees, who doesn't, what other sources of funding there are, so we work in Colorado, Arizona. Colorado there's kind of this history and a tradition of dedicated taxes to purchase open space, so they take their open space piece out and kind of do that separately, really a checker board of who does what and when and where and the history. Florida's very different than Arizona, than Colorado, California is its own thing, New Mexico is kind of a mix of all of those things, there's really not a kind of a standard and so we're long way to say hesitant to provide the specifics in terms of dollars. We can say what other folks have done regionally and kind of within the state.

Councilor Bencomo said no I really respect that, thank you. One of the things that I appreciate most about this study is that you have, it is like deeply localized. It is all local data, all local numbers, so I think that that's actually really credible. I think some of the sort of tension that exists around the last number, the 2600, is that it is a little bit of an arbitrary number and I want to move away from that completely and what you have done here is said oh I have receipts. We got to this number through a very specific localized formula so I really respect that, thank you.

I think just generally I would like to say about some of this and what I'm already expecting will be the push back around will this make home prices increase? And I do want to note that in 2013 the last time there was an increase, which was a very long time ago and if anything I've learned from Utilities is we should not rate shock people, right? Rate shock is bad, we should try to avoid putting this huge increase on people and so instead you do this more gradual smaller increases in order to upkeep and maintain your entire system and deliver good service, I feel like that's a good perspective for this as well and in 2013, honestly the narrative was the same, if you raise A you are going to make it impossible for someone to buy a home. I would argue that right now first time home buyers, it's already impossible for them to buy a home, and it's not because of park impact fees. It's because of stagnant wages, it's because of student loan debt, it's because of medical debt, it's because of a lot of other things that have nothing to do with park impact fees and yet here we are, trying to figure out how to provide the best service to our community. Parks, I deeply believe are as vital as a utility and so I'm very happy that we are having this conversation. For me I think that what I would like to see us move forward with is the I think it is page 16 the piece without neighborhood parks, given the piece that exists in Realize, I think if we sort of said you have to dedicate certain parkland and there will not be reimbursements any more and you have to pay an additional fee I fear that that would get us in legal trouble potentially, so given the stuff surrounding Realize right now though, in my mind if Realize is the new zoning code, I think for me this, I would like to move forward with this and the residential by square foot. The only caveat, maybe asterisk, that I would put here is that one of the biggest motivators behind Realize, one of the biggest motivators of the city as a whole, is to increase our housing stock. We have a serious housing crisis for not just affordable units, but fair market rent units, the missing middle type of units, we are in a housing crisis and we are trying to do many things in order to incentivize what that looks like. And again we can't predict the future, right, so I don't know if this number on the 1300 or less would yield us what we desire to see and especially in the infill and I don't know so I guess we move forward with something like this I'd like us to sort of in a year just in conversations with staff, like in the year we revisit and say did this yield us the kind of housing, the multifamily housing we were hoping to especially in the infill and if it didn't, perhaps it is time to revisit the cost for 1300 or less, specifically the less, would actually look like. Do you think so that we wouldn't have to do an arbitrary number at that point is there a way that you and your firm and staff can come up with a number to help us address a situation like that?

Julie Herlands said on that sort of threshold there is some flexibility in those ranges sure and this was to be consistent with the public safety fee this is exactly in line with the public safety fee I'm thinking there would be some level of consistency or that would provide a level of consistency and certainty from the development side so you are sort of fitting in the same buckets as you are getting your building permit and turned on the other side of the table but that can be an area that we from our side, can look at a little bit closer the potential issue there is the low end of the household size. And you can go lower than one considering some vacancy so this is a persons per housing unit, so at any given time there's going to be some vacancy there where you can be lower than one, but it still needs to be reasonable, and it needs to mathematically make sense.

Councilor Bencomo said right there's no half a person per unit.

Julie Herlands said right, so it's sort of yes and no question you can certainly drill down and look a little bit deeper at the data to see how much, if you can go smaller than that 1300 would be our floor. But again, there is some flexibility there you can change the middle parts too in terms of scaling it in terms of different buckets. So, we've worked in communities a fee schedule with ten categories or you can have a range there, so there's some flexibility there.

Councilor Bencomo said and I just want to say for now I'm very comfortable moving forward with this particular scale and again in a year, once Realize is in place and all of that pieces are in place that we can look and actually say what is happening, is it working is it not working and then sort of address it that way. At this point I just feel like we are so far behind as a whole that I'm not willing to wait any longer and I think this is just vitally important and we need to improve our park system as a whole.

Councilor Corran said I just want to clarify one other point to this question for the first time I think this year we waived impact fees for affordable housing, and I just want to clarify that changes to this would not change our ability to do that within an ordinance, right?

Katherine Harrison-Rogers said that's correct, so section 13-131 is where those provisions related to waivers for affordable housing projects exist and historically you have sort of two options with that. Historically what we've done is you as council have identified a budget, given that to affordable housing, so that we can reimburse those fees as we have affordable housing projects come through, we had a really large housing project come through this year and the code actually allows for a full waiver, that's built into the code as well. Just historically it hasn't been done, but it was done the first time this year for Peachtree Apartments in the Metro Verde area and there was a full waiver of that for the affordable housing and it's a fully affordable HUD identified project.

Councilor Bencomo said with a ton of amenities.

Katherine Harrison-Rogers said that's correct, pickleball.

Councilor Graham said I also support the maximum allowable fee. Sticker shock is not fun, but it's the inevitable consequence of not addressing these things in a timely fashion over years and years and I understand, I'm not dunking on previous councils. I understand why it's easier to just say ok, never mind we're not going to change anything because you are being badgered, people are angry or threatened with not being reelected, which is not my problem, so I'm happy to both recognize and understand how we got here, but say it is time to move ahead. So, I just wanted to add on to that.

Councilor McClure said I think that it is time to kind of recognize what benefits, mental health wise, parks do for our city. Everyone enjoys the amenities in the ways that they can allow for themselves. So, I would also like to ask, I think that in our one-on-one meeting I suggested cutting a little bit into the 1300 or less, I like the idea that it might incentivize a different kind of housing as well, so I'll add to that as also and yeah, the square footage is also the better portion of that.

Mayor Enriquez said what I would like to add is it is difficult to balance, it is something we are playing catch up, as you can see the dates of when we started with he impact fees and then when they were increased I don't know if it was nine or eleven years but there was a big gap and we've seen that and we've seen that with our own parks, and our previous presentation on the budget we show where we put money from the Telshor Fund into our legacy parks and I think that starts with us to set the standard and say these are the parks we want for our city and we've done that, so I think it is also up to the developers and the builders and everyone else to ante up and make the nice parks that we expect. We have to have that balance with building as well, if we do nothing, then we are just going to get further behind. I think we all agree with that, so to say with consistency I'm in favor of the square footage to be consistent with public safety but then also I'm looking at the page 16, is that the one without the neighborhood. Looking at that, we kind of have that happy medium because what we also have available is what we've already done with the Telshor Fund. Up next, we are already having another presentation with the GO bonds and that's where we get to that equity and that's where we can look and say these are the park improvements we need in certain areas and the city continues to grow and develop and we don't get further behind but at the same time, if we need to catch up, we have other options, we have the public safety critical infrastructure GRT coming up that will start in July. Those will be some other opportunities that we can catch up with the things that have been neglected but we move forward, and everybody does their piece and we try to balance as best we can to have a bright, sustainable financial future and not always trying to catch up. So that would be my recommendation, the square footage, page 16 would be what I would be looking at.

3.4 GO BOND QUARTERLY UPDATE

David Sedillo, Director of Public Works gave the overhead presentation.

Natalie Green, Housing and Neighborhood Revitalization Administrator continued the overhead presentation.

Councilor Graham said the Three Sisters, so great to hear that we are already getting folks moving into Three Sisters, I know with Pedrena getting them leased out actually it was demand over supply that you were getting constant, how has leasing gone with Three Sisters? Has there been a good response from the community?

Natalie Green said there are some few vacancies, so one of the things we are doing is the ribbon cutting will be open to the public, so we are hoping to right after the ribbon cutting, we'll be able to fill the rest of the units.

Councilor Graham said oh, so it can also be a recruitment neighborhood building event. Fantastic!

Natalie Green said I will add that Peachtree we're at probably once a week getting an inquiry to be added to the waitlist, so there have been some folks already anticipating those to be ready to go.

Councilor Graham said that's amazing, and do you have a sense of how are people finding out about this? Is it word of mouth, is it city social media?

Natalie Green said it's a little bit of all of it. Some of it is updates from this, they end up in social media or the newspaper, we get calls, in the case of Pedrena, sometimes it is district meetings or again people are just monitoring what's happening at Council and they saw something in the paper and they're calling us and a lot of times it is just inquires and calls. Someone is having a landlord/tenant issue, and they are looking for a new place to live and then we are able to provide a list of different subsidized properties across the city including the fliers that we get from the property manager and then of course, all the properties have very large signs so as people see construction move up, it does have typically contact information for either the developer or the property manager.

Councilor Graham said I'm happy to see the La Llorona Park improvements getting put on there, that's a place that I bicycle through several times a week especially the Wayfinding, because I feel like I currently am the Wayfinding asset for the city because anyone who looks lost, I'm like, I know this trail system, let me help you out. So, great to know that and that hopefully some storm water fixes because it can be a whole other pool facility over there sometimes so great to hear.

Councilor Corran said I was just curious, I don't know if I remember, but could you talk about those two developments Skylark and I don't know where those are or anything about them, could you just talk about them a little bit, Sierra Del Sol and Skylark? I don't remember them, and they sound cool.

Natalie Green said Sierra Del Sol is a subdivision that is next to Sierra Middle School. It is a piece of property that the City acquired in exchange for paving Bruins Lane and so as part of that, we put out an RFP and development agreement. Tierra Del Sol designed both subdivisions, but they've been holding out for funds to be able to build infrastructure and we anticipate those funds coming some time in the new fiscal year through some grant funding and my hope is to do that. And that's Luis Street and Spruce but the parking lot is there so it is behind the parking lot and then the other property, Skylark is off Skylark Drive and Central on the East Mesa. We had initially looked at that to be a subdivision and 2-acre park, and that was a directive from former Councilor Sorg when he wanted a 2-acre park on the East Mesa so we initially designed it for the park when the cost came back to be able to build the subdivision out was unfeasible with the park, so they redesigned it to make it all housing and there is a substantial waiting list for both of those projects, so there's almost 200 people waiting for first time homeownership we do want to use a portion of the GO Bonds to do first time homebuyers in Sierra Del Sol and Skylark and then the Arcadia which is in the Metro Verde PUD. So, a little bit of infill, a little bit of new.

Councilor Bencomo said last week when we met with Secretary of Workforce Development, Sarita Nair, we talked to her about all of these projects and just how ready they are and the gaps in funding and really still advocating for that ten million dollars to come because we know that it will be used immediately, right, like it's not money that's going to be sitting around sort of waiting for something to happen. It can be used right now as you can see, obviously even like with Amador that we still have a little bit of a gap, but it is already going and Peachtree is moving fast and so just the huge thank you to Jan who was there and then just really hoping Natalie that you are keeping in connection with the Secretary and making sure that we do as much as we can to advocate, that's a kind word, but really fight for these dollars to come to our community.

Natalie Green said I'm going to have a Tom Cruise moment of "show me the money"!

Councilor Bencomo said I love that actually, I'm going to join you in that. I think Las Cruces is ready, and like I said, we'd use it immediately, so I'm just thank you for you know all of your staff being so prepared for that. And then David I just have one small question for you, on La Llorona park, I apologize if I forgot, you've probably talked about this in previous presentations, but the IBWC it said approval, that didn't have a check mark yet, can you just talk to us about what that meant?

David Sedillo said so under the construction phase the lease approved by all parties. That's the update for this one here so, yes, the lease has been approved, it may have to be amended based on how we mitigate the storm water, that was part of the discussion.

Councilor Bencomo said got it thank you so much, I missed that.

David Sedillo said thank you for the recognition, however that was Parks who had the decision to move the funds over here, so just wanted to share that with you.

Mayor Enriquez said I did have one other question, the one on El Paseo, that's a Pedrena senior apartments, it's not really with the housing, it's a little bit more for Steve, I just know throughout the community there's a lot of talk about more pickleball courts and I know that there's a Frenger Park there and there's other parks. Is there any update, is that something that can be converted from tennis courts to pickleball courts or in other areas of town?

Steven Bingham, Director of Parks and Recreation said yes, we have looked into and talked with the community groups about using Frenger as a pickleball facility, the feedback was from the pickleball group is more that they would like to see a tournament site, a place that can grow out to 24 or 32 courts eventually. They feel like right now they've been getting by that was our discussions about three months ago. East Mesa pickleball complex has been full previously usually maxed out at five courts out of the eight, and Apodaca had been down short one usually open, so we can go and convert Frenger to pickleball courts, and I do have a cost on doing that. We've also looked at making it multiuse and making it so it can be a futsal/basketball and still add a couple of pickleball courts there, so we've been looking at each of those options.

Mayor Enriquez said I was more concerned with the residents that are living there now in that community. It's just a walk right there to the park and to have some of those amenities I don't know if through the developer Natalie have there been talks about having some recreation activities for their tenants as well. That's what I was wondering if it could be done but you were saying you are looking at the costs and that was maybe something we could talk with the residents.

Natalie Green said I was hoping you could see it from here, but I don't think that you can.

Mayor Enriquez said when you played the video that's what caught my eye was the park, all that green space behind there.

Natalie Green said they did add a cross, they need to paint the crosswalk but they did add an ADA ramp with direct access to the apartment complex to correspond with the Frenger and Gomez master plan and so my goal, not this year, next year, is to advocate for some grant funding for parks similar to how housing advocated for Valley View Park so it's on my list of wheeling and dealing to do to hopefully get them some grant funds to make some improvements to add additional connectivity with Pedrena.

OF LAS CRUCES, NM; DESIGN TECHNOLOGIES OF FAIRACRES, NM; AND WSP USA ENVIRONMENT & INFRASTRUCTURE, INC. OF LAS CRUCES, NM, IN AN ANNUAL NOT-TO-EXCEED AMOUNT OF $1,000,000 PER FIRM FOR A TERM OF FIVE (5) YEARS, SUBJECT TO APPROVED BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS (PROCUREMENT NO. 24-25-046).

TYPE OF ACTION: ☒ Administrative ☐ Legislative ☐ Quasi-Judicial

PURPOSE(S) OF ACTION:

Award of professional service agreements for materials testing services.

BACKGROUND / KEY ISSUES / CONTRIBUTING FACTORS:

The City of Las Cruces (City) requires material testing services for various budgeted projects. Materials testing services ensure the safety, reliability, and performance of materials and products through evaluation of properties and behavior under various conditions. This testing ensures product safety and quality; helps the City understand the material properties such as strength, elasticity, ductility, hardness, and fatigue limits; optimize design; prevent failures; meet regulatory compliance requirements; and analyze failures when they occur, ultimately helping to prevent failures and ensure compliance with standards.

On February 28, 2025, the City advertised Request for Proposals for Procurement No. 24-25-046, for the purpose of pre-qualifying firms that can provide these services and entering into agreements with recommended firms. The Purchasing program received four (4) proposals that were evaluated and scored by the Selection Advisory Committee (SAC) on April 9, 2025. The SAC recommendation was to award the three (3) highest rated firms as follows:

1. Advanced Testing & Materials, Inc. - Las Cruces, New Mexico
2. Design Technologies - Fairacres, New Mexico
3. WSP USA Environment & Infrastructure, Inc. - Las Cruces, New Mexico

It is advantageous for the City to have a pre-qualified list of firms from which to select, to complete budgeted projects. Departments will be able to utilize these contracts on an as-needed basis. The Public Works Department has numerous projects budgeted throughout the upcoming fiscal years that may need materials testing services. There are times when special funding is made available to the City for specific projects. The funding sources often give strict timeframes within which projects must be completed to secure funding. By having a pre-qualified list of firms, it will not be necessary to go through individual requests for proposals to contract the necessary work for each individual project. These agreements will allow Public Works, and any other department needing these services, to contract with any one of the three (3) pre-qualified firms. As a result, valuable time is saved performing the necessary testing.

The City is requesting authority to enter into agreements with the SAC recommended firms for an annual not-to-exceed amount of $1,000,000 per vendor to be used on an as-needed basis for a period of five (5) years, subject to approved budget appropriations.

RE: 24-25-047, Automotive Batteries
Bid Opening: January 16, 2025 2:00 PM

Dear Purchasing Section,

O'Reilly Auto Parts thanks you for inviting us to provide a response for bid 24-25-047 for Automotive Batteries. Enclosed you will find our prepared response in which O'Reilly is proposing to offer City of Las Cruces a minimum guaranteed discount of List less 41% or better for batteries. Because the unit prices are derived from discounts applied to the battery product lines, many items will have discounts greater than 41%.

We have included a listing of the four O'Reilly locations within Las Cruces as well as detailed battery specs for the SuperStart battery line. We would like to claim the 5% preference for recycled content as SuperStart batteries consist of up to 80% recycled material and are up to 99% recyclable (see attached "All Things Batteries").

We have noted the following exceptions in our bid response:

- Section III.3 – Replace "18 month" and "6 (six) month unconditional" with "manufacturer's". Provided a chart showing the warranty period of the specific batteries bid.
- Section IV – Because the prices quoted are calculated from a discount percentage, substitute "discounts" for "prices quoted". While the discounts will be held firm for the duration of the term and any renewals, individual unit prices are subject to change without notice based on costs from the manufacturer and market fluctuations. See the clarification at the bottom of the pricing page.
- Section V – Price decreases will automatically be passed through to the City of Las Cruces as a function of the discount pricing structure. Prices are updated daily, as needed, and are available in the online customer catalog at www.firstcallonline.com.

Should you choose O'Reilly Auto Parts as a supplier again this year, please send an award notification to probids@oreillyauto.com so that we will know to update the pricing for the City's accounts: 827013, 1461382, & 2250096. We look forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,

Battery Rating

Reserve Capacity (RC) is the number of minutes a fully-charged battery at 80°F will continue to supply at least 25 amps and maintain a charge above 10.5 volts. The higher the Reserve Capacity, the greater the amount of power stored by the battery.

Cold Cranking Amps (CCA) is the rating that identifies your battery's ability to start the engine in cold temperatures. The rating refers to the number of amps a 12-volt battery can deliver at 0°F for 30 seconds while maintaining a voltage of at least 7.2 volts. The higher the CCA rating, the greater the cold-weather starting power.

Amp Hours (Ah) measures battery capacity by multiplying the amperage by the hours of discharge. This measurement is specific to the amount of electrical energy stored in a fully-charged battery at a stable temperature of 77°F, and the current draw that a battery can maintain during a discharge at a fixed rate before the voltage falls to 1.75V per cell. This represents the time that a battery will continue to operate essential accessories if the alternator or generator fails. For example, a battery with a 120Ah rating can provide 1 amp for 120 hours, 2 amps for 60 hours, 3 amps for 40 hours, 5 amps for 24 hours, 6 amps for 20 hours, etc. The higher the Amp Hours, the greater the staying power.

Cores & Recycling

When you install a new battery in your vehicle, the old battery you've replaced is called a core. Battery manufacturers recycle these cores, which makes it possible for new lead-acid batteries to consist of up to 80% recycled materials, and 99% of the material used in those new batteries is recyclable. When batteries are recycled properly, the process is regulated by local, state, and federal laws, is good for the environment, and reduces the cost of batteries.

Annually:

- About 200 million pounds of lead are recycled
- Over 12 million pounds of plastic are recycled
- Over 6 million gallons of acid are recycled

Bring any old lead-acid batteries you have sitting around to a nearby O'Reilly Auto Parts store for recycling — whether you bought the battery from us or not — and in many cases, we'll give you a $10 gift card for each one*. This service isn't available in all areas. Some restrictions on battery types and quantities that can be recycled per day in your area may apply, so check with your local store for details.

*O'Reilly team members reserve the right to refuse a damaged battery for recycling as they see fit. If your battery has been physically damaged and is leaking acid, it should be recycled at your local hazardous waste recycling facility. Motorcycle, ATV/UTV, golf cart, marine, and lawn and garden AGM or lead-acid batteries do not qualify for the $10 gift card offer. We also cannot recycle lithium batteries for marine, powersport, or automotive applications.

TYPE OF ACTION: ☐ Administrative ☐ Legislative ☒ Quasi-Judicial

PURPOSE(S) OF ACTION:

Approval of right-of-way vacation.

BACKGROUND / KEY ISSUES / CONTRIBUTING FACTORS:

Resolution 25-118 is being repealed as the notification letters mailed to the surrounding properties owners were dated incorrectly. There are no changes to the proposed right-of-way vacation request.

The vacation process is to be followed when a request is made to rescind all or part of a dedicated tract that is designated for right-of-way in a previously filed subdivision. The Las Cruces Municipal Code Chapter 37, Section 37-239, states that a vacation plat requires a recommendation provided by the Development Review Committee (DRC), which is then considered by City Council for the final action.

The proposed vacation is for an unnamed 60-foot-wide right-of-way that was once the entrance to the Las Cruces Country Club. The unnamed right-of-way is approximately 0.35 acres in size and will be incorporated into Lots 1 and 2 of Royal Crossing Subdivision 1A. Currently the right-of-way is not being utilized by the City of Las Cruces and its vacation will benefit the City by eliminating all related maintenance and liability issues.

On August 14, 2024, the DRC reviewed the proposed vacation plat. After some discussion regarding drainage issues, the DRC unanimously voted to recommend approval. The discussion of that meeting is further referenced in Attachment "A".

A RESOLUTION REPEALING RESOLUTION 25-118, IN ITS ENTIRETY, AND REPLACING WITH THE VACATION OF AN UNNAMED 60-FOOT-WIDE RIGHT-OF-WAY, LOCATED AT THE SOUTHWEST INTERSECTION OF MAIN STREET AND SAMARITAN AVENUE, WHICH IS ASSOCIATED WITH A FINAL PLAT KNOWN AS ROYAL CROSSING SUBDIVISION PHASE 1A.

The City Council is informed that:

WHEREAS, the applicant's representative, Souder Miller and Associates, is proposing the vacation of an unnamed right-of-way that was previously used to access the Las Cruces Country Club; and

WHEREAS, the City of Las Cruces occasionally receives requests to vacate dedicated right-of-way that does not serve its intended purpose; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Las Cruces Municipal Code Chapter 37, Section 37-239, vacation of right-of-way requires review and recommendation by the Development Review Committee (DRC) and final action by the City Council; and

WHEREAS, on August 14, 2024, the DRC recommended approval to vacate the unnamed right-of-way.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be it Resolved by the Governing Body of the City of Las Cruces:

CITY OF LAS CRUCES

DEVELOPMENT REVIEW COMMITTEE (DRC)

Following are the minutes from the City of Las Cruces Development Review Committee Meeting held Wednesday, August 14, 2024, at 9:00 a.m. in Room 1158.

DRC PRESENT: Rocio Nasir, Senior Engineer, Utilities
Jimmy Moreno, Construction Management, Public Works
Mark Dubbin, Fire Projection Engineer
Gary Skelton, Engineer, Public Works
Mike Kinney, Plan Review Engineer, Com. Dev.

STAFF PRESENT: Tim Pitts, Deputy Director Building Development
John Castillo, Planner, Community Development

OTHER PRESENT: Paul Pompeo, Souder Miller

1. CALL TO ORDER (9:13 a.m.)

Pitts: This is Development Review Committee for August 14, 2024. Calling the meeting to order at 9:13. Can we announce our presence by department. So we'll start with the Public Works.

Moreno: Jimmy Moreno, Construction Management Administrator, Public Works.

Skelton: Gary Skelton, Traffic Management.

Pitts: Community Development.

Castillo: John Castillo with Community Development.

Kinney: Mike Kinney, Community Development.

Pitts: And Fire.

Dubbin: Mark Dubbin, Las Cruces Fire Department.

Pitts: Okay. We do have a quorum.

2. APPROVAL OF MINUTES -

Pitts: Entertain a motion to approve minutes from last meeting. Do we have minutes? I do not believe we have …

Castillo: I don't think we have minutes.

Pitts: We have minutes available to review. So I will not entertain that motion.

3. OLD BUSINESS

Pitts: No old business.

4. NEW BUSINESS

Pitts: We go to new business. I'll entertain a motion to adjust the schedule. Anybody willing to move 4.2 first.

Kinney: Motion.

Pitts: Motion by Mike Kinney to move 4.2 to the first one.

Dubbin: Second.

Pitts: Second by Mark Dubbin. All in favor.

MOTION PASSES UNANIMOUSLY.

Pitts: Okay, motion passes.

4.2 Case No. 24CS0500011: Sierra Norte Heights Phase 2 Preliminary Plat

- A request for approval of a preliminary plat subdivision, known as Sierra Norte Heights Phase 2.
- The proposed subdivision currently encompasses 6.311+ acres and located at the intersection of Sonoma Ranch North Blvd., Sierra Ventana Ave. and Vista Belleza Ave. This is the second phase of the approved Sierra Norte Master Plan and Annexation that was approved in March of 2006.
- The subdivision proposes a 33-lot single family residential subdivision is zoned R-1b (Single-Family High Density).
- Submitted by the Souder Miller and Associates, Representative.

Pitts: So first item on the new business is Item 4.2, Case No. 24CS0500011, Sierra Norte Heights Phase 2 Preliminary Plat.

Kinney: Mr. Chair.

Nasir: I can hear you guys now. And I hope you can hear me.

Castillo: Yes, we can hear you.

Pitts: Okay.

Nasir: Okay, perfect.

Pitts: So entering the meeting we have from utilities, please announce your name.

Nasir: Yes. Rocio Nasir with Las Cruces Utilities.

Pitts: Okay. Thank you. Who's presenting Sierra Norte.

Castillo: I'm presenting. So today we have Sierra Norte Heights Phase 2 Preliminary Plat. This is a proposed subdivision which currently encompasses 6.311 acres. It's located at the northwest intersection of Sonoma Ranch Boulevard and Sierra Ventana. It also has Vista Belleza to the north of it. This is the second phase of an approved master plan. It's part of the Sierra Norte Master Plan and Annexation which was approved back in March 2006. The subdivision, as I stated before, is currently proposing 33 single-family residential lots which have a zoning designation of R-1b and R-1bC. And it's been submitted by Souder Miller and Associates as the representative.

Pitts: All right do we have a motion.

Castillo: I have a motion to approve.

Kinney: Second.

Pitts: I believe we need another department. I think we need that from another department.

Kinney: Okay.

Dubbin: Second. Were there any outstanding comments on this?

Castillo: No. There were no outstanding comments.

Kinney: I can check.

Castillo: Traffic did have a comment regarding a second connection through Vista Belleza connecting into Sonoma Ranch. All departments approved.

Pitts: Any other comments, questions? Applicant wish to speak?

Pompeo: Yes. Good morning. Actually on this case representing Southwest Engineering nn this one. This is the second phase of the Sierra Norte Heights Subdivision. The first phase of the master plan development was previously approved 18 years ago to the west. This is the last block to fill in between the existing subdivision and Sonoma Ranch Boulevard. I believe we have all of the comments addressed. Drainage has been addressed. Access. Utilities, I think the only comment we had from utilities at the time was clarification of the water provider, which we have done. There was a comment on the connection of Vista Belleza Avenue to Sonoma Ranch. When we acquired the construction drawings for the Sonoma Ranch Boulevard and had discussions with that project engineer, due to the spacing between the two roadways on the north and south of this, Public Works had not made that connection inside of the construction drawings of Sonoma Ranch Boulevard to the northern street due to the local road spacing on Sonoma Ranch Boulevard. So we would ask that in the discussion today that we'd like to continue with that as appropriate and not make that connection due to the roadway spacing on Sonoma Ranch.

Kinney: That Vista Belleza.

Pompeo: Yes. So when that set of construction drawings was approved for that, that road was not tied in on that construction project. And according to the project engineer for that section of road, it was decided to leave, at that time the Public Works didn't want that connection made due to the spacing of the local roads to keep more of a free flow on Sonoma Ranch. So that was our understanding. And so that's what we're proposing at this time.

Pitts: So you're proposing that the right-of-way will remain, but just not built Pompeo: Yes, the right-of-way …

Pitts: You're not putting that into a lot.

Pompeo: No, no. With the right-of-way will be maintained. The roadway actually comes to an end there, and there's a header curb Hector across the end of the street, if I remember correctly. It was this one here, Jimmy. Yes, sir. So we would just ask that …

Kinney: It's a dead end right now, it's not, it's just blocked off. So how many entrances do you have to the subdivision?

Pompeo: Well, we have two entrances to the north and south onto local streets.

Moreno: I believe in discussions with the Public Works Director it was the understanding that that was going to be tied in at the time of that lot development. So that may be a further point of discussion.

Pompeo: Okay.

Moreno: But what was, for the record what was your reasons for not tieing it in?

Pompeo: Well, we were, in our discussions with the Chad Sells who was the engineer that did this said, that did the Sonoma Ranch drawings, that going through the review process on that section of Sonoma Ranch when it was widened, I guess that project's just recently been completed in the last year, that they had removed that design connection to Sonoma Ranch in that set of construction drawings due to, they were told in that approval with the City about trying to minimize the number of local streets that were coming into Sonoma Ranch, so that it stayed as a free flowing arterial. I mean I don't think, I'll ask the developer rep. is here, Mr. Ray Carlson, but if we had to make that connection I don't think we would have an issue with that.

Moreno: Okay.

Pitts: Just I would prefer not to because I think keeping that road free flowing would be preferable. But I just make sure that there's no planning or fire reason to want that.

Skelton: Traffic position is we would prefer not to have the connection as well. But if there was a connection to be made that wouldn't carry through the median and make an additional median opening. So it would be just a right in, right out access only.

Pompeo: Okay.

Moreno: That will be a departmental decision. We'll get this information back to the director and he can make the ultimate decision on that motion, along with other departments.

Pompeo: And on behalf of the developer I think we're okay either way. I guess we'll, just, as we move forward to final plat and construction drawings we'll just address it in the construction drawings at that time. That's fine.

Moreno: Okay.

Pitts: Okay, with no objections on that. Any other comments from anybody on the DRC? Seeing none. I'll ask for a vote by department. CD.

Kinney: Aye.

Pitts: PW.

Skelton: Aye.

Pitts: Fire.

Dubbin: Yes.

Pitts: And utilities.

Nasir: Yes.

Pitts: Okay, so it passes unanimously 4-0. Thank you. I think it'll be nice to see that built out. It's a nice neighborhood. I think it'd be nice to have some more houses out there to finish it out to the road.

Moreno: How far down the road, Mark, is the fire station on Central planned.

Dubbin: It's going to be on the corner of Central and Sonoma Ranch.

Moreno: Is it in the next couple of years, you think, or is it just?

Dubbin: It's within the year.

Moreno: Good. Awesome.

Dubbin: It' gone out to bid.

Pitts: I think it's subdivided now. I think we're finished with that.

Dubbin: Plans are done.

Kinney: Going to start building Central Avenue here soon.

Moreno: Wow, very nice.

4.1 Case No. 24CS0500023: Royal Crossings Subdivision Phase 1A Final Plat and Right-of-Way Vacation

- A request for approval of a vacation of a 45-foot-wide right-of-way known as Camino Del Rex,
- associated with a final plat known as Royal Crossings Subdivision Phase 1A.
- The proposed subdivision currently encompasses 17.71 + acres and is located at the corner of - Solano Drive and Main Street also known as the former Country Club.
- Submitted by the Souder Miller and Associates, Representative.

Pitts: Okay, moving on to case 4.1, number 24CS0500023, Royal Crossing Subdivision, Phase 1A Final Plat and Right-of Way Vacation.

Castillo: Today we have a request for approval of a vacation of a 45 foot right-of-way known as Camino del Rex. It's associated with the final plat known as Royal Crossings Subdivision Phase 1A. The proposed subdivision currently encompasses 17.71 acres and is located at the corner of Solano and Main Street. It's also known as the former Country Club. This was also submitted by Souder Miller and Associates as the representative. So this today we've all seen the final plat come in previously. We just have to take out a small portion of Camino del Rex that was dedicated to the City of Las Cruces, but they want to incorporate it into their properties.

Pompeo: It's on page two.

Castillo: Right there.

Pompeo: There you go.

Kinney: For the right-of-way.

Pompeo: It's up on the intersection of Samaritan and North Main Street. There you go.

Kinney: There's Samaritan.

Pompeo: Right there. What to says "see insert A."

Kinney: This insert A.

Pitts: It's the old entrance to the Country Club building.

Castillo: Yes, it's the old entrance into the Country Club building.

Kinney: This is the insert here.

Pitts: Okay. Entertain a motion to consider this.

Kinney: So moved.

Moreno: Second. Mike, can you share?

Kinney: Yes, if I can figure out how to do that.

Pitts: Okay, any, well go the applicant first. I did that wrong first.

Kinney: Hold on Rocio.

Pompeo: But you got to click her down, you got to minimize the two screens. There you go.

Castillo: Can you see it Rocio?

Nasir: Yes, I can see it. Thank you.

Pompeo: There you go.

Kinney: Okay.

Pompeo: Sorry, I used to take two screens all the time. Okay. This is the final plat request for the first phase of Royal Crossing which basically encompasses the right-of-way dedication for Heart Avenue contiguous out to Samaritan, a portion of Samaritan and out to Solano. And then the 12 commercial lots between Heart Avenue, Samaritan, generally along North Solano Drive and Main Street.

Kinney: We on 1B.

Moreno: We're on 1A.

Kinney: We're still on 1A.

Moreno: Yes, this is the first.

Pompeo: Yes, we're on 1A.

Kinney: I'm sorry.

Pompeo: There we go.

Kinney: I thought we …

Pompeo: So I guess the caveat to this approval is the project is still under construction right now. There are ongoing discussions with Public Works or yet to be started discussions with Public Works, on a letter of credit and guarantee of performance for the valuation for that. I had a brief conversation with the Public Works director yesterday about going through that process. So what's going to have to happen now if this gets approved, the next step is going to be to figure out with the contractor, the developer, and the Public Works staff, where the project sits right now in terms of completion, And then to get that assessment figured out for what the valuation is. That has not occurred yet. So that's the next step before we go anywhere down the road about (inaudible). And as part of this plat there is that old remnant piece of right-of-way for Camino del Rex between the subject property and North Main Street, and so by this plat we are asking for the City to vacate that piece of land, and it'll be absorbed into the two lots on the northeast corner of this subdivision.

Pitts: Can I just ask? And it's really I guess a legal question. We don't have a legal representative here. But when you vacate a street like that, the normal course of events is for, you can, each property owner on each side can fence up to the midpoint of that. In this case there is, the owner on the other side is DOT. Can the City in the vacation process do a, yes I guess a quick claim deed on the entire property to this developer, or what happens to that?

Pompeo: It's my understanding that if the vacation is approved then there has to be, the next documents would be the actual transfer of the property, which would be by deed from the City to the.

Pitts: So that becomes just a land management problem not one that we're worried about here. Okay. Fair enough.

Pompeo: And then there needs to be another deed that transfers it into the property to Lot 1 and then Lot 2. So there'd be another set of filings after that.

Pitts: Okay. Any other comments, questions?

Moreno: This is a question. The approval that's on this item today, is that for this vacation only or for the entire plat?

Pompeo: It's for the, my understanding is it's for the vacation and for the final plat.

Moreno: Final plat.

Pompeo: Yes, sir.

Moreno: Okay. I did have some questions. I'd be leery to approve this in its entirety just because of the outstanding questions that we had with drainage and whether or not there was going to be a pond or any changes to this plat. Those are my only concerns. If those are worked out with the Public Works director, then I'd say we can move forward. But I would hate to approve this as a final plat and then there'd still be some necessary changes. I don't know how that would work.

Pompeo: Can I ask? Can we get, because actually after this meeting I have a meeting with the Public Works director, so to go over the drainage report and the requirements. Because, to your point Jimmy, the drainage report was approved for Phases 1, 2 and 4, which encompasses the other property that was cleared to the inside of Heart and Samaritan. You can tell by the subdivision that there's pond icons all over that thing. And I think the issue is on the drainage is that we needed to, each one of those lots needs a pond to balance the storm water out, and that has to be done. So I'm going to meet with the Public Works director after this meeting to go over that. Would it be possible for this committee to do a conditional approval of this pending the positive outcome of that interaction with the Public Works director.

Moreno: So another concern was not only the on-site ponding, which is actually separate, but the additional drainage from the roadways. Looks like it's all going to exit on Samaritan, and based on your plat, there's no room there, room for changes in terms of adding an additional pond on that far west end. Now there is some, the leaving the flat alone or leaving it as is, there is some mitigations that you can do if that is necessary to add a pond but there would be some additional infrastructure, drainage infrastructure, whether it be drop in, things like that to catch all the water that's coming on those roadways. However, I don't, unless the committee feels otherwise, I think a conditional approval, as long as those items are addressed or that the plat, if there's any necessary changes with the plat, that they'd be changed conditionally as well, that those would be changed as part of that conditional approval.

Castillo: So Mr. Chair. So this discussion right now is just purely for the vacation of right-of-way, because as our process goes we have to vacate the right-of-way, and it has to go to City Council for their approval. Yes, the plat still needs to go through its normal subdivision process of either reaching substantial completion or the developer needs to apply for or request a letter of credit with a guarantee of performance. So the plat we can still adjust, if it would make it easier for everybody, we could do a separate vacation plat that everybody would look at. It would just be very generalized that shows Heart Avenue, not the 12 additional lots, and just show the small insert that we're looking at as part of what we're vacating. If that would make it easier for everybody.

Pitts: So John …

Moreno: Makes it less confusing.

Pitts: This is the final plan for 1A, 2 though.

Castillo: Correct. This is the final plat for 1A.

Pitts: And that has not been previously approved.

Castillo: No.

Pitts: What is the difficulty for the applicant to come back should construction drawings need to be modified? What's the difficulty if we approve here of coming back to modify that final plat? Is it just another meeting or is it a …

Castillo: So as the construction of Phase 1A and the final plat are linked together, as we would with any subdivision, whether it's a commercial subdivision or a residential subdivision. We are still held bound by either obtaining substantial completion or full completion or a letter of credit to file the plat before we can release lots for addressing or for sale to build on. So in this case since we haven't had all signatures, but we've had an approval from a review standpoint to get to the mylar phase, which we're at right now, it would just be altering mylars and making sure that we have the appropriate addendums for whatever requirements Public Works is seeking from the drainage standpoint; either show up on the final plat or some type of agreement to let this plat continue forward.

Pompeo: Mr. Chairman. I have a point of clarification. I think that it probably would be appropriate this time. For the drainage report on this subdivision, and I don't know if you all can see this, the roadways are, they're separate basin. Okay. So on this particular one, the roadways free release out to Solano. That is hardened. And a portion of Samaritan, go down Samaritan out to Solano. So but in order to balance between the pre- and post-development, which is what we're trying to do, there's additional ponding requirements on all the lots so they have to hold back more water than they normally would because that's offsetting the water that's going out on Samaritan. So if you look at the analysis point for this drainage network as we exit out to Solano in the developed state, we're discharging less storm water off the site than what we were in the pre-development condition. But that is predicated on the fact that the ponding areas have to be developed. And I think the issue that we saw a couple weeks ago with free release of storm water out onto Solano and the issues that came along with that is, there were no ponding areas that were developed within that site at that time. So those ponds have to be developed now. And if you'll notice there's a pond icon at every one of those lots. So the issue to address Public Works concern about additional runoff, those have to be developed at this time. And that's one of the issues that I need to discuss with the director today is implementing those ponds, getting those ponds built so that that site will not release additional stormwater.

Kinney: I want to go back to. Hold on.

Pompeo: Right. And then so there are the pond volumes that go with each lot.

Pitts: These are post development pond volumes. So that is accounting for impervious surface in those lots.

Pompeo: It's the impervious area inside the lot, and basically half the street in front of your lot.

Pitts: Okay.

Pompeo: So each lot is grabbing their piece of the street. What's not on that table and is not, and has to be determined is there's a pond icon in Phase 1B, of course, that plat is coming up next, but that pond needs to be developed, because that's the lion's share of some of the issues that's causing problems out there, actually two ponds I should say.

Pitts: So, if I could I think I'd recommend we approve as is with the understanding that the issues of the construction drawings are not resolved yet.

Pompeo: They're not resolved.

Pitts: And it's the developer that has to make sure that that works.

Pompeo: It's the developer …

Pitts: Before a signature will be upon it.

Pompeo: Right. It's the developer and their consultants responsibility at this point in time to satisfy to the Public Works director that the drainage issues are resolved on the site. So that's what I, that has to be done.

Moreno: And I would also, to include any changes to the approved plat, as necessary.

Pompeo: Yes. Okay.

Moreno: Whether additional off site ponding, anything else that's necessary in terms of modifications to a plat.

Pompeo: As required.

Moreno: As a condition as required.

Pompeo: Okay, as required. I'm with that.

Pitts: So we're adding a condition that approved subject to whatever.

Moreno: Subject to approval from Public Works to include plat modifications and changes as necessary due to the drainage.

Pompeo: I'm okay. I'm good with that.

Pitts: The general statement that Public Works just can literally decide whatever they want.

Moreno: Yes.

Pitts: But based on the drainage issues identified.

Pompeo: Right. We have to come up. We have to do that. And my goal, Mr. Chairman, is we have this resolved obviously prior to the meeting on the 27th because I do not want to go to Planning and Zoning with a condition. I mean I'm sorry one, B's coming up. I don't want any conditions.

Castillo: So the next step for this one, at least for the right-of-way vacation, the next step would just be City Council.

Pompeo: Okay.

Pitts: Okay. Any other discussion on this item?

Kinney: I have a question.

Pitts: Mike.

Kinney: I was noticing that on the crosshatched area here, I'm not sure what sheet we're on, next to lot 8, 7, 6, etc, that's an existing easement will be vacated. And then there's a note in lot 8 that says "a blanket access easement" for accessing Three Crosses Monument to be created in lot 8. I guess my question would be to Mr. Castillo, is I remember seeing e-mail strings about, I don't know if it was Facilities or Public Works or Parks and Recreation, said that they didn't have enough room to access or maintenance Three Crosses Monument. Does this blanket easement take care of that?

Castillo: Blanket easement should unless we narrow it down to something different, and then it would have to be identified with the size of the easement and more specifically. But the blanket easement should handle it. We would just have to, at the time of development of the lot is when it would be tricky, because that easement would then have to be identified, so that way staff can ensure that.

Kinney: Because right now it just say a blank easement. So what does it mean, the entire lot 8 as an easement?

Pompeo: The intent of the note, I think Sara Gonzales with the City and I had talked about this before which was at this point in time we don't know what the development footprints on that lot look like so we can't really give a route through there. But as the lot develops and as driveways are created and such, then that easement would turn more into a permanent description. I would suggest Mr. Chair that there probably needs to be some additional wording added onto the note about the blanket easement, that at the time of lot development a permanent easement will be, that the blanket easement will be vacated and a permanent described easement be created. So that that way it's around whatever it is they're going to put on that lot.

Moreno: Can you look at the notes Mike? I believe, I thought there was a mention something on the main notes page, the front page or something I thought that mentioned that. Because that was my initial concern with those e-mails as well. And I thought I'd addressed it.

Kinney: Any particular to note?

Moreno: It was one of the key notes. I can't remember what it was, which one it was. But I'm in agreement with Pau..

Kinney: You want me to go back up to the page where.

Moreno: I can't remember. I remember just seeing it. It might be down here, scroll down right here on the general notes.

Pompeo: I think it may have started in there and then it moved back over to lot 8 specific.

Moreno: Okay.

Pitts: Any objection noted just adding that comment?

Pompeo: No. What I'll do is I'll, let me type up the text of it and let me e-mail that to John, and then he can distribute it out. And then if everyone's okay with that, then I'll change this note on the plat. But basically, it's to remove, at the time of lot development that a described easement be created and the blanket easement be vacated.

Pitts: And in the meantime …

Pompeo: In the meantime …

Pitts: Maybe we'll be able to go over that property in any way they want to get to the …

Pompeo: Exactly. It's not limited. If you go to the blanket you can drive all over it if you want. But when it comes time to develop it then we'll put the describe easement on there.

Pitts: So when you, you're going to, as I understand it, you can put a trench and a berm after the curb to stop any water flow.

Pompeo: On the back. The ponds on the …

Pitts: On the backside of the berm. I'm just, I'm thinking of the actual physical activity of getting to the Three Crosses, if they put a …

Pompeo: No, on that lot …

Pitts: Three foot high berm I'm not seeing anybody driving over that.

Pompeo: Lot 8 drains generally to the southern boundary line. So for instance that particular lot, if we look at the, that's lot 8, so that requires, if I remember right, it requires I think 19,000 cubic feet. Yes, 19,400 cubic feet. So all that's going to be along that southern edge of that. So it won't inhabit access.

Pitts: Okay. So whatever you're going to do for drainage is not going to inhibit.

Pompeo: Yes.

Pitts: Parks getting in there and picking up garbage, painting something, fixing a light bulb.

Pompeo: Turning the (inaudible) so the lights come on.

Pitts: Yes. Okay.

Pompeo: Be nice is somebody would just take it. We would like to state to take it. They said no. Even though it's half on their property. But no, it's important that it stay and be maintained. So make sure.

Pitts: Okay. Any other comments? Yes, sir, from the public.

Shervanick: I was wondering if the lot development will be sequential by the numbers that I see on the lots from south to north, or will all the lots be in development concurrently?

Pompeo: At this time they're not intertwined with each other. So they could be developed in any, there's no sequence to it. It can be developed; any lot can be developed at any time. And they would be independent of each other.

Shervanick: Thank you.

Pitts: And just point of information. The road needs to be completed before any of them are developed. That's a fire requirement that there be fire access from two directions, whatever gets developed out there. So that is a requirement that we already have on there. Okay. All right. So I'll entertain a vote. CD.

Kinney: Was there a motion?

Pitts: Motion, you made the motion.

Kinney: I did. Okay.

Pitts: With two conditions that hopefully will be satisfied before we go any further. One is subject to Public Works approval of the drainage plan with any required changes to the plat that that entails. And two, that the change to the terminology on the easement that it's available now, but there will be a final easement depending on the development of lot 8.

Pompeo: Yes, okay, and I'll get that, John I'll get that to you today and then let me know and I'll make the changes.

Pitts: So with those two conditions. CD.

Kinney: Aye.

Pitts: Aye.

Kinney: Was there a second on the motion?

Pitts: Yes. Jimmy.

Kinney: Okay. All right.

Pitts: Okay. PW.

Moreno: Aye.

Pitts: Fire.

Dubbin: Yes.

Pitts: And Utilities.

Nasir: Yes.

Pitts: Thank you. All right. Passes four/zero.

4.2 Case 24CS0500064: Royal Crossing Subdivision, Phase 1B

- A request for approval of a preliminary plat known as Royal Crossing Subdivision, Phase 1B.
- The subdivision encompasses 57.33 + acres, is zoned C-3C (Commercial High Intensity-Conditional) and C-2C/R-4C (Commercial Medium Intensity-Conditional/Multi-Dwelling High Density & Limited Retail and Office), and generally located south of Samaritan Drive, east of Solano Drive and southeast of Main Street.
- The subdivision proposes ten (10) commercial lots and three (3) commercial/multi-family lots.
- Submitted by Souder Miller and Associates, representative.

Pitts: And we move to Item 4.3, case number 24CS0500064, this is Royal Crossing Subdivision Phase 1B. So we will fill out this circle here or oval.

Castillo: So today we have a request for approval of a preliminary plat known as Royal Crossing Subdivision Phase 1B. This subdivision encompasses 57.33 acres. It's currently zoned C-3C which is our commercial high intensity conditional, as well as CRC/R-4C which is our commercial medium intensity conditional, and multi dwelling high density and limited retail and office conditional. It's generally located south of Samaritan Drive, east of Solano Drive, and southeast of Main Street. Once again, this is also still known as the former Country Club. This subdivision proposes 10 commercial lots and three commercial/multifamily lots. This was also submitted by Souder Miller and Associates as the representative.

Pitts: Do I have a motion?

Castillo: I make a motion to approve.

Pitts: Second.

Dubbin: Second.

Pitts: The applicant,

Pompeo: Mr. Chairman. Continuing our discussion on Royal Crossing. This Phase 1B which is generally the area between Heart and Samaritan. Which is by this plat is further subdivided. Was shown on a tract in the Phase 1A. Now it's being subdivided into multiple commercial lots in 1B. It also fills out the lots generally on the south side of Samaritan. With this, as we've talked about drainage, these ponds are not, this portion of the property does not drain generally into what's going to be the regional ponding area, so there are ponding requirements on each one of the lots as discussed previous.

Let's see if there's anything else. This development, except for a proposed internal roadway between Heart and Samaritan, all the other appropriate infrastructure for utilities and right-of-way will be completed. This will complete Samaritan Drive from its terminus by the hospital out to an existing section of Samaritan out by Solano. And I believe all mainline utilities are already going to be in the ground in the Phase 1A construction. So I'd be happy to answer any specific questions that staff has at this time.

Pitts: I have two questions. One is are you stubbing everything out so we don't cut into the curb, into the pavement for about 20 years?

Pompeo: Yes.

Pitts: Thank you. And two, the driveway that is attaching to whatever that road is south of the hospital, it doesn't line up exactly. I'm wondering if there's a reason why it doesn't, I think we would want and I defer to traffic on it, but I think we would want that intersection to be a squared.

Pompeo: I will send that over to, let me send an aerial with the construction drawings for that road to staff. But it is the intent that it be lined up.

Pitts: Okay.

Pompeo: There will be no offset from the City street crossing Samaritan.

Pitts: And the actual construction.

Pompeo: In the actual construction it will be centered. And I'll verify that for staff.

Pitts: Any other?

Moreno: As part of this plat I don't see any regional pounding. So it's similar to Phase 1A in that all the drainage from these roads, intent is to push that out of Samaritan onto Solano.

Pompeo: Well there is going to be a regional ponding area that is going to be within tract C3A, and that pond is …

Kinney: A1 or C3.

Pompeo: I'm sorry, where you got your cursor now Mike.

Moreno: C3A1.

Pompeo: Thank you. Okay, because that regional ponding area is to take all of the runoff that's coming down the existing section of Samaritan plus the discharge from the hospital.

Moreno: Okay.

Pompeo: So that ponding area, and the only reason why it's not shown on this preliminary plat, it's part of this but there's beginning discussions with your department, Jimmy, and the Parks department about working together on the ponding area that's inside of Apodaca Park so we can clean all that up. So that's ongoing and will be part of this project, will be that the determination of that and configuration and location of how those ponds are going to be interconnected.

Moreno: So everything south and west of that tract C3A1 will all drain to Solano.

Pompeo: Yes.

Moreno: Out of Samaritan or Heart.

Pompeo: Well the this one, we want ponding on there, but from, yes this inner area here will still discharge out here. All of, and this will still drain out on the Solano side. The hospital, all this, there's going to be drop inlets constructed, or there's already a pipe under the road right here.

Moreno: Yes.

Pompeo: And that needs to be graded and then this ponding area figured.

Moreno: Okay.

Pompeo: So that is to be determined by this application, that interconnection of that pond. So, I guess to the answer, back to answer your question, Jimmy, some ponding is on site ponding, some is regional ponding.

Moreno: Okay.

Pitts: And the current situation with drainage there is that that, the water that's coming out of where the hospital is now, that includes some runoff out of the country club neighborhood, is now going south into that City pond.

Pompeo: Yes.

Pitts: So until the construction drawings here, that's going to remain so that that won't be discharging onto Solano.

Pompeo: Right.

Pitts: That will be discharging on …
Pompeo: All of that goes …

Pitts: Into our pond.

Pompeo: Right.

Pitts: For now and then as we develop whatever is going to happen out there, it's just going to be basically, your two roads that you're building right now that are draining, that water is what's draining into Solano.

Pompeo: Right. But all the pond, but there's oversized ponding on all the lots that are supposed to, that balances the flow, if we're to build.

Pitts: I get that.

Pompeo: But to really minimize the flow going out to basically West Madrid, which I think is the bigger issue, we're cutting off the flow that's coming out of the subdivision to the east, coupled with all the development of the 33 acres on the primary hospital site, all that's going to go to that regional ponding area and then be discharged at a lower rate. So it's just right now I don't have it shown on these because we're entering into those discussions with the Parks and Public Works, but that's the intent.

Pitts: Yes, because you've got that other discharge point for water coming out of the country club neighborhood that …

Pompeo: Right, out of Desert Way.

Pitts: Basically currently goes …

Kinney: Right, it goes …

Pompeo: It goes …

Pitts: It goes down towards Apodaca Park.

Pompeo: It runs right into the ponding area at Apodaca. And then the problem is …

Kinney: This is the pond, City's pond that …

Pompeo: Right.

Kinney: Mr. Pompeo is talking about.

Pompeo: Right. And we just need that, that whole area, both on ours and in in Apodaca Park needs to be cleaned up. And, you know more of a permanent.

Pitts: One other. And this is just a question more than anything. This area was not properly studied in the last flood study we did for the City. I am, I mean I know it shows the zone x, but who knows. I mean, the study was not, the study didn't actually …

Kinney: The study actually ended at Solano and Main Street.

Pitts: So I guess that would be my question is, how are we going to, you know the City comes in and does a FIS on this area. Yes, what's our?

Pompeo: Well, I think that the ponding area is going to …

Kinney: Is Rocio still there?

Pompeo: Going to pick that up.

Castillo: Yes, she's still there.

Pompeo: I mean, and I would point, Tim, to the final drainage report for the hospital, which picked up that 33 acres of development. And also the very beginning of the master plan and what that ponding area is. It's a pretty good sized ponding area for what was originally approved in that.

Pitts: Okay. Well, I just, as I say it's just a question more than anything, because I'm not quite sure. I mean our code doesn't really speak to what we do in those situations where it's unstudied, but it is something we need to be aware of, especially as we're going east into areas that are also outside of the floods. We do have as you go up Alameda Arroyo, and so there was study, but it was never put into a final FIS. There was modeling. I'll just leave it at that.

Pompeo: Well, yes, and that modeling was limited to just the flow rates, and it wasn't, there wasn't any mapping that was done

Pitts: Right. Okay.

Moreno: My concern for this one is similar to Phase 1A in that there's no regional ponding, and it sounds like you want to oversize on lot ponds to take into account the additional drainage from the roadways. But the same concern has it that, well if we're dumping City water or you know City right-of-way water from the roadways into private property ponds, what our recourse is in maintaining those ponds or that those ponds will mean be maintained in perpetuity. So my concern for Phase 1B is similar to Phase !A in terms of a regional pond to capture all this excess drainage. And I haven't looked at the number specific, I had just looked at the drainage report overall. So that's my concern. I have no reservations about moving the preliminary plat forward with those caveats that there may be some modifications based off of additional studies or additional drainage or looking at the additional, because the construction plans that we have so far for Phase 1A doesn't show, and of course this one's not in construction yet, but doesn't show any drainage infrastructure that gets any of that excess water onto private lots. But my concern is even putting them on private lots, putting that excess water, is that we're putting City right-of-way water onto private ponds. So just that's my concern for the record. And we can move forward and have those discussions throughout the plat process.

Pompeo: And I don't have any issue with the conditional approval with Public Works, with those items being addressed as we get finalized construction and get the final plat.

Pitts: Just on this issue of the, it was my understanding, and I guess maybe correct me if I'm wrong, that we weren't actually putting water directly from City right-of-way into private ponds.

Pompeo: Right.

Pitts: But the ponds were, that really what the private property is doing, what the private ponds are doing is over, they're releasing less water than the historic in order to offset the amount that the roads are going to release. So that the water that's actually coming from the roads is not entering private property anywhere. Is that? Am I wrong or right on that?

Pompeo: No, no. In this particular development is whatever rainfall falls on the public street, it stays in the public right-of-way and it runs out of the subdivision. So it never enters into private property. How we control that runoff is by requiring the adjacent lots to that road to store additional runoff, and that's how the drainage balances so that the post development discharge at the time of full development is less than the predevelopment discharge going up to Solano. But as we've talked about before, and Jimmy is correct, on the current set of construction drawings for Phase 1A those ponding areas are not contained within those drawings.

Kinney: Right.

Pompeo: Those ponds, including the big lot in this that we're talking about subdividing now, those need to be, those drawings need to be turned into the City to show the location and the sizing those ponds. And those ponds need to be put in now so that the storm water balances and there's no additional discharge off the site.

Pitts: Okay. And I think maybe the where we're going to have the problem of City water going into private ponds is in this new regional pond that you're building, and whatever you do with what comes off of Desert, because there will be private ponds and there'll be the City pond. And to me that, I think that, in that location, yes, we will have City water flowing through.

Pompeo: We're going to have commingling of private and public water in that pond, but that was as approved by the City back in 2016 with the hospital's drainage analysis. So we're going to have to figure the nuts and bolts of that final out that wasn't spelled out in the drainage report. It was just the size of the pond, and it would be taking in private water and public water. So we still need to work that out. And we need to work it out with Public Works and Parks because we've got to figure out what to do in that corner over there.

Pitts: You good with all that?

Moreno: Yes. Based on my original concern that's a concern I have. The other pond up to the south is a separate issue, and that can be easily worked out. Yes, my concern is that. And then you know the concentrated flow resulting from gathering all the street flow and emptying it on one point on Solano. So based on those discussions and the calculations, that's where modifications to the plat may come into place, may or may not, at this point we're not there yet.

Pompeo: We'll work it out, and if whatever the changes need to be required after we come to consensus.

Pitts: Yes, I still say we should do something along Solano before it gets released. You know something that small pond there to manage some of the release so that it doesn't just come flying out like it did. I don't know, it rained pretty heavy last night. I don't know how things go. Have you been by there?

Pompeo: There's a four foot berm out there now. I couldn't, nothing came out of the site..

Moreno: Yes, that was a separate issue because those are temporary issues related to the SWIPT. The one we're talking about with the plat is a permanent you know post development. Yes, those many issues with the construction phase in terms of SWIPT. Yes, temporary measures will keep that separate issue there.

Pitts: Are there any other comments, concerns, questions? Mark.

Dubbin: Can we look at the sheet where it borders Apodaca Park?

Pompeo: This one here? Apodaca's right here.

Dubbin: So one of my questions was, how are we, do we have access through the park to the subdivision? I know that was something that was talked about conceptual stages.

Pompeo: There's an access requirement, but it's just trail. It's just walking.

Castillo: Yes, it's only going to be a pedestrian access because of how we've obtained the Apodaca Park, we can't make modifications to it.

Dubbin: Well, I know that it's a congressional set aside, I know literally an act of Congress to change that. But we do have a parking lot that runs through there..

Kinney: What's he even looking at?

Dubbin: I don't think we need to mark …

Pitts: Is this the right sheet? Or we got one more?

Pompeo: Well I probably need to look at the aerial. If you have an aerial of that.

Moreno: Apodaca Park, Mike.

Pompeo: Zoom into Apodaca Park.

Pitts: So currently we have a gate here, right.

Pompeo: Yes. Like right here.

Dubbin: Right. Will that gate remain to allow like at least an emergency access into that area?

Pompeo: Well this is going to be multi-family; I mean high intensity family here. I mean, I don't know why you would have a, just because of the layout we're probably going to have a perimeter road on it. And I don't think there would be any issue with leaving the gate there. But I mean that would be up to Parks and bunch of other people.

Castillo: There was some discussions previously with the Parks and Recreation director about modifying Apodaca Park, but I don't know what the plans are and how long that would take.

Pompeo: I believe we would be willing to discuss that with the City after an internal City discussion about that.

Dubbin: I would agree. I think I'd like to leave that on the table as something that might be a requirement before the final plat, if that's something that we can address with that access through Madrid.

Pompeo: Okay.

Pitts: Is there anything in the plat, John, that would forbid that?

Castillo: So right now this is still a preliminary plat. So we haven't gotten to the final plat construction stages yet. This is purely just to give a more detailed outline of what the master plan has said for this portion.

Pitts: Okay.

Castillo: As we get to construction drawings and final plat process, there will need to be more discussions between the City and developer as to how we make those connections to Apodaca Park and what Parks and Recreation has planned for redevelopment of Apodaca Park.

Pitts: I believe that Apodaca Blueprint called for some type of open space or internal park space in that area too.

Castillo: Correct. The Apodaca Blueprint does call out, as well as the master plan for Royal Crossings, but that would be done towards a later phase, and as we get closer to the end of Phase 1B.

Pitts: Okay. But it'd be wise to include that in any planning at the construction drawing phase it would seem to me, so that you don't for foreclose an option that would be really nice to have.

Pompeo: Correct. Now we're open to those discussions. I mean as we work through the other documents.

Pitts: Okay. Any other questions, comments? Okay, I'll entertain a vote. CD.

Castillo: Yes.

Pitts: PW.

Moreno: Yes.

Pitts: Fire.

Dubbin: Yes.

Pitts: And Utilities.

Nasir: Yes.

Pitts: Okay. Thank you. And that is all our items on the agenda.

5. ADJOURNMENT (10:12 a.m.)

Pitts: So by the Open Meetings Act I must adjourn. I think we need a motion to adjourn I think it's how that we do it.

Dubbin: We do not.

Pitts: Robert rules does not require one. Okay. We adjourn.

PURPOSE(S) OF ACTION:

Approve changes to the Vehicle Acquisition program.

BACKGROUND / KEY ISSUES / CONTRIBUTING FACTORS:

Fleet Services has received requests that require adjustments to the fiscal year 2025 Vehicle Acquisition list that was approved by City Council.

To comply with city requirements for the procurement of rolling stock, City Council approval of the updated Vehicle Acquistion list is required for the purchase of rolling stock requested to be added or adjusted through this Resolution.

Public Works has requested a new dump trailer to be utilized by Streets Management. This equipment is essential for maintaining the current level of service for the City's ponding areas and other drainage infrastructure. Public Works has funding available in the current budget for purchase of the trailer.

Community Development is approved on the fiscal year 2025 Vehicle Acquisition list to purchase a new vehicle in the amount of $36,000. The cost of the requested new vehicle is $41,126, requiring the approved amount on the Vehicle Acquistion list to be updated. Community Development has the funds available in the current budget for purchase of the vehicle.

Information Technology is approved on the fiscal year 2025 Vehicle Acquisition list for a replacement vehicle for asset 32878 a Ford Flex. Asset 32878 was deemed unrepairable after an accident; an insurance payment was received in the amount of $17,658.44 and applied to the Vehicle Acquistion fund's revenue account. Information Technology has the remainder of the funding for the purchase of the replacement vehicle available in their current budget. The Vehicle Acquistion list has been updated to reflect both funding sources. The Vehicle Acquisition budget adjustment is being requested during City Council Meeting May 19th by separate resolution.

BUDGET MESSAGE

PROPOSED BUDGET

FISCAL YEAR 2025-2026

FROM THE CITY MANAGER

March 31, 2025

Dear Honorable Mayor, Mayor Pro Tem, and Council Members:

As your City Manager, I am proud to present a budget that reflects our city's commitment to a balanced, accountable, sustainable, and efficient (BASE) approach to governance. This year's budgeting process incorporates elements of zero-based budgeting alongside other established budget methodologies. By utilizing this new method, we have ensured that every dollar spent is evaluated and aligned with city priorities and strategic and long-term goals. This approach encourages fiscal responsibility while continuing to meet the needs of our community and planning for a prosperous future.

This approach goes beyond balancing numbers—it is about ensuring that our city remains resilient and well-positioned for generations to come. With this budget, we are making strategic investments in critical areas such as infrastructure, public safety, and community services. We are also emphasizing operational efficiency and streamlining processes to enhance service delivery. These efforts will maximize resources, reduce waste, and improve the quality of life for all community members and businesses in Las Cruces.

Aligned with my vision for the City, we will continue to move Adelante con Cariño—forward with care and compassion. Guided by the three I's—Improve, Innovate, and Image—we are committed to improving the essential services our community depends on while innovatively implementing new technologies and strategies to meet emerging challenges and foster smarter, more efficient solutions. Additionally, we are dedicated to enhancing the city's image by positioning Las Cruces as a forward-thinking, inclusive, and vibrant community that attracts investment and fosters pride.

Thanks to community support and a successful election, the City will see an increase in gross receipts tax (GRT), effective at the beginning of fiscal year 2026 (July 1st, 2025). This increase of 0.3250%, equivalent to $0.32 per $100 spent, will provide a projected revenue of approximately $10 million and can be used to fund public safety, parks, streets, and other critical infrastructure.

To ensure well-maintained capital facilities, street projects, and improvements, the City balances debt financing with "pay-as-you-go" methods. We carefully evaluate the need for additional financial programs and develop strategies to repay debts, aiming for a sustainable balance between service demands and debt management. The City utilizes General Obligation Bonds, Revenue Bonds, and loans from the New Mexico Finance Authority as debt instruments.

As City Manager, I remain committed to fostering transparency, collaboration, and accountability in all aspects of our local government. This budget reflects the hard work and dedication of our Mayor, Council, City staff, and community members. Together, we are shaping a city that is financially responsible, innovative, and responsive to the needs of our community. I am proud to serve Las Cruces and look forward to continuing our journey of moving Adelante con Cariño.

Strategic Plan

March 5, 2021

Message from Mayor Miyagishima

Dear Las Cruces Community Member:

The City Council is pleased to present the Las Cruces Strategic Plan for 2021 through 2026. It will serve as the City's policy direction for the allocation of resources and results. The process used to prepare this update to the 2017 - 2022 Strategic Plan included input from residents, business leaders, and other community stakeholders. Input and ideas from Las Cruces community members and city staff were used to identify strategic priorities, key objectives, and success measures. Importantly, the Strategic Plan is based on the vision and goals in the adopted Elevate Las Cruces Comprehensive Plan.

Over the next five years, the Strategic Plan will help Las Cruces' City leaders prioritize and plan our work. We will communicate with you regularly about our progress and outcomes as we work to accomplish the goals included in the plan.

We are excited about the future of our vibrant community and look forward to continuing our commitment to growth and transformation and meeting the needs of Las Cruces residents.

Respectfully,

Ken Miyagishima

Background

Introduction

This strategic planning effort allowed community members and City leaders an opportunity to determine what is important for future success by identifying priorities for improvement, which were aligned with short-term goals and initiatives included in Elevate Las Cruces and new goals confirmed by the City Council. The basis for the Strategic Plan is articulated in the vision, mission, and organizational values. These elements are foundational to the establishment of priorities and goals and guide the work of City staff. The implementation of the goals and priorities should occur thoughtfully and transparently with periodic review by the City Council to ensure progress. The development of this Strategic Plan was facilitated by Management Partners, a firm specializing in assisting local governments in the United States.

Methodology

The Las Cruces strategic planning effort incorporated the work done for Elevate Las Cruces to help prioritize the stages of the plan during the next few years. Management Partners developed and deployed two surveys, one for community members and one for City employees, to solicit input and feedback on key priorities. A series of four focus groups with staff and community members were held to gain greater insight and input about key themes identified from community survey respondents.

Management Partners also conducted interviews with the Mayor, Council members, City Manager, and other members of the leadership team and department directors to understand their perceptions about Las Cruces' strengths and opportunities and to identify key priorities for the future.

The Strategic Plan has six strategic themes that address community prosperity, education and community services, environmental sustainability, capital improvements and infrastructure, public safety, and communication, involvement, and follow-up. Accompanying the strategic themes are desired outcomes, goals, and performance measures. Once the Strategic Plan is finalized, PEAK performance measures will be developed for each department to guide progress in achieving each goal.

Title: A RESOLUTION APPROVING THE DEACCESSION OF TWO PUBLIC ART WORKS.

TYPE OF ACTION: ☒ Administrative ☐ Legislative ☐ Quasi-Judicial

PURPOSE(S) OF ACTION:
Approve the deaccession of a mural and carving.

BACKGROUND / KEY ISSUES / CONTRIBUTING FACTORS:
The City Art Board is tasked with helping the City make decisions for the deaccessioning of public art in the City's collection by reviewing the circumstances surrounding the purposed removal. In this case, the City Art Board is recommending two public art pieces be de-accessioned.

The first is a mural located on the west exterior wall of the Rio Grande Theatre. In 2014, a mural was painted on the Rio Grande Theatre as part of a project led by Irene Oliver Lewis, who was a director at the Court Youth Center. The artist was commissioned and paid for by the Center. The City provided the wall space. Per Lewis, even though the mural was coated with a protective sealant, it was only expected to last 5 years at most due to it being exposed to the elements almost 100% of the time. The mural has faded and the paint is peeling badly.

The second art piece is a carved wooden eagle located on Missouri Avenue, near Solano Dr.. There is no documentation related to the eagle but it may have been placed there as part of the Missouri/Boutz realignment project in 1994. According to a recent condition assessment, the eagle's condition is extremely poor, the core is rotted, the beak is broken off, and it is in danger of falling over at any time. For this reason, the eagle should be removed as soon as possible.

Excerpt from City of Las Cruces Public Art: Safety and Repair Report:

Rio Grande Theatre

Condition: The back wall of the Rio Grande Theatre is cinder block, not adobe. Due to the mural facing directly west, between UV and storm damage, large sections of the mural are peeling away.

Recommendations: Whether the mural is repaired or replaced, all of the peeling paint needs to be removed first to give a solid base for the new paint.

Row Eagle

Missouri and Boutz

Condition: Extremely poor. The core is rotted, the beak is broken off, and it is in danger of failing over at any time.

Recommendations: Remove immediately. Not repairable.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Las Cruces is increasingly becoming recognized as a cultural destination and a great place to live – and the arts are a driving force behind these changes. The arts are playing an important role in bolstering civic pride, helping to grow the creative economy, and supporting overall quality of life. The recent approval by the State of New Mexico of Las Cruces' Arts and Cultural District is only one example of the recognition being afforded to the rich cultural and artistic offerings found in Las Cruces.

In 2013, City Council established the City Art Board to advise City Council on matters related to public art, making clear that public art was a priority for Las Cruces. Recently, the City's first full-time Art Program Coordinator was hired. As interest in public art continued to grow in Las Cruces, the City Art Board and the City of Las Cruces decided they needed a Public Art Master Plan to guide their work.

The City of Las Cruces' Public Art Master Plan was commissioned to provide guidance that will ensure sustainable funding sources for public art, make the most of the City's resources, and ensure that the City's public art activities make an impact on Las Cruces and respond to the community's needs. This plan is meant to be a valuable and often-consulted tool for the City Art Board, City staff, and anyone interested in collaborating with the City on public art. It establishes a vision and provides administrative and programmatic recommendations to guide Las Cruces through the exciting – and at times challenging – work of building and caring for a public art collection that reflects and supports the importance of the arts in Las Cruces.

A community member reviews potential goals for public art in Las Cruces at the National Night Out event in August 2019.

Las Cruces Public Art

First, this plan establishes that Las Cruces Public Art (LCPA) is the City of Las Cruces' public art program and is the mechanism through which all of the City's public art activities take place. The City Art Board works with LCPA to develop a work plan each year, reviews and approves projects, and advises City Council on these matters.

MISSION

Las Cruces Public Art commissions and cares for a collection of contemporary public artworks, promotes the community's access to and engagement with public art, and supports the growth of public art practice in Las Cruces.

VISION

Las Cruces Public Art reinforces the fundamental link between creative expression and quality of life – shining a light on the city's culture, creative community and creative economy; improving the visual identity of public spaces; and creating opportunities for all Las Crucens to engage with art.

GOALS

1: Elevate Las Cruces as the Arts Capital of Southern New Mexico

2: Add Visual Interest and Beauty to the City

3: Activate Public Spaces

4: Improve Visual Identity; and

5: Make Art and Culture a Way of Life

Implementation Guidelines

The plan recommends step-by-step procedures and specific tools for LCPA and the City Art Board to use in accomplishing their work.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Las Cruces Public Art is responsible for building and caring for the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection, an important asset of the City. The City Art Board serves in an advisory capacity to City Council on all matters related to Las Cruces Public Art and makes formal recommendations to the City Council relative to the acquisition of public art, the de-accession of public art, the stewardship of the Las Cruces Public Art Collection, and policies and guidelines that guide these responsibilities. Las Cruces Public Art is professionally staffed by the Art Program Coordinator, who resides in the Quality of Life Department. LCPA works with many City departments, most notably Public Works and Parks and Recreation, to ensure the seamless integration of public art into Las Cruces' built environment.

FUNDING PUBLIC ART

The City of Las Cruces should support Las Cruces Public Art through a combination of funding sources. The City should adopt, by ordinance, a Percent for Art policy to support public art related to new capital projects. Program administration and other projects and programs should be supported through the General Fund. The City should also proactively write grants and solicit funding to support LCPA's goals.

PLANNING FOR PUBLIC ART

Las Cruces Public Art should thoughtfully plan for public art, both through an Annual Public Art Work Plan process and by developing specific plans for each new public art commission being led by LCPA. In addition, LCPA should work closely with Public Works, Parks and Recreation, Community Development, Economic Development, as well as other City departments, to include strategies for public art in other City plans and planning processes.

COMMISSIONING AND PURCHASING PROCESSES

New public art acquired by LPCA will, with rare exceptions, be site-specific commissions where an artist is selected to develop a project for Las Cruces that is informed by the context of the site. In certain cases, the City Art Board may instead determine that it is best to purchase an artwork directly from an artist or from a gallery. The Standard Commissioning Process and the Purchasing Process lay out step by step processes, led by the City Art Board and managed by the Art Program Coordinator.

REVIEW PROCESSES FOR DONATIONS AND LOANS

From time to time, private individuals, foundations, corporations or other organizations may wish to donate or loan a work of art to the City of Las Cruces for public display. While these donations and loans can be a great way to enrich public spaces, it is important to consider carefully whether the donation or loan meets the City's vision for public art and ensure that the related costs and risks of the donation or loan are understood.

REVIEW CRITERIA

The processes for commissioning, purchasing and accepting donations and loans include careful review and consideration by City Art Board, by ad-hoc Art Selection Committees and by City staff, prior to recommendations being made to City Council. LCPA should consistently use criteria for Site and Design Review and Technical Review when deliberating.

PUBLIC ART IN PRIVATE DEVELOPMENT

Many of the anticipated private development projects in Las Cruces will potentially offer opportunities for publicly accessible artwork. In the near term, the City of Las Cruces and LCPA should encourage developers to include art in their development projects. In the future, as the City's development code is updated, the City should consider ways to include public art as a possible benefit in certain circumstances that can be written into development agreements with the City. If a developer is being reimbursed by the City to develop a park, and the developer includes public art, then the artwork should be commissioned through LCPA's Standard Commissioning Process. If the developer is not being reimbursed by the City, but the park will become a City-owned park, the review process for donations of artwork should be followed.

COLLECTION MANAGEMENT

Las Cruces Public Art will work to ensure that the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection is properly maintained and preserved, that a periodic assessment of conservation needs is made, and that proper records regarding the works in the collection are kept. The City Art Board will review and make decisions regarding the de-accession or relocation of works in the Public Art Collection, using a strict set of criteria, subject to final approval of City Council.

Public Art Opportunities

The plan outlines four specific categories of public art opportunities that LCPA should focus its energy and resources on for the next five to ten years to begin to build a collection that achieves its vision.

PARKS AND CITY FACILITIES

The City of Las Cruces has renewed its focus on improving community places and public spaces built by the City for the use of all residents. Public art should be included in construction of City facilities and parks demonstrating the City's commitment to incorporating art into everyday life. This will help to make Las Cruces known as a place where you can encounter art in your daily routine and will elevate parks and facilities from purely functional to engaging places that bring people together. Existing parks and City facilities should also be considered for new public art projects as part of larger community improvement initiatives.

LCPA should continue to work with the Parks and Recreation Department, the Department of Public Works and other departments to explore opportunities for public art in capital projects listed in the Capital Improvement Program. LCPA should work to have artists selected early on in the design development process for capital projects, so artwork can be physically and aesthetically integrated into the facility or park.

LANDMARK PUBLIC ART PROJECTS

Las Cruces has stunning natural landmarks that help orient oneself and an iconic collection of highway-scaled water tank murals, which, along with the Recycled Roadrunner on I-10, provide moments of welcoming and wayfinding. But the interior of the city lacks such landmarks to establish overall unity or orientation. LCPA should focus on public art projects that serve as landmarks and can assist with wayfinding. These projects should be considered for major entry points to specific areas or neighborhoods or at major decision points for drivers. Opportunities exist for highly visible landmark projects at the highway scale and the corridor scale and in the Arts and Cultural District, as well as other neighborhoods.

COMMUNITY ENGAGED COLLABORATIONS

Las Cruces Public Art should build on existing interest and understanding in the community and within City departments that art can be used to help achieve community development goals. LCPA should work with other City departments as well as community organizations as active partners in public art projects that are beneficial to both partners and to the public. LCPA should pursue opportunities to partner with other City departments and external partners on public art projects that provide hands-on public art experiences to the community, harnessing the power of art to engage the public and achieve community development goals.

Opportunities include working with the Parks and Recreation Department on community-created murals; developing studio space within Community and Recreation Centers for resident artists to work with the community on public art projects; working with the Office of Sustainability on low-cost, temporary beautification projects that address neighborhood needs; and collaborating with the Quality of Life Department on public art projects that extend the reach of City Museums' exhibits.

LAS CRUCES STORIES

Las Cruces Stories are special opportunity public art projects that highlight aspects of the unique history and present-day cultures of Las Cruces. Not necessarily tied to City capital projects, Las Cruces Stories projects should be initiated periodically and would, in many cases, be in collaboration with organizations or community groups in Las Cruces. A Las Cruces Stories project could, however, be an appropriate approach for Landmarks or Parks and City Facilities projects.

Opportunities include public art projects that reveal and explore people or groups that are under-represented in the public art collection or in public spaces, such as African Americans or indigenous peoples; public art projects related to aspects of the natural environment that shape the culture of Las Cruces; or public art projects that explore the idea of Las Cruces as a past, present and future crossroads.

Public Art Programs

In addition to its work commissioning public art, LCPA will lead or partner with others to develop and implement a discrete number of programs aimed at supporting local artists in developing public art as part of their practice. Programs will provide training and mentorship opportunities to help local artists grow their own practice in public art and will provide practical tools and resources, such as a mural best practices guide, for use by others interested in commissioning public art.

Communications

Las Cruces Public Art should develop and implement a communications strategy to clearly communicate its vision and purpose to the public. This strategy should be focused on communicating the message that LCPA is the City's public art program, while raising awareness about LCPA's work, public art in the city, and the role of the City Art Board. This will involve developing print, web and social media, including maintaining a public-facing catalog of the collection and identifying all works with plaques; developing programs to engage the public with the collection; having a presence at select community events; and carrying out project-specific communications strategies for each project LCPA undertakes.

Conclusion

This plan charts an exciting future for public art in the City of Las Cruces, creating a path for the City Art Board to thoughtfully plan for and advance the City's investments in public art. Using this plan as a guide, Las Cruces Public Art can build a collection that affirms the fundamental role that the arts play in Las Cruces by improving the quality of life for all residents, shaping the visual identify of public spaces and creating important opportunities for engagement, connectivity and community building.

INTRODUCTION

Why Plan for Public Art? Why Now?

There is no denying that Las Cruces is a special place. With its breathtaking backdrop of the Organ Mountains, its standing as both a center of agriculture and a cultural crossroads, and its growing reputation as an epicenter for industries from film to space travel – Las Cruces is the heart of southern New Mexico.

In recent years, many of the cultural, historic and natural assets that make Las Cruces such a special place to live and visit have received increased recognition and support. From the establishment of the Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks National Monument in 2014 to the state-authorized approval of the Arts and Cultural District in 2018, Las Crucens are working together to support and highlight the importance of arts and culture to the city's identity, economic development, and quality of life.

Public art is no exception. Las Cruces is home to more than 50 public artworks on City property, including the much-loved water tank murals, the iconic Recycled Roadrunner on I-10, artworks in various media in City parks and facilities, and many more murals and sculptures throughout the city. City leaders – both elected officials and tireless volunteers – have recognized the role public art can play in improving quality of life for all residents and supporting economic development and cultural tourism.

In 2013, City Council established the City Art Board to advise City Council on matters related to public art. In 2015, the City Art Board drafted a strategic plan, outlining its goals and focus areas. The first public artwork commissioned with the City Art Board's approval – Pride, a sculpture by Karen Yank outside the East Mesa Public Safety Complex – was installed in 2018. In 2019, the City Art Board selected an artist and a concept for a new work of art that will be installed in City Hall.

As they dove into their work, the City Art Board and the City of Las Cruces found themselves faced with many decisions about funding, commissioning and stewarding public art in Las Cruces. As a result, they decided to commission a public art master plan that would help guide the City's growing public art program. In particular, the City and the City Art Board wanted a plan that would include a mission and a vision for public art in Las Cruces, an assessment of public art opportunities, procedural recommendations around acquisition and maintenance of public art, recommended funding sources, and ways to engage the public. After conducting a national search for a public art master planning consultant in the summer of 2018, the City selected Via Partnership, working with Robert A. González, Ph.D, AIA, to facilitate the development of the plan.

Methodology

Throughout the planning process, the consultants worked closely with the City Art Board, City staff (including the Art Program Coordinator, a newly established position in the Quality of Life Department), a Community Advisory Committee comprised of community stakeholders, and a Steering Committee comprised of City staff from departments that will have a role in the successful implementation of the plan.

Public input was gathered through an online survey, launched in early spring 2019, that was designed to solicit information regarding people's awareness and preferences of existing public art in Las Cruces, to learn more about people's perceptions of the city, and to allow the public to respond to a broad set of possible directions for public art in Las Cruces. City staff, City Art Board members, and the planning team also hosted hands-on activities at National Night Out in August 2019 to gather input for the plan and engage the public in conversations about public art and the master planning process. Early on in the process, the consultants worked with El Paso's public art program to lead a tour of public art in El Paso for the City Art Board, Community Advisory Committee, Steering Committee, and other stakeholders that included meetings with El Paso public art staff and City Councilors.

The planning team reviewed relevant City plans and documents, conducted benchmarking research about public art programs in New Mexico and neighboring states, facilitated one-on-one interviews with key stakeholders and staff, and hosted a roundtable discussion for artists in collaboration with the Branigan Cultural Center, as well.

As part of the planning process, Las Cruces artists participated in a roundtable discussion (left) and the public participated in hands-on activities and shared their thoughts about what public art in Las Cruces should be (center and right).

How to Use this Plan

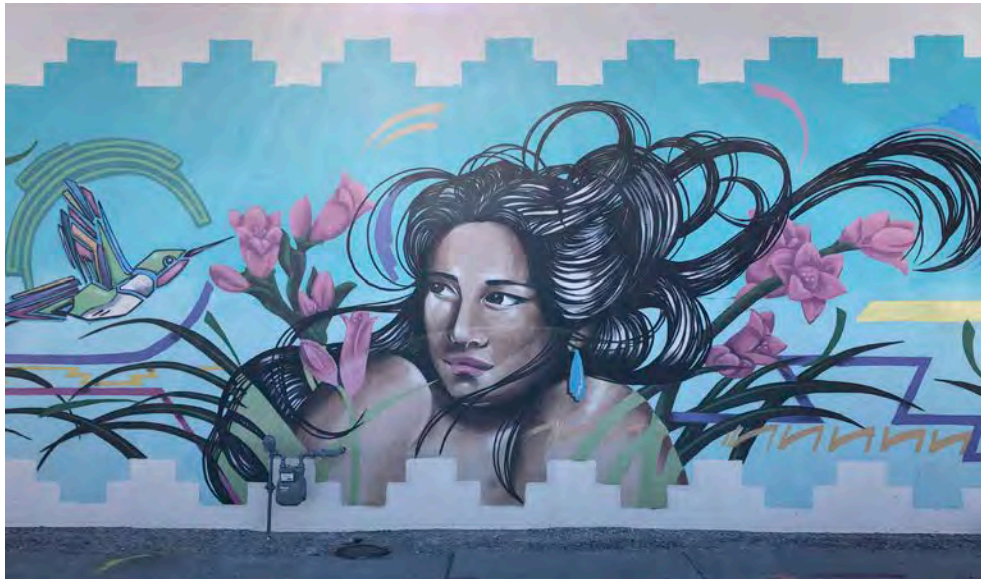

This plan is intended to be a living document that can be consulted by Las Cruces Public Art staff and the City Art Board as they do their day-to-day work of planning for public art and managing individual projects, as well as by City Council and other City staff, including partnering departments and the City Manager's Office, as they as plan and carry out larger City priorities, goals, and initiatives.

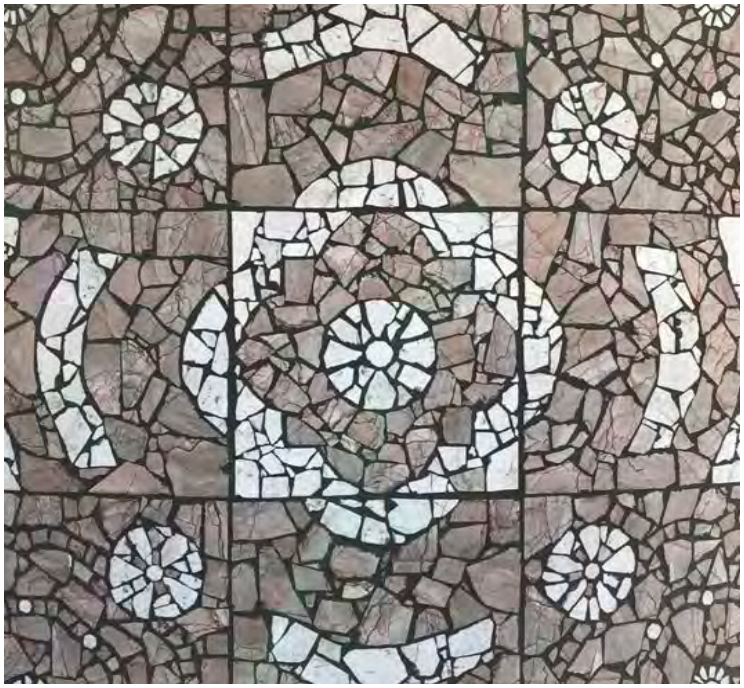

The plan lays out a mission and vision for public art that are meant to ensure the program's work is relevant and responsive to the community's needs and values and then provides specific tools that can be used to guide decision-making throughout the course of planning for, commissioning, acquiring, and caring for public art. At its most fundamental level, the plan establishes that all public art projects commissioned on City property or with City funds should be administered by Las Cruces Public Art, with the review and approval of the City Art Board and City Council.

Roles and responsibilities are outlined, detailing how the many individuals and entities involved in the process should work together, including the City Art Board, City staff members, the City Council, Art Selection Committee members, and other organizations who may be involved in projects, such as the Arts and Cultural District Coordinating Council and New Mexico Arts.

The tools provided in this plan can be used by City staff and the City Art Board on an ongoing basis – from the early stages of identifying and prioritizing project opportunities, to managing artist selection processes and individual projects, to carrying out ongoing care and maintenance of a growing collection. In addition to these resources that can be used to guide City-commissioned projects, the plan also provides criteria and procedures for reviewing and making decisions about donations and loans from outside entities.

Ultimately, this plan aims to give Las Cruces Public Art, the City Art Board, and anyone interested in working with the City to support public art in Las Cruces the tools they need to build a robust public art program that is an asset to the community and reflects and bolsters the city's vibrant and unique culture. Using this plan, Las Cruces Public Art and the City Art Board will make clear the fundamental link between public art, quality of life, and economic development, highlighting and strengthening all that the city has to offer in making public art an expected and valued part of everyday life in Las Cruces.

LAS CRUCES PUBLIC ART:
THE CITY OF LAS CRUCES' PUBLIC ART PROGRAM

Las Cruces Public Art (LCPA) is the City of Las Cruces' public art program. It is professionally staffed, currently by a full-time Art Program Coordinator, a position that resides in the City's Quality of Life (QOL) Department. City Council established the City Art Board by Ordinance in 2013 to advise City Council on all matters related to public art. LCPA and the City Art Board work together to ensure the success of public art in Las Cruces.

Las Cruces Public Art is the mechanism through which all of the City's public art activities take place. If a City department is interested in commissioning public art, they work with LCPA to manage the artist selection and follow the procedures outlined in this plan, including facilitating review and approval of the project by the City Art Board. Similarly, if an individual or non-City entity wishes to place public art on City property or collaborate with the City on a public art project, they work with LCPA to have the project reviewed and approved by the City Art Board.

A Mission and Vision for Public Art

The mission and vision of Las Cruces Public Art are designed to provide focus to the program and guide the work of City staff and the City Art Board. All work undertaken by LCPA should resonate with the program's mission and vision, ensuring that the program is relevant and responsive to the community's values and needs.

MISSION

Las Cruces Public Art commissions and cares for a collection of contemporary public artworks, promotes the community's access to and engagement with public art, and supports the growth of public art practice in Las Cruces.

VISION

Las Cruces Public Art reinforces the fundamental link between creative expression and quality of life – shining a light on the city's culture, creative community and creative economy; improving the visual identity of public spaces; and creating opportunities for all Las Crucens to engage with art.

Goals and Strategies

Every project that Las Cruces Public Art supports should further the program's vision and impact one or more of the Goals for Public Art outlined here. These goals should be used by staff and the City Art Board to help guide decision-making about what projects to prioritize and undertake and will also provide a framework to envision, develop and refine future project ideas. By focusing their efforts on achieving the following goals, LCPA can make the most impact with its resources.

The strategies listed are broad approaches that LCPA can employ to achieve each goal. Specific recommendations throughout the plan support each strategy and represent prioritized, concrete ways to put the strategies into action. As time goes on, LCPA can continue to use these goals and strategies to develop future projects, programs, and activities.

Goal 1

ELEVATE LAS CRUCES AS THE ARTS CAPITAL OF SOUTHERN NEW MEXICO

- Commission public art projects that help people navigate downtown and the Arts and Cultural District.
- Commission public art that brings identity to not yet identifiable corridors and neighborhoods.

- Works with Local Selection Committee to develop project prospectus.
- Distributes calls for artists for NMArts projects and organizes artist submissions.
- Guides Local Selection Committee through artist selection process.
- Processes payments to artists for NMArts projects.

Funding Public Art

Funding for public art should come from a diversity of sources. The City should immediately adopt, by ordinance, a Percent for Art policy to support public art related to new capital projects. LCPA should make a request each year from the General Fund to support other project types and the administration of the program, and the City should proactively write grants and solicit funding to support LCPA's goals.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

Percent for Art

Percent for Art is a common funding mechanism for public art in peer cities across the United States, as well as in communities throughout New Mexico.

The City of Las Cruces should adopt a Percent for Art Ordinance that provides for the funding of public art related to City capital projects. The Las Cruces Percent for Art Ordinance should include the following provisions:

- Two percent of the total of each General Obligation Bond and Municipally Backed Bond is set aside for public art, excluding bonds issued to fund utility Capital Projects and Capital Projects which involve primarily the purchase of equipment, machinery, personal or real property, furnishings, goods, vehicles or other tangibles but do not involve a major capital construction component. It should not apply to bonds issued to support Capital Projects which involve only the purchase of services, preliminary studies, and professional consulting. In addition, two percent of the total of each Park Impact Fee and Public Safety Impact Fee contribution is set aside for public art in Parks and Public Safety buildings.
- Percent for Art should be calculated and included in the Capital Improvement Program in the City Budget during the budget development process.
- Percent for Art funds should be set aside in a separate City of Las Cruces Public Art Fund.
- Funds should be expended to acquire public art in conjunction with the Bond-funded or Impact Fee-funded Capital Project that generated the two percent, so long as the site and opportunity meet the criteria in the Public Art Master Plan. Otherwise, funds should be pooled to acquire public art at another City park, facility or public space that meets the criteria.

General Fund

Las Cruces Public Art should also, through the City's annual budgeting process, request General Fund support for the following items. The amount for the request and how those funds would be used would be outlined in the Annual Public Art Work Plan and Budget.

- Conservation and restoration of works of art in the Civic Collection, the Legacy Collection, the Community Collection, and the Portable Works Collection, including regular examination, documentation, treatment and preventative care of an artwork conducted by a professional art conservator.

- Operation and administration of Las Cruces Public Art, which may include staffing from the Quality of Life Department, funding for events and programs, education, planning, publicity, communications, marketing, public involvement, and related programs.
- Special project funding for public art projects recommended by the City Art Board that support the vision and goals for public art outlined in this plan, including Landmarks, Community Collaborations, and Las Cruces Stories.

Grants

Las Cruces Public Art, working in collaboration with related City departments and partners, can seek grants to help support the activities of LCPA. In addition, when the City seeks grant funds for Capital Improvement Projects of $100,000 or more, the grant application should include an amount for public art equal to 2% of construction costs, when permissible.

Private Fundraising

The City should consider seeking support from individuals, corporations, foundations, and other granting organizations to support the commissioning and purchase of public art, as well as activities necessary to the success of Las Cruces Public Art, such as education, community engagement, maintenance, and conservation.

PUBLIC ART ACCOUNTS

Public Art Fund

The City should maintain its existing Public Art Fund in the Capital Improvement Program (CIP). This account should hold public art project funding from Percent for Art as well as any other resources allocated for capital expenditures. Funds in the Public Art Fund would roll over each fiscal year, but would still need to be expended according to the timeline dictated by the funding source.

The Public Art Fund should be used for:

- Artist fees and artist travel and expenses that are related to the commissioning of a work of art.
- Artwork fabrication, storage, and installation.
- Purchase of existing works of art, when recommended by the City Art Board.
- Required permits and insurance during the fabrication and installation of the artwork.
- Artist selection costs such as artist travel and honoraria.
- Curatorial services.
- Public art planning related to specific public art projects.
- Project consultants and contracted services, if related to the commissioning or purchase of artwork.

Public Art Program Fund

This fund is a separate program in the Quality of Life Department Operating Budget. It includes contributions from the General Fund and other sources of funds dedicated to the operation and administration of the public art program, including funding for:

- Staffing and consultants to support the management of LCPA.
- Events and programs related to engaging with and educating people about LCPA and the Las Cruces Public Art Collection.
- Education, outreach and publicity for a specific public art project, including collateral materials, symposia, and special events.
- Educational programs aimed at assisting local and emerging artists develop the skills and connect to resources to develop public art projects.
- Educational and informational materials related to public art best practices.
- Planning for specific public art projects or programs.
- Publicity, communications, and marketing of LCPA projects and programs.
- Programs aimed at encouraging public involvement in the art selection process.
- Other expenses to support of the operations Las Cruces Public Art.

Public Art Conservation Fund

The City should also maintain a Public Art Conservation Fund within the Quality of Life Department Operating Budget. This fund should hold funding dedicated to the conservation and repair of works of art in the Civic Collection, the Legacy Collection, the Community Collection, and the Portable Works Collection. This fund would include annual contributions from the General Fund and from other sources earmarked for conservation such as contributions from artwork donors, from grants, and from private fundraising. Funds in the Public Art Conservation Fund should roll over each fiscal year.

NEW MEXICO ARTS – ART IN PUBLIC PLACES PROGRAM

Annually the State of New Mexico generally appropriates funding for a number of Capital Projects in Las Cruces. State funds for these Capital Projects are subject to the Art in Public Places (AIPP) Program of New Mexico Arts (NMArts). The AIPP Act has specific eligibility requirements for the withholding of One Percent for Art funds.

The primary provision in the AIPP Act is that "all agencies shall allocate … one percent or $200,000, whichever is less, of the amount of money appropriated for new construction or any major renovation exceeding $100,000 to be expended for the acquisition of … art."

The one percent must be deposited into the State of New Mexico Art in Public Places (AIPP) fund, managed by NMArts, after the issuance of the appropriate bonds or release of general funds. The City of Las Cruces has lost funding for public art in years past because the City did not re-allocate monies to the AIPP fund.

Public art projects funded through this policy are administered by New Mexico Arts.

Planning for Public Art

Las Cruces Public Art should thoughtfully plan for public art, both through an Annual Public Art Work Plan process and by developing specific plans for each new public art commission being led by LCPA. In addition, LCPA should work closely with Public Works, Parks and Recreation, Community Development, Economic Development, as well as other City departments, to include strategies for public art in other City plans and planning processes.

ANNUAL PUBLIC ART WORK PLAN AND EVALUATION

Each year Las Cruces Public Art should articulate an Annual Public Art Work Plan. The Work Plan should provide a detailed description of LCPA priorities and anticipated income and expenditures for the coming fiscal year and projections for the following five fiscal years. The Annual Public Art Work Plan should list projects that are expected to begin in the coming fiscal year, projects that are carrying over from previous fiscal years, and special projects such as coordination with planning and development processes. It should also indicate how projects will be resourced, in terms of funding and staffing. It should indicate any internal and external partnerships necessary for the successful completion of the project.

Concurrent with the Annual Public Art Work Plan, LCPA should develop an Evaluation for the previous fiscal year and current fiscal year to-date. The Evaluation would document the accomplishments in the period, including number of projects accomplished, funds expended, locations of projects, number of artists hired, programs and program attendance, and other relevant data to describe program achievements.

To develop the Annual Public Art Work Plan and Evaluation:

A The Art Program Coordinator will collect information regarding potential public art opportunities, as well as program opportunities and conservation needs, and present this to the City Art Board for discussion.

B The Art Program Coordinator will document the accomplishments from the past fiscal year and the current fiscal year to-date.

C The Art Program Coordinator will then draft a Work Plan and Evaluation for City Art Board review and recommendation.

D Once approved by the City Art Board, the Work Plan and Evaluation is presented to City Council for approval.

The Annual Public Art Work Plan informs LCPA's annual budget request, including Percent for Art funds in the Capital Improvement Program and funds for operations, programs, conservation, and communications in the General Fund. This funding request is incorporated into the City's Annual Budget presented to City Council for approval.

PROJECT PLANS

Las Cruces Public Art should undertake careful planning for each public art project that it implements to ensure that all projects are well conceived. This planning should include identifying the opportunity; finding project partners; understanding potential hurdles with permissions, permitting or construction; establishing realistic budgets and timelines; and communicating with project partners at an early stage about the intent and scope of the project.

For each public art project, LCPA should adopt a Project Plan, which is a foundational document that guides the planning and execution of a project. A Project Plan should set out the basic framework of a project, including:

- A description of the project's location and other information regarding the proposed siting.
- The project's expected lifespan, if temporary.
- The project goals and how the project relates to the overall vision for public art in Las Cruces.
- Evaluation criteria against which the artist selection and Concept Proposal can be evaluated.
- The budget and funding sources.
- The project schedule.
- Internal and external stakeholders.
- The artist's scope of work.
- The artist solicitation method and artist selection method.
- Recommended Art Selection Committee members with alternates.
- A communications and marketing strategy.
- A community engagement strategy.
- Potential partners and needed agreements.

Project Plans should be developed by LCPA staff with input from project partners and the City Art Board. Projects plans are approved by the City Art Board and presented to City Council by the City Art Board chair. The process for developing a Project Plan is outlined in the Standard Commission Process section (see page 36). A sample Project Plan outline is provided as Appendix E.

OTHER CITY PLANS

Other City plans, developed by the Planning Department's Community Development Section or Parks and Recreation Department, or created as part of a complex Capital Project, are important tools for identifying public art opportunities as public spaces are being planned. They can take into account specific community interests and provide a better understanding of future infrastructure and development patterns as they pertain to a specific area, use, or program.

LCPA should be engaged in planning initiatives where there are potential opportunities for public art. LCPA staff should work through the planning and community engagement process in place for the planning effort to identify and include public art recommendations in the plan.

The Standard Public Art Commissioning Process

The following outlines the standard process for Las Cruces Public Art to use when commissioning a work of art, with an emphasis on defining the roles that staff and the City Art Board will play. This process applies to permanent and temporary public art projects that are funded in whole or part with City funds and/or managed by City staff.

New public art projects commissioned by LPCA will, with rare exceptions, be site-specific commissions where an artist is selected to develop a project for Las Cruces that is informed by the context of the site. The Standard Public Art Commissioning Process will serve as a starting point for how to commission artwork, with the exact details outlined in each Project Plan. Variations are provided that can be used for temporary projects and/or projects with smaller budgets, when deemed appropriate by LCPA staff and the City Art Board.

In the Standard Public Art Commissioning Process, interested artists submit a letter, resumé, references and images of previously completed projects to be considered for a project. If selected as a finalist, the artist participates in an interview or is paid to develop a Concept Proposal.

1. DEVELOP A PROJECT PLAN

The first step for commissioning a public art project is to define the general parameters of the opportunity in a Project Plan. The Project Plan includes information about the site, goals, budget, stakeholders, schedule, artist solicitation method, artist selection method, and proposed Art Selection Committee members.

This Project Plan is drafted by the Art Program Coordinator in collaboration with the City Art Board and with input from other City staff and project partners.

A The Art Program Coordinator collects information regarding the specific project opportunity.

B The project is discussed at a City Art Board meeting for input prior to drafting the Project Plan.

C The Art Program Coordinator drafts the Project Plan.

D The City Art Board reviews and approves the Project Plan.

E The City Art Board Chair presents the Project Plan to City Council at a Work Session.

A sample Project Plan outline is included as Appendix E in this document.

2. CONVENE AN ART SELECTION COMMITTEE

For each project, LCPA and the City Art Board should convene an Art Selection Committee specific to the project. Each committee is comprised of five to seven members, including at least one and up to two members of the City Art Board, one member of each applicable board or commission, local artists or arts professionals, one representative from the City department where the art is sited, and one representative that is a user of the site where the art is to be located and/or a representative of a nearby neighborhood or business district. For projects where there is anticipated to be a youth audience, a member of the City's Youth Advisory Board can be included as a voting member of the Art Selection Committee. For public art projects related to capital projects, members of the design team (architects, landscape architects) should be invited to take part in Committee discussions as non-voting members.

The Committee should be convened prior to developing an artist pool for an orientation meeting, during which the Art Program Coordinator should brief them on the project and its goals, the Committee's role, and the process they will follow for artist selection.

3. DEVELOP THE ARTIST POOL

LCPA has different artist solicitation methods from which it can choose, depending on the nature of the project. In most cases, LCPA will issue a Request for Qualifications (RFQ – also referred to as a Call for Artists) to develop an artist pool. The City can issue the RFQ as an Open Call or an Invitational. If LCPA has a current juried Artist Roster, it can be used in lieu of an RFQ. In some cases, the City Art Board may recommend directly selecting an Artist for a project without going through a solicitation. Appendix D outlines these artist solicitation methods in more detail.

A If using an Open Call or an Invitational, the Art Program Coordinator develops, and the City issues, a Request for Qualifications / Call for Artists based on the approved Project Plan. The RFQ should include context, project goals, budget, timeline, artist scope of work and submission instructions, as well as any standard requirements of the City's public purchasing processes.

B Interested artists submit qualifications packages (generally a cover letter, resume, images of past work with descriptions, and references).

C If using an Artist Roster as the solicitation method, the Art Program Coordinator (working in consultation with the capital project manager, if applicable) reviews the artists in the Roster and selects a subset of appropriate artists to be considered by the Art Selection Committee.

4. SELECT FINALISTS BASED ON QUALIFICATIONS

The Artist Selection Committee reviews the artists in the Artist Pool and selects finalists (typically 3 – 5) to be considered for the project. The Art Selection Committee should consider both the general criteria for artist selection outlined elsewhere in this plan, as well as specific criteria outlined in the Project Plan.

5. SELECT THE ARTIST BASED ON INTERVIEW OR CONCEPT PROPOSAL

The next step of the process is narrowing down from finalists to the selected artist. This can be accomplished through an Interview-Based Selection or through a Concept Proposal-Based Selection. In general, LCPA should use an Interview-Based Selection Process, as it allows the selected artist more time to develop a deeper understanding of the site and community and/or work with the project's design team, before developing a proposal. Interview-Based Selections are also appropriate for projects that depend on the artist engaging with the community to develop their work, such as a residency or other community-engaged project. However, there may be instances when staff and/or City Art Board feel that seeing proposals from three or more artists is the best approach for the project. These factors, as well as the project timeline, should be taken into account when selecting which process to use for this phase of the artist selection.

Interview-Based Selection

In an interview-based selection, the Art Selection Committee makes a recommendation based on qualifications, interview and reference checks. Once the selected artist has developed a Concept Proposal, the Art Selection Committee reviews that as well and makes a recommendation for acceptance to the City Art Board. After the City Art Board approves the Concept Proposal it would also be forwarded to applicable boards and commissions for their review and endorsement.

A The Art Program Coordinator checks references for finalists and arranges for artist interviews.

B The Art Selection Committee interviews each artist. The interview generally includes time for the artist to elaborate on their past work and their interest in the project and time for the Committee to ask a set of questions about how the artist would approach this project and the artist's past experience.

C The Art Selection Committee recommends selection of an artist based on qualifications, the interview and reference checks. The recommendation of the Committee goes to the City Art Board for review and approval.

D The selected artist is then placed under a design contract to proceed with developing a Concept Proposal, including a physical representation of the work (a rendering or three-dimensional model), a written project description, a description of materials and fabrication techniques, expectations regarding site preparation and infrastructure needs, and a detailed budget and timeline. The artist may conduct one or more site visits and do extensive research and/or community engagement as part of their Concept Proposal development process.

E The Art Program Coordinator, staff from the City department in charge of the site where the art will be located, and other applicable City staff review a draft of the Concept Proposal to identify any technical concerns and provide feedback to the artist.

F The artist then presents their Concept Proposal to the Art Selection Committee for their review and recommendation.

G The recommendations of the Art Selection Committee and technical review are presented to the City Art Board. The City Art Board reviews and approves the Concept Proposal and forwards their recommendation to City Council for contract approval.

H The Art Program Coordinator shares the recommended Concept Proposal with applicable board(s) or commission(s) for review.

I City Council approves the artist selection for projects with a budget of $20,000 or greater.

Concept Proposal Based Selection

In a Concept Proposal-Based Selection, all of the finalists would be invited to develop a site-specific Concept Proposal for the project. Finalists would be paid a stipend for their participation in the process, which includes developing a Concept Proposal and presenting it to the Art Selection Committee.

A The Art Program Coordinator checks references for finalists and develops and issues a Request for Proposals (RFP) to the finalists that outlines the requirements for their Concept Proposal.

B The finalists may participate in an in-person or virtual tour of the site and/or a briefing prior to development of their proposals.

C Each finalist develops a Concept Proposal, which should include a physical representation of the work (a rendering or three-dimensional model), a written project description, a description of materials and fabrication techniques, expectations regarding site preparation and infrastructure needs, and a detailed budget and timeline.

D The Art Program Coordinator, staff from the City department in charge of the site where the art will be located, and other applicable City staff review the draft Concept Proposals from each finalist to identify any technical concerns and provide feedback to the finalists.

E The finalists present their Concept Proposals to the Art Selection Committee. The Art Selection Committee reviews Concept Proposals based upon criteria outlined in this master plan and in the approved Project Plan and makes a recommendation to the City Art Board.

F The recommendations of the Art Selection Committee and technical review are presented to the City Art Board. The City Art Board reviews and approves the Concept Proposal and forwards their recommendation to City Council.

G The Art Program Coordinator shares the recommended Concept Proposal with applicable board(s) or commission(s) for review and endorsement.

H City Council approves the artist selection and Concept Proposal for projects with a budget of $20,000 or greater.

6. EXECUTE THE ARTIST AGREEMENT

Once the Concept Proposal is approved, the City enters into an agreement with the artist to develop the Final Design, and to fabricate and install the artwork. Depending on the dollar amount of the contract, the agreement would be approved by the City's Purchasing Program or by City Council, following the City's Procurement Code.

Contracts should follow, to the extent possible, the format provided by the Americans for the Arts, a national organization that serves local arts agencies throughout the United States and works with public art programs nationwide to establish best practices in the field. In particular, the City should recognize artists' intellectual property and moral rights as provided for in federal copyright law and in the Visual Artists Rights Act.

7. MONITOR FINAL DESIGN AND FABRICATION

Prior to fabrication, the artist would take the concept through Final Design, further refining the design, fabrication techniques, materials, budget and similar technical details. If necessary, the artist would be required to have elements of their design reviewed and stamped by a licensed engineer in the State of New Mexico. The artist should also submit the Final Design, including any documentation necessary for permitting or other approvals, to City staff for further technical review.

LCPA staff would keep in regular contact with the artist through the fabrication of the work, including inspecting the work (via photographs or in person) prior to installation.

8. OVERSEE INSTALLATION

LCPA staff would work with the artist to ensure that all necessary site permissions and permits are obtained prior to installation and that any site preparation or other infrastructure that is not being provided by the artist is in place (these details should be worked out in the Project Plan, design documents, and artist agreement). LCPA staff would also be involved in coordinating the scheduling of the installation and coordinating with necessary City departments and property owners.

9. PROJECT CLOSE OUT

When the project is installed, LCPA staff should ensure that administrative aspects of the project are finalized. These tasks include:

- Obtain from the artist a maintenance protocol for the artwork, as well as documentation of manufacturers' warranties for specific components (if applicable), materials and fabricators used in the creation of the artwork.
- Obtain from the artist a transfer of title for the artwork to document the transfer of ownership of the artwork from the artist to the City.
- Obtain from the artist any other outstanding documentation of the project, including high-resolution digital photography.
- Complete the installation of on-site interpretive signage.
- Enter the project into the collection database and include the project in any public-facing information developed by LCPA about public art in Las Cruces.
- Celebrate the completion of the project through a dedication or other public event.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT IN THE ARTIST SELECTION AND CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

Interview-Based Selections and Concept Proposal-Based Selections both allow for community engagement in the selection process. Finalists who are being asked to participate in interviews or develop proposals can participate in an orientation to the site prior to being interviewed or developing their proposals; this orientation can include a tour of the neighborhood or site led or joined by key stakeholders. Finalist proposals can also be put on view for public comment, which can be taken into consideration by the Art Selection Committee.

In addition, artists who are selected based on their qualifications and interviews, can engage with the community prior to developing their concept proposal through artist meet and greets, artist talks, or other activities designed to gather information or develop an understanding of the community in ways that may be part of the artist's practice.

VARIATIONS TO THE STANDARD COMMISSIONING PROCESS

There may be times when LCPA and the City Art Board deem it appropriate to alter the Standard Commissioning Process. Generally, these variations would be intended to streamline the solicitation and selection process and could be appropriate when the project has a lower budget, is temporary in nature, and/or needs to be fast-tracked. This would be outlined in the Project Plan and approved by the City Art Board.

Options for altering the solicitation and selection processes include:

- Having the City Art Board serve as the Art Selection Committee rather than convening a separate Art Selection Committee or having LCPA staff recommend an artist for approval by the City Art Board.
- Using an Artist Roster eliminates the need to issue a project-specific RFQ. It saves time for artists and for staff.
- Selecting the artist based upon qualifications eliminates the step of having multiple artists develop Concept Proposals, which can be time intensive for the finalists, staff, the Art Selection Committee and the City Art Board.

Variations would need to comply with City procurement code. Once the artist or concept is selected, the Standard Commissioning Process would be followed.

The Purchase Process

In certain cases, the City Art Board could determine that it is in the best interest of LCPA to purchase an artwork directly from an artist or from a gallery rather than commissioning an artist to create a site-specific work. The reasons for purchasing a work instead of commissioning would be outlined in the Project Plan.

When LCPA wishes to consider purchasing an artwork, it should follow the procedures as outlined in the Standard Commissioning Process, with the following modifications.

1. DEVELOP A PROJECT PLAN

Use the same process as outlined above under Standard Commissioning Process.

2. CONVENE AN ART SELECTION COMMITTEE

Use the same process as outlined above under Standard Commissioning Process.

3. SELECT THE ART

In lieu of the steps in the Standard Commissioning Process to develop the artist pool, select finalists and select artist and artist concept, the Purchase Process moves directly to selecting a work of art.

In this step LCPA invites artists and/or galleries to submit images and descriptions of existing and available artwork. The information should include the artist's basic qualifications (résumé or bio, portfolio), an image or images of the artwork, dimensions, weight, materials, date fabricated, condition, provenance and asking price.

The Art Selection Committee is convened to review submissions of existing work based on the goals and criteria outlined in the Project Plan and makes a recommendation to the City Art Board.

The Art Program Coordinator, staff from the City department in charge of the site where the art will be located, and other applicable City staff, review the recommended selection to identify any technical concerns. Concerns are addressed with the seller. If concerns cannot be addressed, the Art Selection Committee will be asked to re-review submissions and make a new recommendation.

Prior to forwarding a recommendation for purchase to the City Council, the City Art Board may choose to obtain an independent, qualified appraisal of the fair market value of the artwork and a professional art conservator's report on the condition of the artwork.

The City Art Board may approve projects with a budget under $20,000. For projects of $20,000 or greater, the City Art Board forwards their recommendation to City Council for approval.

4. EXECUTE THE AGREEMENT

The City enters into an agreement of sale with the seller. Depending on the dollar amount of the contract, the agreement would be approved by the City's Purchasing Program or by City Council, following the City's Procurement Code. The transaction will include a transfer of title from the seller to the City and an indemnification regarding past and future claims related to the provenance of the artwork.

5. OVERSEE INSTALLATION

Depending on the nature of the agreement with the seller, the City may have to take full or partial responsibility for site preparation, design of foundations, landscape and hardscape, shipping and installation.

6. PROJECT CLOSE OUT

Use the same process as outlined above under Standard Commissioning Process.

Review and Acceptance of Donations of Public Art, Monuments and Memorials

The City Art Board and City staff have an important role to play in the review of donations of permanent public art to the City, including monuments and memorials that are works of art. The Art Program Coordinator should help facilitate the review and approval process, while the City Art Board should play a role in the Site and Aesthetic Review to ensure that public art sited on City property is of high quality and is appropriate to its site.

Donations of public art can be an important way of building the City of Las Cruces' Public Art Collection. The City's procedures for accepting donations should be designed to:

- Ensure that new public art is in keeping with Las Cruces Public Art's vision.
- Ensure the quality of public art accepted into the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection.
- Ensure that works are sited appropriately in terms of media, scale, site usage and aesthetics.
- Anticipate technical concerns and hidden costs such as installation, lighting, insurance, easements, maintenance, conservation and safety.
- Ensure fairness and transparency in the decision-making process.
- Prevent City property from being used by a donor to promote an artist, gallery, business, or other entity or person for future financial gain.

This process only pertains to works of art donated to the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection. It does not apply to the Museum Art Collection, the Library Art Collection, Monuments or Memorials in Veteran's Park, Gifts of State, or monuments or memorials that are not works of art.

ACCEPTANCE CONDITIONS FOR DONATIONS OF ARTWORK

1 Donations of permanent artwork should follow all requirements outlined in the Criteria for Review of Donations and Loans in this plan.

2 All expenses for the donation and review should be the responsibility of the individual or group proposing the gift. No City money should be used for the production, shipping, insuring, siting, appraising, installation, or lighting of the donation. If the donor requests funding and/or project management from the City, the City becomes a co-sponsor of the project and the project should be reviewed as a City-commissioned project, rather than a donation.

3 Funds equal to 10 percent of the commission cost/value of the donated artwork should be paid into the Public Art Conservation Fund at the time of installation. If, in the opinion of City staff, the donation is likely to incur high conservation and maintenance costs, staff can request a larger contribution to the Public Art Conservation Fund. If the City accepts the donation without the Conservation Fund contribution (or with a partial contribution) the City should commit to funding on-going conservation and maintenance of the artwork from the City's General Fund.

4 Gifts of State, defined as items given to the City by a domestic or foreign government official as an expression of goodwill, are not subject to these procedures as they are maintained and managed by the Office of the Mayor.

PROCEDURES FOR REVIEW OF DONATIONS OF PERMANENT ARTWORK

The following steps should be taken for review of donations of public art.

1 The Donor should begin the process by conferring with the Art Program Coordinator about the requirements and process for proposed donations of artworks.

2 The Donor should submit a proposal with information about the artwork that has sufficient detail for Technical Review and Site and Aesthetic Review.

3 LCPA staff, in collaboration with other relevant City department staff, should undertake the proper stakeholder consultation, at their discretion, to ensure the artwork is not widely controversial or offensive.

4 Technical Review should be conducted by LCPA staff, the staff of the City department responsible for the site where the artwork is proposed to be sited, and other relevant bodies that have jurisdiction over the location where the work is proposed to be sited.

5 After Technical Review, proposals should be forwarded to the City Art Board for review and approval in regard to site and aesthetics. For major works or significant sites, the City Art Board may decide to convene an ad hoc panel with art expertise and site stakeholder representation to review the work and make a recommendation back to the City Art Board. Proposals for donations of artwork can be held and reviewed together by the City Art Board once a year or once every six months to allow the City Art Board to be aware of all current proposals when making a decision.

6 If the donation is to be located on property managed by the Parks and Recreation Department, the proposal should then be forwarded to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board for their review and endorsement.

7 The City Art Board, Parks and Recreation Advisory Board (if applicable), and staff reports should be forwarded to the City Council for final approval.

8 The City creates documentation of the transfer of ownership, signed by both the donor and the City.

PROPOSAL FOR DONATIONS OF ARTWORK

The Donor's proposal for the Donation should consist of written and visual information that includes:

- Drawings, renderings, photos and written descriptions of the artwork(s) proposed for donation. This should include size, colors, weight, materials, and any information that will establish that the item has the requisite physical integrity to be placed on public display and withstand exposure to the natural elements.
- Background on the artist, or an explanation of the method of recruiting and selecting artists for a competition.
- A description of the proposed location, method of display and required site improvements (including any necessary hardscaping, landscaping, buildings, utilities, security devices, anchoring or other information necessary to ensure public safety).
- Cost estimates for installing the item(s) for public display, including but not limited to: foundation or other anchoring methods; retrofit of existing buildings or improvements; landscaping, seating, lighting and other site improvements.
- Written explanation of legal issues, including but not limited to: certifying the current legal owner of the artwork(s) and the existence of any copyrights, patents or other title rights in or to the artwork(s); and an explanation of any conditions or limitations on the donation of the artwork(s), such as any interests to remain with the Artist.
- The estimated fair market value or insurance value of each Artwork (including appraisals of the artworks(s) if over $10,000).
- The anticipated date for the donation to occur.
- For existing works, condition report prepared by a conservator. For proposed works to be commissioned, a statement from the artist or conservator regarding anticipated maintenance and conservation needs of the piece.
- Any additional information City staff deem necessary or appropriate.

MONUMENTS AND MEMORIALS

Creating a monument or memorial to a person, group, organization, idea, principle or event on City property is an important decision. The content and placement of permanent monuments and memorials is a reflection of the community's values and will last generations into the future. Currently, the City of Las Cruces does not have guidelines or a process for making decisions as to whether or not a particular monument or memorial – and what it is commemorating – is appropriate for City property and should be accepted by the City. At times, the Art Program Coordinator and the City Art Board have been enlisted to help with review and approval of monuments and memorials proposed for donation to the City, but they should only be called on to review monuments and memorials that take the form of public art and their role should only go so far as to perform a technical and site and aesthetic review using the Criteria for Review of Donations and Loans below. The review of monuments and memorials that are not public art, such as plaques, benches and other items not designed by artists, is not LCPA or the City Art Board's responsibility.

Moreover, this planning process has identified the need for the City of Las Cruces to establish guidelines and procedures for reviewing and accepting monuments and memorials beyond the technical and aesthetic review of commemorative artwork that LCPA and the City Art Board can provide.

For all monuments and memorials, larger decisions should be made regarding whether what the proposed monument or memorial is commemorating is an appropriate use of City property. It is important for Las Cruces to carefully consider the appropriateness of each proposed monument or memorial, as public monuments and memorials reflect the values of the community. Over time, the City may also find that there are many individuals and groups who want to use City parks or other public spaces for monuments and memorials, which may conflict with other uses of the space. The City should determine whose responsibility it is to make these decisions and develop a policy for determining the appropriateness of proposed monuments and memorials on City property and a process for reviewing and acceptance. This policy should also include a process for reviewing and making decisions regarding any concerns about existing monuments and memorials.

The following issues should be addressed when developing a policy and process for review of monuments and memorials:

1. What entity or body will be responsible for carrying out the policy and making decisions?
2. How will the process ensure that new memorials do not duplicate or conflict with existing monuments and memorials?
3. How will the process ensure that new memorials do not conflict with, lessen or prohibit existing and planned uses of public spaces?
4. How will the process ensure fairness and transparency?
5. What will the process be for considering changes to or requests to remove existing monuments and memorials?

In addition, specific criteria should be adopted against which proposals for monuments and memorials can be evaluated. The City of Las Cruces should take into consideration the following generally accepted criteria regarding public monuments and memorials:

1. For ideas, principles or events, proposals for monuments and memorials should not generally be considered until at least twenty years after the occurrence of the event. In the case of individuals, ten years should pass following the death of the individual before he/she may be considered for commemoration. Where a clear city consensus exists for commemoration, proposals may be considered before these periods have passed.
2. For individuals or organizations, the subject of monuments or memorials should have been active in the city or the surrounding area. The subject should have been tangibly and directly associated with events, ideas or beliefs of significance to the city as a whole.
3. A person, group, organization, idea, principle or event to be considered for commemoration in public space should have cultural significance for the city and be of historic or social value. In addition, ideas, principles and concepts should be commemorated only if they are accepted as exemplary and a positive influence on the life of the city's residents.

4 The site and the subject of monuments or memorials should have a historical or a thematic association with each other.

5 Specific disasters, whether natural or man-made, and health-related themes should not normally be the subject of a monument or memorial on public property unless it can be demonstrated that their long-term impact has shaped local history.

6 A monument or memorial should not duplicate the themes or subject matter of an existing monument or memorial site.

7 In no instance should monuments or memorials depict subjects that are trademarked or commercially licensed.

Review and Acceptance of Public Art Loans

Loans of public art on City property can bring new, high-quality artwork to Las Cruces' public spaces. If the City were to be offered art on loan, the following are best practices and guidelines the City should follow. The review process for loans of public art on City property is designed to:

- Ensure the quality of artwork on display on City property.
- Prevent the City from incurring unexpected costs related to the loan.
- Prevent conflicting uses of City property.
- Ensure fairness and transparency in the decision-making process.
- Prevent City property from becoming a place to showcase works of art for sale.
- Meet the vision and goals of Las Cruces Public Art.

This review process is only for when an individual or organization approaches the City to loan a work of art. If the City wishes to proactively seek out existing artwork for temporary exhibition, it should use the process for acquiring artwork. This review process does not pertain to loans of art or exhibitions at any of the City's museums.

ACCEPTANCE CONDITIONS FOR PUBLIC ART LOANS ON CITY PROPERTY

1 Proposals for loans on City property should follow all requirements outlined in the Criteria for Review of Gifts and Loans in this plan.

2 The term of loans should generally be less than five years. Loans of five years or longer will be reviewed following the process for donations of public art (above).

3 Loans should not be listed for sale while they are on public property.

Agenda Item #8.5.

PROCEDURES FOR REVIEW OF TEMPORARY LOANS ON CITY PROPERTY

1 The Lender should begin the process by conferring with LCPA staff about the requirements and process for proposed temporary loans.

2 The Lender should submit information in their proposal with sufficient detail for Technical Review and Site and Aesthetic Review.

3 Technical Review should be conducted by the Art Program Coordinator and the staff of the City department where the work is to be sited.

4 Site and Aesthetic Review should be conducted by the City Art Board.

5 LCPA staff and the Department overseeing the site give final approval.

PROPOSAL FOR PUBLIC ART LOANS

The Lender should submit a proposal for the Loan with written and visual information that includes:

- Drawings, renderings, photos and written descriptions of the artwork(s) proposed for loan. This should include size, colors, weight, materials, and any information that will establish that the item has the requisite physical integrity to be placed on public display and withstand exposure to the natural elements, if applicable.
- Background on the artist.
- A description of the proposed location, method of display and required site improvements.
- Cost estimates for installing the item(s) for public display, including but not limited to: foundation or other anchoring methods; retrofit of existing buildings or improvements; landscaping, seating, lighting and other site improvements.
- The insurance value of each artwork (including appraisals of the artworks(s) if over $10,000).
- The anticipated period for the loan to occur.
- Any additional information City staff deem necessary or appropriate.

Review Criteria

The processes for commissioning and purchasing artwork and accepting donations and loans include careful review and consideration by City Art Board, by ad-hoc Art Selection Committees and by City staff, prior to recommendations being made to City Council. LCPA should consistently use criteria for Technical Review and Site and Aesthetic Review when deliberating.

CRITERIA FOR REVIEW OF CITY-COMMISSIONED PROJECTS

The Standard Commissioning Process (see page 36) details the roles that the City Art Board, Art Selection Committees and City staff play in reviewing artists' qualifications and concepts for City-commissioned projects, including permanent and temporary projects that are funded in whole or in part by City funds and/or managed by City staff. For each project, a Project Plan will outline the specific criteria against which the artist selection and artist concept can be evaluated during the selection and review process. The following criteria should serve as a starting point for developing specific criteria for each project.

Criteria for Evaluating Artist Qualifications

When evaluating artist qualifications for a City-commissioned public artwork, the Art Selection Committee should consider the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed based upon the specific needs of the project.

- Artistic excellence and innovation as demonstrated by the artist's past work.
- The capability of the artist to develop a project that is consistent with LCPA's vision and specific project goals outlined in the Request for Qualifications.
- A demonstrated understanding of and interest in creating work for the specific site.
- Artist's experience with projects of similar scale and budget.
- Established proficiency in the use of materials appropriate for a public installation.

Criteria for Technical Review of Artist Concept Proposals

Prior to review of the concept by the Art Selection Committee, the Art Program Coordinator should work with City staff from the Department responsible for the site and/or the related capital project to conduct a technical review of the concept. Technical reviews should focus on the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed based upon the specific needs of the project.

- Capacity to meet all safety and maintenance requirements as agreed upon by the City of Las Cruces.
- Feasibility of the Concept Proposal to satisfy the budgetary limits set forth by LCPA.
- Ability to meet the project timeline.
- Consideration of all stages of fabrication and installation.
- Consideration of site issues such as permitting, installation staging, and availability of electrical or other utilities.
- Positive track record of delivering quality projects on schedule and on budget, as determined by past work and references from previous clients.

Criteria for Site and Aesthetic Review of Artist Concept Proposals

When evaluating artist Concept Proposals for a City-commissioned public artwork, the Art Selection Committee should consider the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed based upon the specific needs of the project.

- The concept demonstrates artistic excellence, maintaining high quality, innovation, creativity and clarity of vision.
- Overall understanding of the project and the ability of the Concept Proposal to respond to its goals.
- A clear understanding of the site, including how the artwork will be set into the physical environment.

CRITERIA FOR REVIEW OF PURCHASED ARTWORK

The process for purchasing a work of art (see page 42) details the roles that the City Art Board, Art Selection Committees and City staff play in reviewing the purchase of an artwork. For each project, a Project Plan will outline the specific criteria against which the artist selection and artist concept can be evaluated during the selection and review process. The following criteria should serve as a starting point for developing specific criteria for each project.

Site and Aesthetic Criteria for Purchases of Public Art

When using the purchase process to acquire public art, the Art Selection Committee and City Art Board should consider the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed based upon the specific needs of the project.

- The artwork clearly responds to the City's vision for public art.
- The artwork satisfies the project's goals as outlined in the Project Plan.
- The artwork demonstrates excellence in aesthetic quality, workmanship, innovation and creativity.
- The artwork is appropriate in scale and form and is of materials and/or media suitable for the site.

TECHNICAL REVIEW CRITERIA FOR PURCHASES OF PUBLIC ART

Prior to approval by the City Art Board, the Art Program Coordinator should work with the City department that oversees the site where the art is to be located and other Departments or outside agencies that have a role in the site to conduct a Technical Review. Technical reviews should focus on the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed based upon the specific needs of the purchase.

- The artwork can be legally sold to the City by the seller.
- All costs related to the shipping and installation of the artwork are known and can be covered by the project budget.
- The work is durable and poses no safety or liability concerns.
- A report from the artist or a qualified conservator's report indicating anticipated conservation and maintenance needs is provided, and the City is comfortable with the artwork's conservation and maintenance needs.

CRITERIA FOR REVIEW OF DONATIONS AND LOANS

This plan outlines the role that LCPA and the City Art Board play in the review and acceptance of proposed donations of artwork and loans of artwork on City property and the process that should be followed. The following criteria should be used to conduct Technical Review and Site and Aesthetic Review of proposed donations and loans on City property.

Criteria for Technical Review

Prior to review of the donation or loan by the City Art Board, LCPA staff and staff of the City department where the work is to be sited should conduct a Technical Review of the artwork. Technical Reviews should focus on the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed by the City department responsible for the site.

- If the donor or lender is offering an existing work of art, the donor or lender should document that the work of art can be legally loaned or donated to the City.
- The donor or lender should document that they have adequately anticipated and can meet financial costs connected with donating or loaning the work, including, but not limited to, shipping, shipping insurance, site preparation, installation (and de-installation for loans and temporary works), proper signage, insurance, site restoration, landscaping, and lighting.
- The work should be durable and poses no safety or liability concerns.

- A report from the artist or a qualified conservator's report indicating anticipated conservation and maintenance needs should be provided for permanent donations. For loans, the donor should commit to routine maintenance of the artwork for the duration of the display, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the City.
- The proposed site should be available and appropriate for the installation of artwork. Necessary electric, plumbing or other utility requirements should be defined and available. Internal Department plans may determine if a specific site is appropriate for artwork.
- The City is able to insure the artwork for liability and damages for the duration of its exhibition.

Criteria for Site and Aesthetic Review

Site and Aesthetic Review should be conducted by the City Art Board or by an ad hoc panel appointed by the City Art Board that includes specific artistic expertise and/or stakeholder representation. Site and Aesthetic Review should take into consideration the following criteria. Additional criteria could be developed by the City department responsible for the site.

- The proposed donation or loan is consistent with the vision of Las Cruces Public Art.
- The proposed donation or loan demonstrates artistic excellence, maintaining high quality, innovation, creativity and clarity of vision. If the work is to be commissioned by the donor or lender, the review should consider the artist's ability and potential to execute the proposed work, based on previous artistic achievement and experience. If an existing work of art, the review should consider the quality of the executed work.
- For permanent donations, the proposed donation should contribute to the diversity of the Las Cruces Public Art Collection.
- For permanent donations, artworks should be one-of-a-kind or part of an original series.

The proposed site should be appropriate to the artwork's content, scale and media. The analysis should take into account the visibility and access to the site, public use patterns of the site, and public realm and future development plans for the site, if any.

Public Art in Private Development

Many of the anticipated private development projects in Las Cruces will potentially offer opportunities for publicly accessible artwork. In the near term, the City of Las Cruces and LCPA should encourage developers to include art in their development projects. In the future, as the City's development code is updated, the City should consider ways to include public art as a possible benefit in certain circumstances that can be written into development agreements with the City. In addition, any public art that is being commissioned or acquired for a park that will be given to the City should be reviewed and approved by the City Art Board, then the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and then presented to City Council.

ENCOURAGING PUBLIC ART IN PRIVATE DEVELOPMENT

The City of Las Cruces can be proactive in encouraging private developers to voluntarily commission or purchase public art as part of new development projects.

Options for Supporting Public Art

Developers wanting to voluntarily support public art have different options.

1 Pay into the Public Art Fund. Funds would be spent to commission public art projects in keeping with the vision and opportunities outlined in the Public Art Master Plan.

2 Directly Commission or Acquire Art On-site. The developer would take the lead in commissioning or acquiring art for their development.

3 Outsource Commissioning of Art to Las Cruces Public Art. LCPA would select an artist and manage the project using the City's implementation guidelines, with the developer funding the project and involved both as a stakeholder and having final approval over artist selection and all phases of design.

Expectations

LCPA's priority is for the public art commissioned or acquired by developers to reflect the vision and opportunities outlined in this plan. The financial commitment to public art by developers should take into account both the scale of the development and the type of development that is occurring.

Recognition

The City of Las Cruces should pursue opportunities to recognize private developments that install public art on private property. Recognition opportunities could include a plaque/medallion placed near the artwork to recognize their contribution to public art in Las Cruces and/or promotion of the art and the business's contribution in City publications and social media.

PUBLIC ART AS A PUBLIC BENEFIT

In the future, as the City reviews and updates its development code, consideration should be given to allowing developers to incorporate public art into their development projects as a formal public benefit. This will give the City more leverage to work with developers to incorporate artwork that helps fulfill the City's overall vision and goals for public art.

Should public art be a public benefit outlined in a development agreement with the City, then LCPA and the City Art Board should have a direct role in working with the Community Development department in creating guidelines and review processes that ensure compliance with the developer's agreement with the City. These guidelines should be developed to ensure that:

- The proposed project supports the City's vision and goals for public art.
- The artist is qualified to undertake the project.
- The Concept Design is vetted against agreed-upon criteria between the developer and the City.
- The artwork as proposed conforms to the development agreement.

PUBLIC ART IN DEVELOPER-BUILT NEIGHBORHOOD PARKS

It has been a recent practice in the City of Las Cruces for private developers of residential subdivisions to design and build neighborhood-scaled parks and then transfer ownership of these parks to the City. The developer receives reimbursement from the City for their costs.

If a developer is being reimbursed by the City to develop a park, and the developer includes public art, then the artwork should be commissioned through LCPA's Standard Commissioning Process (see page 36). The developer would serve on the Art Selection Committee as a stakeholder.

If the developer is not being reimbursed by the City, but the park will become a City-owned park, then the public art project should be reiewed by LCPA as a gift of artwork and follow the procedures outlined in this document for the review of donations (see page 44).

Collection Management

LCPA should adopt practices for the documentation, conservation, maintenance, and de-accessioning or re-siting of artworks in the Las Cruces Public Art Collection. LCPA will ensure that artwork in its care is properly maintained and preserved, that a periodic assessment of conservation needs is made, that proper records regarding the works in the collections are kept, and that decisions regarding de-accession, removal or re-siting of artworks are carefully considered.

THE CITY OF LAS CRUCES PUBLIC ART COLLECTION

Las Cruces Public Art is responsible for all works of art in the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection, which consists of four sub-collections, acquired in various ways. The City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection does not include works of art in the Museum Art Collection, Library Art Collection, monuments and memorials in Veterans Park, Gifts of State, or monuments and memorials that are not works of art. The sub-collections within the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection are defined as follows:

- Civic Collection
  Public art on City property or in City facilities that was approved by the City Art Board. This includes permanent and temporary works commissioned by Las Cruces Public Art, as well as gifts of artwork reviewed and accepted by the City Art Board.
- Community Collection
  Works of public art created through the Mural Arts Program or other community-based projects commissioned by Las Cruces Public Art. These works are temporary in nature, with a lifespan agreed upon at the outset of the project.
- Legacy Collection
  Permanent works of public art owned by the City that pre-date the City Art Board and permanent works of art that were commissioned or donated without City Art Board approval.
- Portable Works Collection
  Smaller scale, non-site-specific artwork, generally displayed in City facilities.

CONSERVATION AND MAINTENANCE OF THE LAS CRUCES PUBLIC ART COLLECTION

Public art is a community asset that should be properly maintained. The City should undertake conservation and routine maintenance to preserve the Las Cruces Public Art Collection in the best possible condition.

Information on each work of art commissioned, acquired, donated, loaned or owned outright by the City should be kept on file with the City on a standardized maintenance and conservation worksheet. Works of art on loan should be maintained and conserved in accordance with the requirements of, and in collaboration with, the lender.

Conservation

Conservation is the regularly scheduled examination, documentation, treatment and preventative care of public art conducted by a professional art conservator.

Las Cruces Public Art will regularly conduct, or hire a professional conservator to conduct, a survey of the condition of each work in the Las Cruces Public Art Collection and make recommendations for conservation, cost estimates, and a recommended schedule for implementation.

In addition, the City will take steps to identify conservation needs prior to the fabrication and installation of new works. The City will require, when necessary, that artists consult with a conservator during the design development phase of the project to identify the conservation needs of the project. Alternately, the City could have design documents reviewed by a conservator hired by the City prior to executing the fabrication and installation portion of a contract. For commissioned works, the artist should provide the City with a worksheet that identifies the conservation and maintenance needs of the work, including the frequency, methods and materials recommended.

For newly commissioned or purchased works of art, artists should guarantee the work of art against any repairs for at least one year (unless otherwise stipulated in the contract).

LCPA has the right to determine, after consultation with a professional conservator, when and if repairs and restorations to works of art in the Las Cruces Public Art Collection shall be made. To the extent practical, the artist who created the artwork, during the artist's lifetime, should be given the opportunity to make or personally supervise significant repairs and restorations and should be paid a reasonable fee for any such services, provided that the City of Las Cruces and the artist agree upon the artist's fee. If the artist fails to approve any reasonable repairs or restorations, or if an agreement cannot be reached regarding a reasonable artist's fee, then the City of Las Cruces will have the right to make or contract for such repairs or restorations. In the event that the City makes repairs or restorations not reviewed and approved by the artist, the artist should have the right to disclaim authorship of the Work and have the artist's name and association with the work removed.

All repairs and restorations should be made in accordance with recognized principles of conservation.

Routine Maintenance

Routine maintenance is the care of public art that does not require specialized expertise (i.e.: dusting, washing, lubrication of moving parts). If indicated by the artist as part of the maintenance and conservation worksheet, routine maintenance can generally be managed by the department that maintains the facility and/or site where the art is located. The City department should not conduct any non-routine maintenance (as indicated on the maintenance and conservation worksheet) or conservation unless requested by Las Cruces Public Art. The department responsible for maintaining the facility where the art is located should notify the Art Program Coordinator immediately if an artwork is damaged or stolen, or if the City department plans to move the artwork or in any way alter its site. Any work that is recommended for relocation or de-installation would be subject to the de-accession policy.

Works of art should be maintained in a manner outlined in the above-mentioned maintenance and conservation worksheet, appropriate to the medium and characteristics of the artwork, and in accordance with the Visual Artists Rights Act of 1990.

THE PORTABLE COLLECTION

The City of Las Cruces owns several works of art that comprise the Portable Collection – smaller, non-site-specific works that are generally meant for indoor display and are sited in City buildings.

Most of the works in the Portable Collection are the result of donations of artwork to the City. Any gift of artwork to the City that would become a part of the Portable Collection should be reviewed using the process and criteria for the review of gifts of artwork described above.

DOCUMENTATION OF THE COLLECTION

An important part of collection management and, ultimately, long-term maintenance of public art is keeping accurate, updated records. The main aspects of this are identifying the project on site, keeping accurate records for each project, and maintaining a comprehensive inventory of the collection.

LCPA, working with the assistance of the City departments that manage the sites where art is located, will be responsible for keeping records of the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection, including updating, or in some cases, developing records for existing work, and documenting new works entering the collection.

Project Identification

Each new artwork should be identified with a plaque provided by LCPA stating the artist's name, the artwork title, the media, the date the work was created, and that it is part of a Las Cruces Public Art Collection. The plaque should be placed in an appropriate location near the artwork that can be easily viewed by pedestrians.

Over time, plaques should be created or updated for existing works in all collections to ensure that the works are recognized as belonging to the City and that people can learn about the work and about LCPA.

Project Records

A file should be maintained in a single location for each commission or acquisition that contains information such as:

- A copy of the artist contracts, donation records, or purchase records.
- A copy of project correspondence.
- The maintenance instructions provided by the artist or donor and subsequent conservation records.
- Plans and drawings generated by the artist during the commissioning process.
- Hard copy images.
- Media clippings.

Collection Inventory

LCPA should maintain a full inventory or database of all artworks in its collections, including works that have been de-accessioned. This inventory should include information such as (when available or applicable):

- Name of artist
- Title of work
- Location (kept in a format compatible with the City's GIS system, plus more detail for Portable Works)
- Year completed/installed; year de-installed for temporary works
- Which collection it belongs to
- Owner of work, if a long-term loan
- Donor, if applicable
- Media
- Dimensions
- Budget/cost and source of funds
- A brief description of the work suitable for publication
- Maintenance and conservation needs, as defined by the artist and conservation assessments
- Schedule of maintenance or conservation needs
- Conservation history
- A unique number assigned to each work of art that can be used for cross-referencing with hard files and other digital files
- Digital photograph of the work

DE-ACCESSION, RE-SITING, AND REMOVAL FROM DISPLAY

While the majority of the artworks in the Las Cruces Public Art Collection are intended for long term public display, circumstances and/or conditions may arise that make it prudent for Las Cruces Public Art, on behalf of the public interest, to remove an artwork in its collection from display, re-site an artwork, or de-accession an artwork.

De-accessioning is a procedure to formally and permanently remove an artwork from the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection by selling, donating or destroying it. De-accessioning is an important decision and should only be undertaken after a thorough review process. Similarly, re-siting of artwork should be carefully considered if the work is considered site-specific and relocating the work would damage the work or alter the work from what the artist intended. Removal from display is an option if, for any reason, the City does not want to de-accession the work from the collection but would like to remove it from display, and there are resources to properly store the artwork.

Consideration of de-accession, re-siting, or removal from display should involve the same degree of careful review as a decision to commission a work of art. The City of Las Cruces should institute a review process to ensure that de-accessioning or re-siting will be a seldom-employed action that operates from a strong presumption against removing artwork from the public art collection and insulates the collection from fluctuations in aesthetic taste or popularity.

The City should not remove any site-specific artwork from the site for which it was selected, nor remove it from display, without prior review by the City Art Board. Recommendations regarding re-siting of site-specific works or de-accessioning or removal from display of artworks should be made by the City Art Board directly to City Council. De-accessioning Portable Works requires only the approval of the City Art Board and any other relevant boards and commissions. Portable Works may be re-located as part of a routine rotation by LCPA without the review of the City Art Board.

Procedure

1 The City Art Board reviews the circumstances surrounding the proposed de-accession, re-siting, or removal from display to determine if the artwork meets one or more of the criteria listed below. The City Art Board may choose to hold a public meeting for the purpose of gathering community feedback on a proposed de-accession or relocation or may choose to gather community input through other methods.

Criteria for De-accessioning, Re-siting or Removal

- The site is being eliminated.
- The use, character, or design of the site has been or is being altered such that the artwork is no longer compatible with the site.
- The security of the artwork can no longer be reasonably guaranteed at its current site.

- The artwork has become a danger to public safety.
- Maintaining or repairing the artwork or updating the artwork's operation technology is cost prohibitive or unfeasible.
- Significant adverse reaction to the artwork from the community has continued for an extended period of time (at least two years).
- The work is of inferior quality or is judged to have little aesthetic and/or cultural value.
- A suitable location for the artwork has been identified that better satisfies the original goals of the project.
- The artist requests removal due to concerns listed above.

2 If the City Art Board determines that the artwork meets one or more of the Criteria above LCPA staff should, in accordance with the 1990 Visual Artists Rights Act, make a good faith effort to notify the artist that his or her work is being considered for de-accession or relocation (if a site-specific work).

If the artist does not agree to proposed re-siting, s/he will have the right to prevent the use of her/his name as the author of the artwork or to buy back the work as addressed in the artist contract.

3 If a site-specific artwork is recommended for re-siting, LCPA should prepare a written report detailing the reason for the decision and the proposed new site for the artwork for approval by the City Art Board and City Council. This report should also include the costs associated with re-siting and the proposed funding source, as well as any other pertinent information.

4 If an artwork is recommended to be de-accessioned, LCPA staff should:

- Commission a written appraisal by a qualified, disinterested third party for each proposed de-accessioned artwork with an estimated value exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00).
- Prepare a written report of the reasons for the proposed de-accessioning and a recommendation for the method of disposal.
- Submit the report, and the recommendation of the City Art Board to City Council, which must approve any de-accessioning.
- If an artwork is de-accessioned, all rights will revert to the artist, where consistent with contractual agreements. If the artist waives those rights, LCPA will dispose of the artwork.

5 During the review process, unless there is imminent danger to the public, the artwork shall remain accessible to the public in its original location. If the structural integrity or condition of an artwork, in the opinion of the LCPA staff and the City Art Board, presents an eminent threat to public safety, the Quality of Life Director may authorize its immediate removal, without City Council action or the artist's consent. The director will place the work in temporary storage. The artist and City Council must be notified of this action within 30 days. The City Art Board will then recommend options for disposition (e.g. repair, reinstallation, maintenance provisions or de-accessioning) for approval, as necessary, by City Council.

6 In the event that the artwork cannot be removed without being irreparably damaged or destroyed, and if artist rights are not waived in the contractual agreement, the LCPA staff must make a good faith effort to gain such written permission before proceeding. In the event that this cannot be accomplished before action is required in order to protect the public health and safety, the Quality of Life Director will proceed according to the advice of the City's Legal Department.

7 De-accession, re-siting or removal of artwork shall be done in a manner that complies with all other applicable City, state and federal procedures, policies and regulations. For example, de-accession, relocation and removal actions must comply with applicable procedures and laws relating to the disposition of City property and with laws protecting artists' rights, such as the Visual Artists Rights Act. Artworks will not be de-accessioned directly or indirectly or in any manner that would personally benefit City employees, members of the City Art Board or of the City Council. No works will be given to or sold to City of Las Cruces staff, City Art Board members, or City Council.

Agenda Item #8.5.

8 De-accession, relocation or removal of works commissioned or purchased through New Mexico Arts Art in Public Places Program must comply with NMArts' De-Accession Policy.

9 Funds from artworks sold as a result of de-accession must be placed into the Public Art Fund.

Monuments and Memorials

The reasons for de-accessioning, re-siting or removing monuments or memorials may differ from those outlined above. Decisions regarding whether to de-accession, re-site or remove a monuments or memorials should follow the procedures above, if the monument or memorial is a work of art in the City of Las Cruces Public Art Collection, but should also take into consideration additional criteria developed by the City regarding the review of monuments and memorials.

PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITIES

For the next five to ten years, Las Cruces Public Art should focus its energy on pursuing four specific categories of public art opportunities identified here. These categories include public art connected to the construction of parks and City facilities, a special category of Landmark public art projects, a focus on partnering with other City departments and external partners on projects that engage the community, and projects designed to tell important stories about the people and places that make Las Cruces unique. Focusing on these project types will help develop an expectation for public art in a variety of public places and will help establish the program's role and relationships with its City and community partners, as well as its reputation in the broader community. The resulting artworks will build a collection that reinforces the fundamental link between creative expression and quality of life by highlighting the city's culture and creative economy and community, improving the visual identity of public spaces, and creating opportunities for all residents to engage with art.

Project Categories:

- Parks and City Facilities
- Landmarks
- Community Engaged Collaborations
- Las Cruces Stories

The projects identified below in each of these categories represent the best opportunities for public art that could be anticipated at the time of the writing of this plan, as well as guidance on identifying and evaluating other opportunities as they arise. The viability of these specific opportunities may change over time, and new opportunities will arise. Each year Las Cruces Public Art will produce, and the City Art Board will approve, an Annual Public Art Work Plan that will identify specific opportunities for the coming year. The Work Plan will be informed and guided by this Public Art Master Plan, as well as updated Capital Improvement Programs and other City plans.

Parks and City Facilities

There has been a renewed focus in the City of Las Cruces on improving community places and public spaces built and maintained by the City for the benefit of all its residents.

In 2018, the voters in Las Cruces passed an ambitious General Obligation Bond program to fund needed capital projects, including parks and recreation facilities, public facilities including a new Fire Station and Animal Service Center, and other infrastructure improvements such as roads, sidewalks, trails, and drainage facilities. The Bond funding adds additional resources towards the City's concerted effort to provide quality public spaces.

These types of City-built community places – parks and City facilities – are places where people come to play, socialize, engage in civic activities, and do business. As places that are frequented by residents and often located either in downtown or in the center of neighborhoods, these parks and facilities provide excellent locations for public art.

In the future, when a major capital project is underway, the City should incorporate public art projects that enhance places that are at the center of community life. Existing parks and City facilities should also be considered for new public art projects as part of larger community improvement initiatives.

Public art at parks and City facilities will achieve the following goals for Las Cruces Public Art:

GOAL 1
Elevate Las Cruces as the Arts Capital of Southern New Mexico

- The City demonstrates its commitment to art and artists with each new park and facility it builds.
- Las Cruces becomes known as a place where you can encounter art in everyday places.

GOAL 2
Add Visual Interest and Beauty

- Public art can elevate the appearance and experience of frequently used City facilities and parks for users, as well as passersby.

GOAL 3
Activate Public Spaces

- Public art can elevate a City facility or park from a purely functional place to an engaging place that helps bring people together.

GOAL 4
Improve Visual Identity

- Works of public art become well-known icons, denoting and creating a unique identity for parks and facilities.

GOAL 5
Make Art and Culture a Way of Life

- Integrating public art into City facilities and parks creates opportunities for people to experience art in their everyday lives.
- Incorporating art as part of City facilities and parks can communicate Las Cruces' identity as a place that values the arts, quality design, and the contributions of artists, increasing civic pride for residents.

Parks

Parks, trails, and open spaces are an important part of the character of Las Cruces and provide both recreational and social spaces for residents to enjoy. Access to these amenities contribute to the high quality of life boasted by Las Crucens.

The City's parks system has already been a primary location for public art. Of the approximately fifty works of art currently owned by the City, more than a third are in City parks. When asked about preferred locations for future public art, respondents to the survey conducted as part of the public art master planning process also showed a strong preference for public art in parks – fifty percent of survey respondents listed parks as one of their top choices, the second highest response after neighborhood gathering places (see Appendix C).

The newly adopted Parks and Recreation Master Plan calls for building new parks to keep up with population growth and ensure equitable distribution of park amenities, including a new Community Park and inclusion of Civic Parks in new developments. These new park developments may provide an excellent opportunity to integrate permanent public art into the overall park design. Although City parks host much of the current public art collection, there are still many existing parks that do not currently have artwork for the public to enjoy, which could be sites for new projects.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITIES IN PARKS

Las Cruces Public Art should consider the following when determining whether to pursue a public art project in a City park.

- Priority should be given to parks where there is a major capital improvement, such as new construction or major renovation that is taking place and would enable the public art to be integrated into the overall construction project.
- Priority should be given to Regional Parks and Community Parks that serve a broad swath of the community.
- Priority should be given to Civic Parks, including Greens, Squares, Plazas, and Parkways, that provide important community focal points.
- Priority should be given to trailheads in parks and/or where a park includes a significant stretch of the citywide multi-use path and trail system.
- Priority should be given to parks where public art has been identified by the community as a goal in a park or community planning process.

Additional opportunities for temporary and community-engaged public art projects in parks are discussed in the section on Community Engaged Collaborations.

SPECIFIC OPPORTUNITIES FOR ART IN PARKS

Near Term

Public art is one of the key components of the Klein Park Master Plan, developed in 2015. The Parks and Recreation Department will be implementing some of the recommendations in this master plan in the 2019 fiscal year. Las Cruces Public Art is beginning work with the Parks and Recreation Department and the Arts and Cultural District to commission artwork for the park.

Intermediate Term

Las Cruces Public Art should track upcoming Capital Improvement Program (CIP) projects and upcoming development projects that may result in City-funded and -owned park projects that meet the above criteria. The Art Program Coordinator should discuss potential opportunities related to the CIP with the Parks and Recreation Department and, if applicable, the Public Works Department. If there is a clear path to developing a public art project, these opportunities should be incorporated into the Annual Public Art Work Plan. For potential opportunities related to City-owned parks built by private developers and reimbursed by the City, the Art Program Coordinator should meet with both Parks and Recreation Department staff and Community Development Department staff to determine the best way to proceed with the developer.

FUNDING PUBLIC ART IN PARKS

When there will be new construction or major renovation of a Park funded by a General Obligation Bond, a Municipally Backed Bond, or Park Impact Fees, public art should be funded through Percent for Art (see page 31).

Presently, there are some cases where private developers are designing and building parks and being reimbursed by the City. These parks are eventually donated to the City and become City Parks. Developers should be encouraged to commission public art if the park they are developing meets one or more of the above criteria.

Public art in existing City parks should be funded through the General Fund or through grants and fundraising.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS FOR PUBLIC ART AT PARKS

For public art projects funded by the City, use the Standard Commissioning Process (see page 36).

When the public art is part of a larger capital project, Las Cruces Public Art staff should meet with Capital Project managers early in the project development process to discuss the project goals, audiences, timeline, and potential public art opportunities. When possible, an artist should be selected early in the design development process so that the artwork can be physically and aesthetically integrated into the facility or park. In most cases this will mean having an artist selected and a concept design approved prior to the completion of construction documents.

For public art projects commissioned by developers that are designing and building a park and being reimbursed by the City, Las Cruces Public Art should manage the entire project, including artist selection, using the Standard Commissioning Process. If the developer is designing and building the park without being reimbursed by the City, the artwork should be reviewed following the process for review and acceptance of donations of artwork.

City Facilities

The City of Las Cruces works diligently to repair, replace and construct facilities that provide vital services to the community. City facilities, such as fire stations, recreation and community centers, senior centers, and other City-owned buildings, are located throughout Las Cruces, often in prominent locations, and are frequented by people from throughout the community. As such, they are a prime location for public art and will be a key way LCPA achieves many of its goals.

Las Cruces Public Art has commissioned one work for a City facility, Pride by Karen Yank at the East Mesa Public Safety Complex. In 2019 Las Cruces Public Art selected an artist and a concept for a site-specific artwork for the central pillar of the main lobby of City Hall. This project will be installed in 2020.

Artwork at City facilities can include integrated artworks that are seamlessly incorporated into the design of the building, functional elements where artists are commissioned to create an element of the design that would ordinarily be built to standard specifications or ordered from a catalogue, freestanding artwork such as sculpture, and murals that could take on a variety of media and styles.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITIES IN CITY FACILITIES

Though many of Las Cruces' City facilities are good candidates for public art, not all will be. The following criteria should be used to prioritize which facilities should be considered for public art projects.

- Priority should be given to City facilities where there is a major capital improvement, such as new construction or major renovation that is taking place and would enable the public art to be integrated into the overall construction project.
- Priority should be given to City facilities that are purpose-built for community use.
- City facilities that are not purpose-built for community use, but are in a prominent, highly visible, gateway location with a high volume of car or pedestrian traffic should be considered for public art projects.

SPECIFIC OPPORTUNITIES FOR ART IN CITY FACILITIES

Near Term

The 2018 General Obligation Bonds approved by the voters did not include Percent for Art funding. However, the City has committed to commissioning public art at the Animal Service Center and Fire Station 3, and LCPA is working with the Department of Public Works to incorporate art into these facilities.

Intermediate Term

Projects in the current CIP (FY 2020 – 26) that meet the above criteria and that may be eligible for Percent for Art funding based upon the recommendations in this plan include: Airport Terminal Renovation, Aquatic Center, Branigan Library Expansion, a new Branigan Library Branch, Cinematic Infrastructure and Soundstage, Convention Center Expansion (Phase 2), Downtown Parking Garage, East Mesa Recreation Complex, Meerscheidt Recreation Center Remodel, Municipal Service Center, the Municipal Court and future Public Safety Facilities including new Fire Stations and a Fire Department Administration Building. Las Cruces Public Art should work with the City departments responsible for these projects to explore opportunities for public art in these projects.

In the future, Las Cruces Public Art should participate in the CIP process to be aware of projects that may be good candidates for public art and to incorporate art into the planning stages of eligible City facilities.

New Mexico Arts Related Opportunities

In addition, the following projects' budgets include funds from the state of New Mexico and as such are eligible for funding and inclusion of public art through New Mexico Arts' Art in Public Places (AIPP) program: Amador Hotel, Behavioral Health Facility, Branigan Cultural Center (Phase 2), Children's Museum, Dental Clinic Community of Hope, Downtown Parking Garage, Mesilla Valley Community Campus, and Las Cruces International Airport. LCPA should work with NMArts and relevant City Departments to include public art in these projects following NMArts' procedures.

FUNDING PUBLIC ART AT CITY FACILITIES

Public art at Civic Facilities should be funded through Percent for Art (see page 31) and New Mexico Arts' Art in Public Places Program for State of New Mexico funded capital projects.

Based on the criteria above, the City Art Board may determine that the facility is not a good candidate for public art. If this is the case, Percent for Arts funds should be pooled to be used at another location, as allowable by the funding source.

Capital expenditures made by the State of New Mexico are eligible for inclusion of public art through the State's Art in Public Places Program.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS FOR PUBLIC ART AT CITY FACILITIES

For public art projects funded by the City, use the Standard Commissioning Process (see page 36).

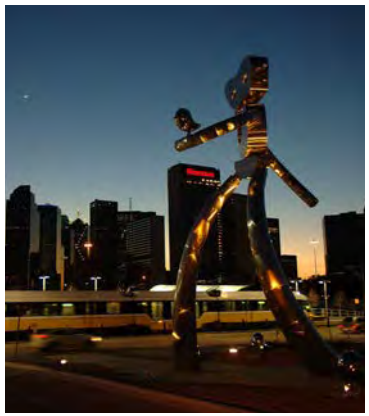

Las Cruces Public Art staff should meet with Capital Project managers early in the project development process to discuss the project goals, audiences, timeline, and potential public art opportunities. When possible, an artist should be selected early in the design development process so that the artwork can be physically and aesthetically integrated into the facility. In most cases this will mean having an artist selected and a concept design approved prior to the completion of construction documents.

For public art projects at state-funded facilities, artist selection will be managed by the State of New Mexico Art in Public Places Program.

Landmark Public Art Projects

Las Cruces is a city reached by three bordering highways (I-10, I-25 and U.S. Route 70), with the downtown and newly designated Las Cruces Arts and Cultural District situated between the north-south Rio Grande River (to the west) and the historic El Camino Real de Tierra Adentro (to the east).

Las Cruces has magnificent natural landmarks. The Organ Mountains, Doña Ana Mountains, Picacho Peak, the Robledo Mountains and the Rio Grande shape the identity of the region. The community survey conducted as part of the public art master planning process found that a majority of respondents feel that the Organ Mountains and the area's environmental and natural features – the sky, sunsets, desert climate, and more – are the first thing that come to mind when thinking about Las Cruces. These natural features also provide a way for people orient themselves as they navigate the city.

In addition to these natural features, highway entry to Las Cruces presents the city's two most recognized public art pieces: a collection of highway-scaled water tank murals along Hwy 70 and I-25 and the Recycled Roadrunner along I-10/Hwy 70. But as one enters the city's interior, it is the mountains that serve as the best way to orient oneself. The main corridors traverse the city without obvious destinations to guide, without landmarks along the way to establish hierarchy, or way-finding systems to present overall unity and district marking. When one eventually finds the city's core – the history-filled Arts and Cultural District (ACD), with its Main Street and the central Plaza de Las Cruces – there is little sense of re-connection with any major artery.

Taking a cue from the highway-scaled public artworks, public art projects can serve as landmarks that assist with wayfinding and are deployed to welcome people to Las Cruces and guide locals and visitors alike through the city's distinct districts and neighborhoods.

Landmark Public Art Projects will help achieve the following goals for Las Cruces Public Art:

GOAL 1
Elevate Las Cruces as the Arts Capital of Southern New Mexico

- Landmark projects can become icons and destinations in themselves, and in some cases can help drive visitorship to local arts and culture destinations such as the ACD and the city's museums.
- Landmarks can welcome people to Las Cruces and let them know that they are in a place that values art and culture.
- Landmarks can reflect an aspect of Las Cruces' landscape, history and/or culture, creating a stronger sense of place and cultural identity.

GOAL 2
Add Visual Interest and Beauty

- Landmark public artworks can make roadways and corridors more aesthetically pleasing.

GOAL 4
Improve Visual Identity

- Landmarks can help define corridors, neighborhoods, and district entrances and help visitors and locals navigate throughout the city.
- Landmarks can create a stronger and more visually interesting sense of arrival to Las Cruces or to areas within the city.
- Landmarks can address the experience of moving through the city in a vehicle, on bike, or on foot, both day and night.
- Landmarks can help build distinct identities for Las Cruces' many neighborhoods.

GOAL 5
Make Art and Culture a Way of Life

- Highly visible landmark artworks create opportunities for people to experience art in their everyday lives.
- Landmark artworks communicate Las Cruces' identity as a place that values the arts and quality design.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING LANDMARK PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITIES

Criteria for evaluating whether a site should be considered for a Landmark Public Art Project should include:

- The site marks a major entry point to the city, the arrival at a specific area or neighborhood, and/or a major decision point.
- The site is highly visible with a large audience and with a significant view corridor likely to be seen by many people.
- The site is part of a larger improvement project, allowing the artwork to be fully integrated into the overall design of the site.
- The site lends itself well to the incorporation of artwork, both visually and technically.
- The site would not be better served with traditional wayfinding or signage, but instead warrants a creative or artistic solution.
- If the site requires partners, such as the New Mexico Department of Transportation (NMDOT), they are willing to collaborate.
- There are sufficient funds to create a work that would be appropriate for the site.

SPECIFIC OPPORTUNITIES FOR LANDMARK PUBLIC ART PROJECTS

The following categories emerged through review of various City plans, visual analysis of the city and through the community engagement process conducted during this planning process. These sites are not inclusive of all opportunities, but may be locations that warrant further study by Las Cruces Public Art in collaboration with other City departments and stakeholders.

Ken Williams, Gateway to the Southwest (rendering), Pueblo, CO, Image: City of Pueblo, CO

Highway Scale

Highway scale art should be seen from a distance from a fast approaching vehicle. In some cases, as with Recycled Roadrunner, it could warrant a stopping point for closer inspection, although it is not necessary.

Near Term

I-25 and University Avenue Roundabouts. NMDOT is reconstructing the I-25 at University Avenue Bridge and exits. Construction is slated to begin in 2020. The project includes creating a new underpass for Triviz under University Avenue and two roundabouts on Triviz, one on each side of University Avenue. These round-abouts present opportunities for large-scale public artworks that serve as landmarks. New Mexico State University (NMSU) is already planning to commission an artwork for the roundabout south of University Avenue. Las Cruces Public Art should commission a work for the north roundabout. LCPA and NMSU should work collaboratively so that the works of art are complementary.

Intermediate Term

I-10 and I-25 Split. This is a major gateway to Las Cruces for drivers entering from the south along I-10, as well as a major decision point for people whose destination is Las Cruces or for drivers who are just passing through. The City owns property at this location and has long considered it as a potential location for a city entry monument. This could prove to be a very important landmark for the city.

I-10 and Avenida de Mesilla. This major intersection marks the arrival to Las Cruces driving east on I-10. Avenida de Mesilla, which leads to the historic town of Mesilla, is one of Las Cruces' historic corridors and this intersection could be a candidate for public art.

I-25 and Lohman. The Lohman exits are the most traversed entrances into the city's interior and could be good candidates for art near the exits or once a driver reaches Lohman.

I-25 at I-70. This is another important gateway for drivers and could be a potential location for a landmark artwork.

I-70 and the Eastern City Limits. Drivers entering Las Cruces on I-70 from the east get a dramatic view of Las Cruces as they descend into the valley. This could be a potential location for a scenic overlook. An artwork similar in spirit to the Recycled Roadrunner at the western entrance to the city on I-10 could be a good approach.

Corridor Scale

Corridor scale art is seen by both fast approaching vehicles and pedestrians. It is meant to be seen from far away and up close.

Intermediate Term

Lohman/Amador (East and West). Lohman Avenue changes from a two-way street to a one-way street at S. Doña Ana Street. Amador Avenue changes from a two-way street to a one-way street at S. Miranda Street. The places where the streets change from two-way to one-way create triangular areas. These areas are owned by the City and already boast attractive landscaping maintained by the Parks and Recreation Department. These locations mark the entrance to the Arts and Cultural District and could potentially be future locations for public art.

Solano Avenue. Solano is a major North-South corridor in the city. North of Lohman, parks facing Solano, including Apodaca Park, the Aquatic Center and the Hadley Recreation Complex, could be sites for public art facing Solano visible from the street. South of Lohman, opportunities exist to work with property owners to create a critical mass of murals or other projects, such as artist-designed street banners that make a corridor-wide impact.

Main Street at Solano Avenue. Another important site is the intersection of Main Street and Solano, where passers-by can currently see the three crosses that represent the historic crosses for which the city may have been named. This site is in the Apodoca Blueprint planning area and will potentially be redeveloped, raising the question of what kind of public art is appropriate in the places where the crosses sit.

University Avenue at El Paseo. This intersection marks a western gateway into NMSU and the entrance to the Las Cruces Convention Center.

Roadway Bridges. Areas where major corridors cross arroyos, canals, and the Rio Grande are potential locations for a series of related works of art that mark or draw attention to the intersecting natural and man-made water network, experienced daily.

Arts and Cultural District

Near Term

Roundabout. The roundabout at the northern end of downtown, where Main Street, Church Street and Water Street intersect, is an ideal location for a signature artwork that becomes a symbol for Las Cruces and its Arts and Cultural District.

Intermediate Term

Main Street between Lohman and Bowman. This zone along Main Street could also be a location for an artist-designed gateway to downtown, perhaps spanning over the roadway.

Main Street north of Picacho. This stretch is a major entry to the Arts and Cultural District and could be enhanced with banners, murals or other artistic enhancements.

Main Street south of Lohman. This stretch is also a major entry to the Arts and Cultural District. In addition to banners or murals, medians could be a location for artistic enhancement.

Amador/Lohman Corridor. This corridor, from roughly Solano to Melendres, should let people know that they are entering the Arts and Cultural District. This could be accomplished through encouraging public art and murals on private property, through public art projects in key City-owned areas (see Amador/Lohman split above), or through serial works, such as artist-design banners, that signal that you are entering the Arts and Cultural District.

Picacho/Spruce Corridor. Similarly, the Picacho/Spruce corridor is an important east-west corridor into the downtown area and could be a focus area for public art or serial works.

FUNDING LANDMARK PUBLIC ART PROJECTS

Landmark Public Art Projects would be funded through the General Fund as special appropriations in the City's annual budget. The City could also write grants to fund specific projects in this category.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS FOR LANDMARK PUBLIC ART PROJECTS

Candidates for Landmark Public Art Projects will emerge through City planning as well as in the development of Capital Projects that impact major roadways and gateways. Some sites may also require a partnership with the State of New Mexico Department of Transportation. Las Cruces Public Art should monitor the development of City plans and Capital Projects and bring forward potential opportunities to the City Art Board through the Annual Public Art Work Plan process.

Due to the potential complexity of Landmark Public Art Projects, the process of developing the Project Plan (see page 36) should include an in-depth study of the site and a detailed description of the art opportunity and the artist's scope of work.

In most cases, the artist selection for Landmark Public Art Projects should utilize an open call or an invitational process (described in Appendix D). An invitational process would ensure that the pool of artists being reviewed includes artists that have the capability to design, fabricate and install a work of art of substantial scale in a potentially complicated area.

Community Engaged Collaborations

Many of the City's existing public art projects have grown out of work being done by the Parks and Recreation Department, though programs such as the Mural Arts Program and Keep Las Cruces Beautiful, with the dual goals of beautifying public space and engaging Las Crucens in actively learning and participating in artistic activities. Other City departments, such as the Sustainability Office in the Department of Economic Development, have worked with community-based nonprofit organizations to explore the power of public art to both enhance public space and bring people together. In addition, some community-based nonprofits are proactively engaging with the City to help realize ideas for public art projects that are being generated by artists and the community.

Las Cruces Public Art should build on this interest and understanding that art can be used to help achieve community development goals. LCPA should work with other City departments as well as community organizations as active partners in public art projects that are beneficial to both partners and to the public. Employing the partners' community relationships and outreach expertise, these projects should be specifically designed to engage Las Cruces youth or members of the general public in the development and execution of a public art project. For its part, Las Cruces Public Art can bring to the table valuable expertise in scoping out public art projects and selecting artists, as well as funds to supplement artist fees, ensuring that artists are qualified and that the resulting artwork is a valuable addition to the City's collection.

Community Engaged Collaborations will help achieve the following goals for Las Cruces Public Art:

GOAL 1
Elevate Las Cruces as the Arts Capital of Southern New Mexico

- These projects can be ideal for local artists who can engage deeply with the community over an extended period of time to develop the project and/or create the artwork.
- Collaborations with the City's museums can support visitorship to these institutions and help promote Las Cruces' cultural offerings.

GOAL 2
Add Visual Interest and Beauty

- Through interdepartmental collaborations, public art can beautify existing elements of the built environment, including parks, streetscapes, and other neighborhood infrastructure.

GOAL 3
Activate Public Spaces

- Artists who engage the community in the project development process can help the community take ownership of public spaces and help build a sense of pride in Las Cruces' neighborhoods and public spaces.

GOAL 5
Make Art and Culture a Way of Life

- Through these projects, community members can engage directly with artists and artmaking.
- Participating in these projects can build Las Crucens' appreciation for public art through hands-on experiences.
- Interdepartmental and community collaborations can help ensure that public art is present in all of Las Cruces's neighborhoods and that all residents have a chance to see art in their everyday lives.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING COMMUNITY ENGAGED COLLABORATION PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITIES

When reviewing potential opportunities to develop a Community Engaged Collaboration in partnership with another City department or organization, Las Cruces Public Art should consider the following:

- There is a willing partner that is able to dedicate staff time and financial resources to supporting the project.
- Las Cruces Public Art has adequate funding for the selection process and artist fee, and the partner has resources for the creation of the artwork and related community engagement.
- The partner is already engaged in doing work in the neighborhood/community and has strong relationships there or has a plan and the resources to develop the necessary relationships.
- Las Cruces Public Art and the partner share a clear vision for the public art project and its goals and outcomes and there is buy-in from all levels of the partnering Department or Organization.
- The project is on City property.
- The project aligns with Las Cruces Public Art's vision and goals.

Over time, Las Cruces Public Art can strengthen its relationships with partners and discover new ways of working together.

SPECIFIC OPPORTUNITIES FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGED COLLABORATIONS

The following represent potential opportunities that surfaced during the planning process. LCPA should track these projects, as well as continue conversations with potential partners to uncover new ideas.

Near Term

Tunnel Mural. The Parks and Recreation Department is interested in working with the community to install a mural in the (Alameda Arroyo) Multi-use Trail Tunnel under I-25. LCPA should work with Parks and Recreation to develop a draft Project Plan that also outlines the division of responsibilities for the project.

Mural Arts Program. LCPA should work with Parks and Recreation to grow and strengthen this existing program for youth.

Intermediate Term

Community Art Residencies. LCPA should work with Parks and Recreation to explore the idea of creating studio space in a Recreation or Community Center for an artist to work with community groups and individuals on public art projects.

Community Schools. LCPA should explore opportunities to partner with the Parks and Recreation Department to support public art in schools and/or engage students in public art projects through its Community Schools program and After School Program.

Tactical Urbanism. LCPA should continue conversations with the City's Office of Sustainability to explore how to support communities interested in low-cost, temporary beautification projects.

Museum Exhibitions. LCPA should continue conversations with Quality of Life Department staff about potential public art projects related to museum exhibitions that can extend the reach beyond the Museum's walls and promote visiting the Museum.

FUNDING FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGED COLLABORATIONS

Las Cruces Public Art should make an annual request for General Fund support for Community Engaged Collaborations. LCPA's contribution to most projects would be staff time, funding an artist selection process, and paying artist fees. The partner(s) would fund materials and supplies and other expenses related to project execution.

Community members work with artist David Best to build The Temple of Time. Photo: City of Coral Springs, FL

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGED COLLABORATIONS

When it is time to begin the project development process, the Art Program Coordinator should develop a Project Plan in collaboration with the partner. The Project Plan would be approved by the City Art Board as well as the appropriate staff and/or oversight body of the partner. The City Art Board would then present the Project Plan to City Council.

In most cases, Las Cruces Public Art would take the lead on managing artist selection and concept design approval. The process would be managed by the Art Program Coordinator and the review and approval process would come through the City Art Board.

If a large number of these projects are anticipated to be murals, Las Cruces Public Art may want to consider developing a juried Mural Artist Roster. Art selection committees would utilize this roster to select artists. For other projects, an open or invitational call may be appropriate.

Other elements of project management, including community engagement and project implementation would be managed by the partner. Artwork created through Community Engaged Collaborations would become part of the Community Collection. Some of these pieces, because of the nature of the materials or the nature of the site, should be temporary in nature. At the time of commissioning an expected lifespan should be established and a plan for de-installation should be included in the Project Plan. These projects would be maintained and conserved by LCPA.

Las Cruces Stories

Las Cruces Stories are special opportunity public art projects that illuminate aspects of the unique history and present-day cultures of Las Cruces. Not necessarily tied to City capital projects, Las Cruces Stories projects would be initiated periodically and would, in many cases, be in collaboration with organizations or community groups in Las Cruces. A Las Cruces Stories project could, however, be an appropriate approach for Landmarks or Parks and City Facilities projects. What makes a public art project a Las Cruces Stories project is the intentional focus on creating a public art project that expresses or explores a specific facet of Las Cruces' past, present and future.

Las Cruces Stories projects can help achieve the following goals for Las Cruces Public Art:

GOAL 1
Elevate Las Cruces as the Arts Capital of Southern New Mexico

- Las Cruces Stories projects can highlight aspects of what make Las Cruces unique, helping to create a sense of place and pride in community.
- These projects can create platforms for sharing Las Cruces' rich cultures with both locals and visitors, reinforcing Las Cruces' identity as a cultural destination.
- The City's museums can be ideal collaborators for Las Cruces Stories projects, and the projects can, in turn, promote visitorship to those destinations.

GOAL 3
Activate Public Spaces

- Las Cruces Stories projects can be interactive and engaging, asking the viewer to participate in some way.

GOAL 5
Make Art and Culture a Way of Life

- These projects can bring the community together in sharing, reflecting, remembering the past or envisioning the future.
- Through their focus on local stories, these projects can be distributed throughout neighborhoods across Las Cruces.

CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING LAS CRUCES STORIES PUBLIC ART OPPORTUNITIES

Ideas for Las Cruces Stories will typically come out of conversations with other City departments and other community partners. The City Art Board should use the following criteria to evaluate whether an idea is a good fit for a Las Cruces Stories public art project:

- The idea brings to light a story about Las Cruces that is not already widely represented in the public art collection or in other highly visible and accessible public spaces.
- There is an appropriate site available to create an artwork and the site supports the subject of the artwork.
- There is a willing community partner that brings knowledge and expertise around the subject matter being explored.
- There is sufficient funding available to create an artwork at the chosen site.

SPECIFIC OPPORTUNITIES FOR LAS CRUCES STORIES

There are numerous elements of Las Cruces' past, present and future that could be explored through public art.

Projects could be commissioned that reveal and explore people or groups that are under-represented in Las Cruces' public art or public spaces. Examples might include exploring the African American history of Las Cruces by partnering with initiatives such as the African American Historical Research Endowment at the Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico, or exploring the history and contemporary influence of the indigenous peoples in Las Cruces.

Artists could explore the cultural and physical impact of the Rio Grande and the acequias on the past, present and future of Las Cruces. Or artists could explore other aspects of the natural environment that have had a unique impact on the community, such as the region's National Monuments – Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks (OMDPNM), Prehistoric Trackways, and White Sands – and other elements of the unique desert ecosystem that shape the culture of Las Cruces. Possible partners for environmental topics could include Friends of OMDPNM, Southwest Environmental Center, Asombro Institute, Native Plant Society, Cruces Creatives, and others.

Las Cruces' place as a crossroads is an idea that spans its history to the present day. The area was part of a major thoroughfare and trade route for indigenous peoples prior to the arrival of Europeans. The Camino Real, built during the Spanish colonial era, passed right through the heart of present-day Las Cruces. Las Cruces is a crossroads today, as well, with the University bringing people from all over the world to Las Cruces to learn and exchange ideas. And it is also a major pathway for migrants and asylum seekers coming from the south to seek a better life.

That idea of crossroads could even extend to Las Cruces' emerging role in space travel. Spaceport and other space related activities could impact the future of the region. Celebrating and exploring this narrative through public art could be done with those partners or perhaps in collaboration with the Las Cruces Space Festival.

FUNDING FOR LAS CRUCES STORIES

Las Cruces Stories public art projects would be funded through the General Fund as special appropriations in the City's annual budget. The City could also write or partner on grants to specifically fund projects in this category and ask partners to contribute funds. Las Cruces Stories projects could also be Parks and Community Facility projects, as described above, and funded through Percent for Art.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT PROCESS FOR LAS CRUCES STORIES

Through the process of developing the Annual Public Art Work Plan, the Art Program Coordinator would review potential opportunities with the City Art Board and, when the right opportunity and partnership surfaces, include it in the Annual Public Art Work Plan.

Las Cruces Stories public art projects should be commissioned using the Standard Public Art Commissioning Process outlined in this plan.

PUBLIC ART PROGRAMS

In addition to its work commissioning public art, LCPA will lead or partner with others to develop and implement a discrete number of programs. Overall, these programs are aimed at supporting local artists in developing public art as part of their practice – a key part of LCPA's mission. Programs will provide training and mentorship opportunities to help local artists grow their own practice in public art and will provide practical tools and resources for use by others interested in commissioning public art.

Artist Professional Development

TRAINING

LCPA should collaborate with other entities to provide training workshops and other resources for artists interested in pursuing public art. There are many institutions and organizations in the region that have expertise in professional development for artists or serve artists' needs and who may be interested in developing joint programming, including the Dona Ana Arts Council, NMArts, NMSU Department of Art and Art Museum, the City of El Paso's Museum and Cultural Affairs Department and its Public Art Program, and public art programs throughout New Mexico. Collaborating with these entities can help reach a larger audience and will bring more resources to the table.

Topics to cover in artist training workshops can include responding to Calls for Artists, insurance and other business and legal topics, working with fabricators and installers, developing contracts and budgets, documenting and marketing your work, and more.

In addition to curriculum-based workshops, LCPA can work with other regional commissioning and exhibiting entities, such as NMArts, NMSU, and El Paso Public Art, to offer artist talks with experienced, nationally recognized artists who may be in the region for a project. These artist talks could focus on the "behind-the-scenes" aspects of developing a public art project from the artist's point of view, and can help demystify the commissioning and project development process for artists new to public art.

There may also be opportunities to record these workshops and talks and make them available online for a broader audience. These and other existing materials can be catalogued and made available on LCPA's website.

MENTORSHIP

LCPA should develop a mentorship program to provide local artists new to the field of public art with the opportunity to assist experienced artists with LCPA commissions. The goal of the mentorship would be to provide opportunities for artists to gain technical and administrative experience needed to compete within the field of public art locally and nationally, as well as to build their public art resume.

LCPA should determine on a case-by-case basis what commissions would be appropriate for a mentorship. Usually this will depend on the budgets for new commissions and the scope of work for the artist. The mentoring component should be included in the original RFQ for the project and the mentoring responsibilities should be built into the scope of work in the lead artist's contract.

LCPA should invite local artists to apply for the mentorship opportunity through an open Request for Qualifications/Call for Artists. If a large number of mentorship opportunities are anticipated, LCPA could establish a juried Mentee Artist Roster of local artists to draw from. The Selection Committee for the public art project would review qualifications and narrow the list down to 3 – 5 candidates for the lead artist to choose from. The lead artist would select a mentee artist based on a review of qualifications and an interview.

The lead artist would establish a scope of work for the mentee artist. The responsibilities of the mentee artist might include attending planning and community meetings; conducting research regarding materials, design issues and building codes; and other duties that relate to the design, fabrication and installation of the artwork.

The mentee artist would be paid a fee directly by LCPA.

Mural Best Practices Guide

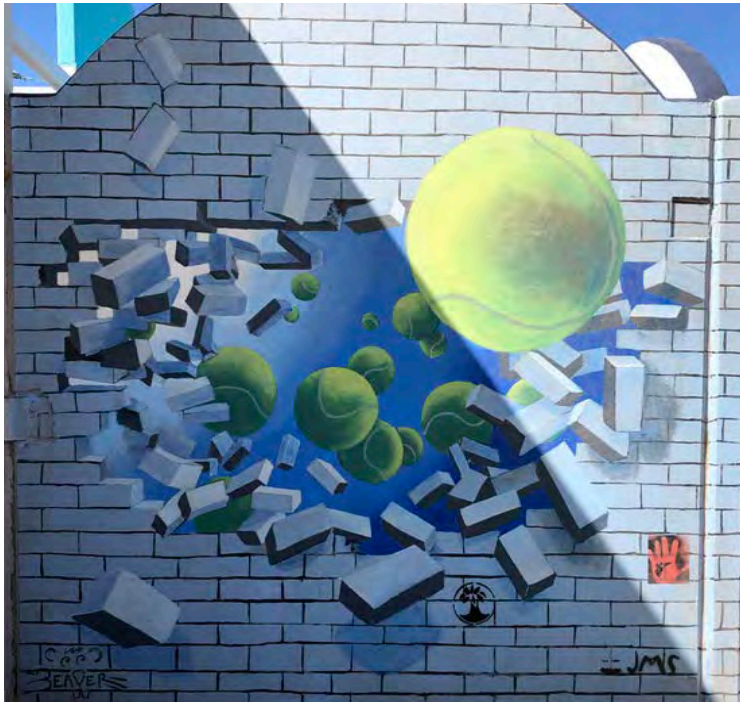

Murals are a popular form of public art in Las Cruces and speak to the region's cultural heritage and artistic heritage. Many entities in Las Cruces, such as the Downtown Las Cruces Partnership (DLCP), the Arts and Cultural District, Doña Ana Communities United, local businesses and galleries, Las Cruces Arts Association, Murals of Las Cruces, Cruces Creatives and other community organizations, are interested in commissioning murals to improve facades, revitalize neighborhoods, and support the arts. While some of the projects LCPA commissions on public property may be murals, LCPA can also play a role supporting murals on private property by developing and making accessible a best practices guide to assist private property owners and community groups interested in commissioning murals, as well as local mural artists. This guide would focus on the key issues that should be considered when commissioning murals – such as permissions, project lifespans, contracts, and artist's rights – as well as considerations regarding materials, wall preparation, and other technical issues.

COMMUNICATIONS

Las Cruces Public Art should make itself and the City Art Board known within the community and with its City colleagues as the City program responsible for commissioning, purchasing, and approving public art for City property. Effectively communicating its role, as well as its vision, to both the general public and to City colleagues will be vital to the success of the program.

Las Cruces Public Art should develop and implement an effective communications strategy that serves to:

- Raise the profile of LCPA, individual projects, and the Las Cruces Public Art Collection, as well as all public art that is accessible throughout the City.
- Build a greater understanding around the role of the City Art Board and create a level of transparency around the process for creating new public art projects.
- Encourage people to get involved on the City Art Board or on an Art Selection Committee, or to participate in Community Engaged Collaborations or other public art projects.
- Engage with local artists, encouraging them to apply for projects and learn more about public art practice.
- Educate people about individual works of public art, the artists who create them, the processes they use, etc.
- Draw attention to Las Cruces as a destination for high quality public art.
- Engage people with the works in the Las Cruces Public Art Collection.

Message and Identity

Las Cruces Public Art should be the umbrella under which all of the City's public art activities take place. It should be understood that if a City department is interested in commissioning public art, they work with LCPA to manage the artist selection and follow the procedures outlined in this plan.

The name Las Cruces Public Art should be used in all communications, including print materials, press releases, website, social media and identification labels.

When developing materials, LCPA should also consider developing key messages that are reinforced through all communications channels. Potential key messages are:

- Celebrate the talents of commissioned artists.
- Promote the role that the community has played in the selection of the artist or creation of the work.
- Relate projects back to the mission and vision of the program.
- Underscore that the approach taken toward planning, funding and implementation is related to best practices in public art.

Presence in the Community

As part of its overall communications strategy, LCPA should identify opportunities to participate in existing community events with the goal of raising awareness about LCPA and public art in Las Cruces. Annual events such as National Night Out or the Las Cruces Space Festival could be good opportunities to share information with the public about the program and, potentially, engage the public in the development of a public art project, such as a temporary mural, street painting or other hands-on collaborative activities. LCPA can also consider having a presence at more frequent events such as the Farmers & Crafts Market.

Public Art Catalog

LCPA should continue to maintain and update a full inventory of all work in the Las Cruces Public Art Collection, including high-quality images and descriptions that are accessible to the public via the City Art Tour on the City's website. LCPA can also consider adding public art in the city to national public art websites such as Westaf's Public Art Archive or the Museum without Walls. Print brochures providing an overview of the collection, outlining a self-guided tour and/or about specific works in the collection can also be a resource that is distributed at community facilities and via Visit Las Cruces and shared with people interested in public art in Las Cruces.

Project-Specific Communications Strategy

The Art Program Coordinator should develop, and include in the Project Plan, a communications strategy for each public art project that includes communications, stakeholder engagement and community involvement opportunities during the commissioning process through the unveiling of the artwork. The strategy should identify target audiences, messages, and vehicles for communication, as well as a timeline linked to the public art project milestones.

MEET THE ARTIST SESSIONS

For all new public art commissions, LCPA should work with the artist to design one or more open meetings that invite the public to meet the artist and learn about his or her practice and for the artist to learn about the community. These sessions should be organized and facilitated by LCPA.

ARTIST-DESIGNED ENGAGEMENT

For some new commissions, LCPA may also require that the artist develop their own engagement process to inform their project.

Programs to Promote Engagement with the Public Art Collection

LCPA should develop partnerships to bring the City's public art to life. Projects could include walking tours of public art in different parts of the city, curriculum materials focused on specific public artworks, engaging performing artists or musicians to create new work in response to public artworks, photography workshops focused on the public art collection, and more.

APPENDIX C:
SURVEY RESULTS

Purpose and Methodology

As part of the outreach process of developing the Las Cruces Public Art Master Plan, the City of Las Cruces and the City Art Board, working with project consultant Via Partnership, conducted an online survey. The survey was designed to gather input on a broad set of possible directions for public art as well as to learn more about people's perceptions of Las Cruces. The survey is one of several tools being used to gather input for the development of the Plan. The survey was launched on February 15 and was up through May 15, 2019. The survey received 226 complete and an additional 97 partial responses.

The survey asked five questions related to people's preferences for public art:

- Which examples are you familiar with? Please click on each image you recognize. (Respondents were shown 26 examples of artwork in Las Cruces).

- (Respondents were shown 24 examples of public art from other cities). Of these projects, pick up to five that you think are visually interesting and represent the type of art that you think would be successful in Las Cruces.

- What is the IMPACT that public art should have in Las Cruces? (Respondents were asked to indicate five preferences from a list of 14 options)

- What TYPES of artwork would you like to see in Las Cruces? (Respondents were asked to indicate four preferences from a list of 11 options)

- What are the priority LOCATIONS in Las Cruces for new public artworks? (Respondents were asked to indicate four preferences from a list of 13 options)

We also asked:

- What is the first thing that comes to mind when you think about Las Cruces?

- What places in Las Cruces do you take people to show them what Las Cruces is all about?

- Tell us about something unique about Las Cruces that a visitor or newcomer might not know about.

Findings

Several themes emerge from the survey results that cut across multiple questions and help us understand people's preferences related to public art, as well as their perceptions of Las Cruces.

COLORFUL, BIG, AND BOLD ARTWORK

First, survey respondents were attracted to art that is big, bold, and colorful and they want this kind of art for Las Cruces. Of the Las Cruces artworks shown on the survey, people were most familiar with large-scale, prominently located works such as Tony Pennock's water tank mural Jornada del Muerto on Triviz and Griggs (93.9%) and Recycled Roadrunner by Olin Calk at the 1-10 Rest Area (87.9%).

These types of large, colorful, iconic artworks were most popular among the examples of public art in other cities, as well. Survey respondents were asked to choose artworks from other cities that represent the type of artwork they think would be successful in Las Cruces from a set of images. The three most popular artworks were Reflections on the Brazos by Ryah Christensen – a colorful 4'x40' glass and stone mosaic embedded in the sidewalk along a street corner in Austin; Enchanted Promenade by TILT – a series of 10 giant peony bouquets temporarily installed in a pedestrian walkway in Houston that glow with color-changing LED lighting; and Marquise by Marc Fornes – a massive, dramatic, brightly colored canopy at the entrance to El Paso's Westside Natatorium building. And when asked to elaborate on why they chose the artworks they did, the most frequent responses were: 1) colorful (69 answers) and 2) big/bold (28).

These are the type of artworks that can serve as "memorable, highly recognizable landmarks," and indeed that was a popular selection for the impact that public art should have in Las Cruces, with 41.7% of respondents selecting this choice. Furthermore, 43.8% of respondents selected "artwork that is large-scale and iconic" as a type of artwork they would like to see more of in Las Cruces.

LOCAL RELEVANCE

Second, survey respondents also showed a strong preference for artwork that is meaningful and specific to the community and context of Las Cruces. After colorful and big/bold, the third most popular reason people chose the artworks they did from the examples from other cities was because they were culturally significant, locally relevant and show the culture of the area (23 answers). This supports a survey-wide finding showing a strong desire that public art in Las Cruces should reflect local narratives, histories, and stories and should be culturally relevant. Forty-two percent of respondents felt the impact that public art should have in Las Cruces is to "give voice to history and cultural heritage," making this impact the fourth most popular choice from the 14 options provided. And when respondents were asked to tell something unique about Las Cruces, by far the most popular type of answer was a story related to local history and culture, supporting the idea that the local culture and heritage can provide fertile ground for exploration by artists who are making work for Las Cruces in the future.

Survey respondents also feel artwork should be appropriate to the environmental and physical context of Las Cruces – its landscape and its sense of place as a New Mexican and Southwestern city. Following closely behind cultural relevance as a reason why people chose the artworks they did from other cities, was the artworks' perceived appropriateness to the region or fit with the landscape/ environment of Las Cruces or the Southwest (21 answers).

Throughout the survey responses there was a strong sense that Las Cruces has a special mix of cultures; that people in Las Cruces are, and have historically been, from all over; and that this is what makes Las Cruces what it is. This is related to the preference for artwork that shows the local culture of the area and that is appropriate to the natural environment, because it shows that people have a strong sense of what Las Cruces is, grounded in its cultural heritage, history, and physical surroundings – all narratives that can be woven throughout the public art program for artists to explore.

BEAUTIFYING EVERYDAY PLACES

People are also interested in art that beautifies and enhances the appearance of everyday places. This was the number one impact that survey respondents felt public art should have, with more than 57% of people stating that public art should enhance the visual appearance of streets and beautify public infrastructure. Artist-designed functional elements in the streetscape, such as benches, bike racks, crosswalks, manhole covers, etc. was the second most popular type of artwork that people would like to see in Las Cruces (after "artwork by local and regional artists"). People are interested in art that improves streetscapes and serves a purpose while doing so.

People are also interested in art that is interactive or activates public spaces. This was selected by 37.9% of respondents as an impact public art should have and was also a popular choice from the types of public artwork provided (41.3% chose "interactive and playful"), as well as a common reason for liking artworks from other cities (interactive or immersive was mentioned 19 times).

SUPPORTING LOCAL CREATIVE CULTURE

Throughout the survey, strong support for Las Cruces' local artists and local creative culture was shown. Just over 50% of respondents selected "enhances the visibility of Las Cruces' local creative culture" as the impact public art should have, making it the second most popular answer to that question. In addition, "artwork by local and regional artists" was the number one type of artwork people would like to see in Las Cruces, as mentioned above. Throughout the survey, including in many write-in answers, strong support for and pride in Las Cruces' local artists was shown.

Taken together the survey responses help provide a picture of the types of public art that people would like to see in Las Cruces and what they believe public art should achieve for the city and its residents.

APPENDIX D:
ARTIST SOLICITATION METHODS

Las Cruces Public Art can select from the following artist solicitation methods for each project they commission. LCPA should select an approach to recruiting and selecting artists that is specific to each project, reflecting the specific goals of each project and offering the greatest chance of finding the best artist. Selection processes should be competitive, except in situations where City staff and City Art Board determine there are extraordinary circumstances, as expressed in the approved Project Plan, and a non-competitive process has been approved by the City's procurement office.

OPEN COMPETITION

In an Open Competition, any artist may submit his or her qualifications, subject to any requirements established in the Request for Qualifications, such as geographic location. The call should be sufficiently detailed to allow artists to determine whether their qualifications are appropriate for consideration.

An Open Competition allows for the broadest range of possibilities and can bring in new, otherwise unknown, and emerging artists. However, Open Competitions can consume a large amount of staff and volunteer resources, and sometimes discourage established artists who prefer to respond to limited competitions or to be directly selected for projects.

INVITATION

In an Invitation process, several pre-selected artists are invited to submit their qualifications and/or proposals. This method may be appropriate when looking for a small group of experienced artists, for larger-scale projects, when there is a limited time frame, or if the project requirements are so specialized that only a limited number of already identified artists would be eligible. It is possible that this list of artists would come from a Roster.

ARTIST ROSTER

One tool LCPA has the option to choose is to develop a pre-qualified pool of artists, or Artist Roster, from which it can choose artists for future projects. Each roster would be developed based on a comprehensive review of qualifications from artists who responded to an Open Request for Qualifications. The review and selection of artists for the roster could be conducted by the City Art Board or by an Art Selection Committee convened for this purpose. A roster could be focused on a specific set of opportunities or could be used broadly for a range of commissions. If LCPA decides to develop a roster, they could keep the roster application open and review new submissions on a regular basis to allow new artists to be considered and for roster artists to update their materials.

Developing an Artist Roster requires upfront work and ongoing management, but it allows for artist selection for specific projects to proceed much more quickly and it allows artists to submit their qualifications once and be considered for multiple opportunities. A roster would be a viable strategy if Las Cruces were anticipating a large number of commissions over a short period of time. A Mural Artist Roster may be appropriate to develop a pool of artists who can be considered for mural projects both by the City and other entities who want to commission murals in Las Cruces.

DIRECT SELECTION

On occasion, LCPA staff and the City Art Board may choose to directly recommend an artist for a project. Direct selection may be useful on projects where there is an urgent timeline, low budget, or when very specific project requirements exist. It is possible that this artist would come from a previously developed Artist Roster. Such selection would need to be consistent with City of Las Cruces procurement procedures and be approved as part of the Project Plan.
